Seoul Survivor
Jackie McKenna
afscseoulsurvivor@gmail.com
On behalf of the US Army Garrison Yongsan leadership and staff, welcome to Korea and Area III!

The Seoul Survivor is a compilation of practical information gathered by members of our community to help you in your transition to and from Korea, and to provide you with unique learning and adventuresome opportunities. Aside from checklists in preparing for your permanent change of station (PCS), The Seoul Survivor serves as a guide to experiencing the best of Korea – providing cultural and historical venues, shopping and dining experiences, and community services.

The Seoul Survivor is attributed to the members of the American Forces' Spouses' Club. This is a group of dedicated, driven, and energized community volunteers whose tenacity and effort continue to make this community stronger, better, and more resilient. Their collective work with our host nation partners has contributed to making this assignment memorable and exciting. I am indebted to their steadfast support to and for the Area II community.

The Seoul Survivor is published by the Oriental Press – an important and valued partner who has made this great resource widely available.

I hope that your assignment to Korea is filled with an abundance of wonderful memories of the Korean culture and people, filled with many educational opportunities for self-improvement, and awe-inspiring recollections.

MESSAGE FROM ORIENTAL PRESS

For over two decades, Oriental Press Inc. has had the honor and the privilege or presenting the Seoul Survivor to the United States Forces Korea community. This ever-popular yearly orientation guide is prepared by the American Forces’ Spouses’ Club. This year’s edition for 2016-2017 marks the 30th consecutive year of the publication, and we at Oriental Press Inc. have been ever so proud to have been partnered to its existence for 22 of those years.

But there are more things about the new Seoul Survivor that are special than just its history; this year’s edition will not only provide a completed update of all pertinent details of the USFK community, but will reflect the upcoming changes the U.S. military is undergoing and how it will affect military members and their families here in Korea.

This year’s edition is a special one for us at Oriental Press Inc. Since our humble beginnings in 1987, we have seen many changes. We are truly so proud to be a part of this all-important community publication which we know will remain an invaluable resource that will continuously grow and expand in the years to come.

As we reflect back on the 30 years of this publication, a project of this type cannot be created alone and the Seoul Survivor is no exception. As such, we would like to express our sincere gratitude to Jackie McKenna, the Senior Editor and her tireless staff of volunteers for an exceptional job. Also to the current president of the AFSC Emily Daniels, and all the wonderful members of the American Forces’ Spouses’ Club for entrusting Oriental Press Inc. with

Sincerely,

Charles Chong

A Letter from the Editor

서울에 오신 것을 환영합니다
Welcome to Seoul, Korea!

Your new home is an exciting world full of cuisines to be savored, lasting memories to be created, and friendships to be built. There is not enough ink and paper to describe all that awaits you!

The Seoul Survivor is designed to assist you as you acclimate to life in Seoul. While there are many, many similarities between life in Korea and in the US, there are just as many differences – some of which will be thought-provoking, entertaining, or amusing, and some of which you might find challenging. Our goal is to help you navigate the transition, equip you to explore, and encourage you to flourish. The contents are geared toward directing you to the resources and information you need to get started. On behalf of the editorial committee, the AFSC Board, and our members, we hope you will find it helpful.

If I can give you one piece of advice, it is to embrace the adventure, and get out and explore: the city, the country, and the region. Your time here will go by so quickly, and there is so much to see, do, and taste. Visit beautiful historic sites. Experience cultural events. Marvel at the juxtaposition of ultra-modern features and venerated traditions. Plan a trip…or just walk out of a gate and see what awaits you! You will find that the Korean culture is one of hospitality and warmth, and you will find yourself embraced by your host country.

A personal note: Thank you to the AFSC Board for entrusting a second edition of this valuable resource to my care. Your confidence and support mean so much to me.

This was truly a team endeavor, and I treasured the opportunity to work with the members of this year’s editorial team. Their dedication and commitment to producing a quality product on time never waivered. I thought last year’s edition was stellar; this year’s team actually managed to make this edition even better. A special thank you to Sara Mitchell, my rock and sounding board. I could not ask for a better partner. Thank you!

Finally, thank you to our longtime partners at Oriental Press, especially Mr. Charles Chong and Mr. Joseph Terry, without whom this publication would not be possible.

Jackie McKenna, Editor-in-Chief

About AFSC

Our mission is twofold: to enhance the lives of and provide support for spouses and families stationed at USAG Yongsan and nearby locations through planned activities, to help build friendships, and to provide support through charitable giving to our American and Korean communities throughout the peninsula.

More than just a spouses’ club – we are a support network of friends! The American Forces’ Spouses’ Club (AFSC) is a community-focused military spouses’ organization that operates at United States Army Garrison (USAG) Yongsan, South Korea. We are Army, Air Force, Navy and Marine spouses, both active duty and retired. We are Department of Defense (DoD) civilian employees and spouses; Department of Defense Dependent Schools (DoDDS) teachers and their spouses; directors and spouses for the American Red Cross, United Service Organizations (USO), and Special Services; adult family members of US Department of State and US Diplomatic Mission personnel; and United Nations Command Officers’ spouses.

To find out more about AFSC, our clubs and activities, and our charitable giving, please visit our website at www.AFSCYongsan.org or on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/AFSCKorea.

About The Seoul Survivor

This publication was originally conceived, written, and compiled by Judy Bridenbaugh in an attempt to ease the frustration experienced by military members and their families when moving to a location, especially one in a foreign country. Each subsequent year, information is updated and, new material is added. This book is also available as a searchable PDF from our website at no cost.

Input for this edition has been gathered from the best available sources at the time of publication. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and relevancy of the information and maps at the time of printing. The American Forces’ Spouses’ Club (AFSC) would be grateful to receive any information from readers concerning errors or omissions. Please contact us at afsceoulsurvivor@gmail.com.

US Forces at Yongsan

In 1910, after five years of occupation, the Japanese Empire annexed Korea and immediately began a major building program to consolidate its political and military control over the country. It established the headquarters for the Imperial Japanese Army in Korea at Yongsan (Dragon Mountain) shortly after annexation. The Japanese compound included the areas known today as Yongsan Main and South Posts, Camps Coiner and Kim, Hannam Village (now closed), TMP and Seobinggo Compounds, the National Museum of Korea, the Republic of Korea (ROK) Ministry of National Defense, and the War Memorial of Korea. From 1905 to 1945, the Japanese garrisoned the post with an infantry division headquarters, at least two infantry regiments, and a cavalry unit. Colonial administrative and governmental headquarters were located on South Post.

When World War II ended, the US government sent Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge’s XXIV Corps to Korea to accept the surrender of Japanese forces south of the 38th Parallel. Meanwhile, Soviet forces moved into the area north of the Parallel. In September 1945, the US 7th Infantry Division established its headquarters at Yongsan, providing administration, order, and security of the southern zone pending establishment of a single government for the peninsula; however, the Soviets sealed the border at the 38th Parallel and created a communist North Korean state.

US forces departed Korea in mid-1949, except for the Korean Military Advisory Group (KMAG) which was established at the request of the ROK government to develop and train ROK security forces. These security forces were first organized into police constabularies and later became the foundation of the ROK Army.

The North Korean invasion on June 25, 1950 turned Korea into a battlefield. Seoul changed hands between the Communist and the United Nations forces four times sustaining substantial damage. In 1952, US forces reestablished headquarters at Yongsan and began restoring the post. The Eighth US Army moved its headquarters from Seoul National University (present day Seoul National University Medical School) to Yongsan on September 15, 1953.

On July 1, 1957, the United Nations Command (UNC) headquarters moved from Tokyo to Seoul in conjunction with an overall reorganization of US military forces and command structures in the Pacific. The US
Secretary of Defense, the Chairman of the US Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the ROK Minister of National Defense created the Combined Forces Command (CFC) in 1977; CFC was formally activated on November 7, 1978. This two-nation command, headed by a US four-star general who also serves as the Commander of United Nations Command, USFK and is the senior US Army officer in Korea, serves as the war fighting headquarters in the event of any future hostilities between the two Koreas.

Over the years, the post went through three major building phases. In the 1950s, Quonset huts were built for soldier billeting and offices. In the 1960s and early 1970s, the Quonset huts were replaced with multi-story barracks, mess halls, and gymnasiums to improve soldier living conditions. In the late 1970s through the 1990s, new troop facilities, family units, schools, the White House, and the Dragon Hill Lodge were added, transforming Yongsan into a modern military installation.

USAG Yongsan and the city of Seoul have come a long way since 1965, when the military troop ship the USS General J.C. Breckenridge (T-AP-176) first made landfall at Incheon. Although today’s military families arrive at Incheon Airport via high tech jetliners, those early soldiers came by ship and were transported north by bus or train to Camp Casey or Camp Howze or other camps throughout South Korea.

Very few civilians were assigned to Korea, but those who came here often reported to USAG Yongsan. Military families lived on the South Post, while civilians found homes out in town. Most single soldiers were living in Quonset huts on post.

Many aspects of family life on post have changed since those early days. Hannam Village, Itaewon Acres, and other housing areas didn’t exist, nor did the various restaurants on South Post. The Seoul American High School was a small, single-story building located where Army Community Service stands today. Although families could use the Seoul Military Hospital on South Post, the 121st Evacuation Hospital was located at Army Service Command/Camp Market in Bupyung until June 1971.

Recreational and shopping facilities have evolved over the years. The Commissary, which was once located near the current fire station (now the Walker Center), was open only to military families with command-sponsored status and civilians above level GS12, until 1972. The National Museum of Korea didn’t exist in those days; instead, USAG Yongsan boasted an 18-hole golf course.

Official buildings on post have also migrated through the decades. The UN Command, USFK, and the Eighth US Army were combined into the current Eighth US Army headquarters building. The library, Post Exchange (PX), and Post Office were all in different locations. The AAFES Four Seasons and Community Bank are located where enlisted barracks once stood. Two theaters occupied land next to the current USFK headquarters and predated the Main Post Club.

The changes on USAG Yongsan only begin to hint at the dramatic differences that have reshaped the city of Seoul in the past fifty years. For example, the first tunnels through Namsan Mountain appeared in 1969. There were once only four bridges crossing the Han River – a landscape now teeming with dozens of bridges, parks, and buildings.

Seoul’s massive subway began in 1974 with the opening of the Jungno Line #1; before that, people used streetcars, buses, taxis, or hobsungs (microbuses made from several 55 gallon metal barrels placed on a truck frame). Concerned that detailed maps would find their way into enemy hands, the Korean government only made tourist maps available to the public beginning in 1980.

Today, USAG Yongsan consists of 630 acres, housing the following major tenant organizations: the UNC/CFC/USFK Headquarters, Eighth US Army Headquarters, US Navy Forces Korea, US Marine Forces Korea, 501st Military Intelligence Brigade Headquarters, 1st Signal Brigade Headquarters, the 65th Medical Brigade, the Brian Allgood Army Community Hospital, and the Joint US Military Advisory Group Korea (JUSMAGK). More than 1,000 US and 6,000 Korean civilian employees augment the US military, and more than 1,000 KATUSA (Korean Augmentation to the US Army) soldiers serve on post.

Some 7,000 military and civilian employee family members reside on South Post or in neighborhoods adjacent to the garrison. Although the headquarters for the 2nd Infantry Division (2ID) is north of Seoul, many 2ID family members live in Seoul or on USAG Yongsan. The 2ID Combat Aviation Brigade resides at USAG Humphreys, but has an aviation battalion assigned to K-16.

Information in this section was provided with the help of Mr. John Nowell, former USAG Yongsan Area II Public Affairs Officer and Historian; the USFK Command History Office; and the Yongsan Public Affairs Office. For more information or to obtain a guidebook for a walking tour of USAG Yongsan, please visit the Heritage Center located on South Post, Building 4260, at 050.3323.5213, DSN 723.5213.
This section provides helpful references, information about utilities, and other items to help you as you transition to life at US Army Garrison (USAG) Yongsan.

The primary mission of the American Red Cross in Korea is to serve military personnel and their families, improve the quality of human life, enhance self-reliance and concern for others, and help people avoid, prepare for, and cope with emergencies. The Brian Allgood Army Community Hospital and its clinics host a wide spectrum of Red Cross volunteer opportunities including leadership, administrative, and casework positions.

American Red Cross services include health and safety classes such as CPR, First Aid and AED classes, Life Guarding and Water Safety, Babysitter Training, Instructor Training, Pet First Aid and Disaster Services. Available classes vary by community. Please contact your local area Red Cross station for class availability and cost.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: Building 2259, Moyer Recreation Center, Room 215 Phone: 02.7918.3670 DSN: 738.3670 Fax: 02.7918.9012 Fax DSN: 738.9012 Website: http://www.redcross.org/

ARMED FORCES EMERGENCY SERVICE (AFES)

The Red Cross provides rapid communications between military members, DoD civilians and their families regarding death, serious illness, childcare breakdowns, birth, health and welfare reports, and other personal or family problems. Family members back home should call their local Red Cross to request emergency message service. Your family will need your current rank, social security number, and military address for the request. Answers to frequently asked questions are listed below.

How do I send a message?

For requests between 8:00 am and 4:00 pm, call your installation Red Cross Office. After hours, contact the USAG Yongsan Office (number listed on the next page). A caseworker will process your message. To expedite service, please provide as much pertinent information related to the situation as possible (e.g., local point of contact, name and phone numbers, doctor’s name and phone number, location of patient, your 1SG’s or Company Commander’s name and phone numbers).

What do I do if I get a message?

For emergency messages, your 1SG will be called to copy its contents and deliver them to you. If a non-emergency message arrives, every effort will be made to locate you in order to deliver its contents to you directly. Once you have received your message, discuss the situation with your chain of command.

Will the service pay my way home?

If you have been placed on Emergency Leave with Funded Travel Orders, the military will pay for your plane ticket to a port of entry on the west coast. Any follow-on travel will be your responsibility. Ordinary Leave under Emergency Conditions requires that you pay for the entire plane ticket. Contact your chain of command regarding travel regulations for your family.

Embassies

FOREIGN EMBASSIES

Most countries maintain an embassy or consulate in Seoul. They can be very helpful in providing you with travel information for their country and will assist in any visa arrangements if you are not traveling with a group that is handling details for you. The embassies can also tell you of any necessary vaccinations/immunizations required for travel in their country. Do not expect foreign embassies to warn you of potential difficulties/dangers of travel in their country; most try to encourage tourism. Please visit the Department of State’s Bureau of Consular Affairs website at http://travel.state.gov to find travel warnings, travel advisories and entry requirements for specific countries. The Yongsan library is a good source for current telephone numbers or addresses you may need. Service members will need permission from their command and country-specific training from the Foreign Clearance Guide website prior to any travel abroad.
US EMBASSY

US Ambassador Mark Lippert and the US Embassy in Seoul welcome you to Korea. Assisting Americans overseas is their highest priority, and they look forward to serving you.

American Citizen Services (ACS)

The American Citizen Services (ACS) section accepts applicants for US passports, adjudicates Consular Reports of Birth Abroad (CRBA) for children born to US citizen parent(s) abroad, notarizes documents, offers voting assistance, transmits benefits applications to Social Security, Veterans Affairs and other federal agencies for action, repatriates destitute US citizens, conducts welfare and whereabouts searches, assists the family members of US citizens who die in Korea, and visits US citizens who are arrested for violating the law. For details on ACS services and to download application forms, visit the ACS website, below.

Yongsan, Daegu, and Other Off-site Services

Consular officers provide routine services at USAG Yongsan every Wednesday on a first-come, first-served basis. Off-site services are also offered occasionally in Daegu (including Camp Henry) and Busan. Customers based at Camp Humphreys can apply for passports and Consular Reports of Birth Abroad (CRBAs) directly through the Post Passport Acceptance Agent located in the Transportation Building. USAG Yongsan and off-site locations only accept money orders for payment. Times, dates, and locations for off-site services are subject to change. For latest off-site service schedules, see the website, below.

Passports

ACS encourages all US citizens, including military and dependents, to maintain a valid US passport at all times. Tourist passports are required for personal travel; official or “no-fee” passports should only be used for official travel such as PCS or TDY travel. Always hand-carry your passport when traveling. When you’re out and about, keep your passport in a secure location, such as a hotel safe. If you hold a no-fee passport that contains your SOFA stamp, you will need to carry both the no-fee and tourist passports if you wish to visit a country other than the United States. You must show the no-fee passport to Korean authorities and the tourist passport to authorities in other countries.

Visas

While stationed in Korea, you may wish to take advantage of the wonderful travel opportunities in Asia. Before traveling, be sure to check the entry requirements for each country you plan to visit. In addition to a valid passport, many nearby countries require US citizens to obtain a visa for entry. Some visas may be obtained at the airport upon arrival; others must be obtained at the Embassy of the country you are visiting prior to travel. In addition, many countries require a traveler to hold a passport with at least six months remaining validity and/or two blank pages. For entry requirements of your destination, visit the website below.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: US Department of State’s Bureau of Consular Affairs Website: http://travel.state.gov

SOFA Stamps

The US Embassy does not issue Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) stamps. Please see the PCS section of this publication for more information.)
Getting Married in Korea

Registering a Baby in Korea
The Embassy strongly encourages all US citizens who have children born in Korea to apply for a Consular Report of Birth Abroad (CRBA) and passport as soon as possible after the birth of the child. A CRBA is an official record confirming that the child acquired US citizenship at birth. It can be issued only at a US Embassy or Consulate overseas, and only before the child reaches 18 years of age. For details, visit the website below.
CONTACT INFORMATION.

Naturalization and Immigration
The Department of Homeland Security, US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS), maintains an office at US Embassy Seoul. USCIS can assist with issues such as US citizenship, naturalization, and immigration applications for non-US citizen spouses and other family members. USCIS provides services at USAG Yongsan every Wednesday at the same time and location as ACS services (see page 28). For details, visit the website below.
CONTACT INFORMATION. Website: http://seoul.usembassy.gov/dhs.html

Staying Safe in Korea
Crime rates in Korea are low compared to the US, but you should never let your guard down. The Embassy has received reports of US citizens who have been victims of crime from petty theft to sexual assault and rape. Conversely, Americans are arrested in Korea every year for violating the laws of the Republic of Korea. Alcohol abuse is often a contributing factor. If you are a victim of crime, first call the police by dialing 112. If you need further assistance, contact the Special Citizen Services (SCS) Unit at the US Embassy. For more information on crime and staying safe in Korea, please visit the website below.
CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: Special Citizen Services (SCS) Unit at the US Embassy Website: http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/english/country/korea-south.html

Staying Connected

You can also follow the Embassy on Facebook or Twitter (see below). The Embassy’s goal is to reach all US citizens in the Republic of Korea with current security information and other important updates.

TELEPHONE SERVICE, OFF POST

Your telephone/Internet provider will vary. It is often included in your rent or utilities fees. Discuss choices with your rental company or contact one of the above numbers to see if they service your area.

Public Telephones

If you do not have a telephone in your quarters, there are overseas telephone lines available for use at Moyer CAC and at the USO. You can use the phones and pay for calls in dollars, won, or by using pre-paid telephone cards. There are free Skype phones at USO Seoul in Bldg 4034. See the United Services Organization section for contact information. You can also use pre-paid phone cards at all local pay telephones and with Korean cell phones.

Cell Phones

Korea is the most wired country in the world. Only unlocked American cell phones will work in Korea, and vice versa, but you will need to purchase a Korean SIM card and calling plan. Also, an unlocked iPhone from the US will only get 3G service in Korea.

Some Korean cell phone plans also include calls to and from the US at reasonable prices, so check your options before you buy. Some carriers offer a phone number you can call that will connect you to the US without any additional fees.

Unlike in the US, military orders will not allow you to cancel your cell phone contract. If you leave before your contract is complete, you will need to either pay off the remaining months of the plan or sell your plan to someone else. If you take over a contract, you will need to take the phone to the place of purchase and change the payment information associated with the phone.
The US Military and the Korean government require drivers to use a hands free device, no headsets, so if you must take a call while driving, find a safe place to pull over and take the call.

Where to Buy a Phone

Concession Stand in the PX
New and used phones are available, ranging in price from $50 to $500. Plans vary with the service and minutes you require. A basic plan starts for as little as $10 per month plus the cost of the phone. Read all service agreements carefully; some plans charge for all calls made to cell phones operated by other service providers.

The Business Center in the Dragon Hill Lodge
New and used phones with various plans are available. Also offers printing, scanning, and faxing for a fee.

Pre-paid phone cards to program into the phone are another convenient option. More time can be purchased and added, or have several months programmed in at a time at approximately $10 minimum per month. Several businesses on post sell phone minutes, including the PX concession and the DHL Business Center, and they will program your phone for you. Ask for details about programming cards and expiration dates when purchasing your phone.

INTERNET, ON POST
Your Internet provider is determined based on where you are assigned quarters. Once the housing office informs you of where you will be living, you can contact the appropriate provider to schedule new service. These numbers may also be used to report service issues/request a service call.

TELEVISION, ON POST
LG U+ offers Cable TV (CATV) service to those living on post. A variety of American Forces Network (AFN), US channels, and command channels which provide community information and force protection advisories, are available. Pamphlets listing channels offered and fees are available at the LG U+ kiosk at the Moyer Recreation Center. Visit http://afnpacific.net for the latest AFN and radio schedule.

TELEVISION, OFF POST
Korean cable television may be included as part of your rent. Ask your realtor to have Korean cable television installed. To receive AFN programming, personnel living off post will need to lease a decoder box and purchase a Direct to Home (DTH) cable TV satellite dish. Fees include an installation charge and monthly decoder fees. When you purchase your satellite dish and decoder box, PX Customer Service will give you the current contact information for the contracted installation company.

NOTE: Many apartment complexes and rental properties do not permit installation of AFN DTH equipment. Refer to the list provided by the housing office. Review AFN availability carefully before entering into a lease agreement. (Military websites also carry many of the same advisories.) Service members and DoD civilians who rent a property where DTH equipment installation is not available must sign a housing office statement of acknowledgment. If the landlord does allow installation of AFN DTH equipment on his or her property, you must obtain written permission beforehand. The Housing Services Office (HSO) will assist you in getting written permission.

Internet Television

Another television viewing option available to both on and off post residents in Korea is via the Internet. Apple TV, Roku, and Amazon Fire are popular here. Some content on Netflix, Hulu, and other streaming services may be restricted due to licensing agreements.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL SERVICES

ATM Access

You may obtain cash or make account inquiries with your credit card or any other ATM card which displays the AFFN or CIRRUS Network logo. Ask your bank about service fees that may apply. Many banks will not charge ATM or currency conversion fees for members on active-duty overseas orders.

Cashing Checks

Many people elect to keep their checking account at a US bank or credit union. The Community Bank will only cash checks if you have an account with them. You may cash checks for up to $200 at the PX in the Customer Service section. The 175th Finance office will cash only the first month’s rent and security deposit checks.

Changing Coins

People often want to know how to exchange their Korean coins for paper money. Most Korean bank branches near Yongsan have a coin counter available for non-account holders. Some will require that you sort the coins by denomination, especially if you have a large number of coins. Show your coins to the greeter at the door during normal bank hours, and he or she will usually take the coins and put them in the sorting machine for you. You will get a tray with the sorted coins and a paper slip to take to the teller to exchange for bills.

Currency Exchanges

On post banks and ATMs will disperse both US dollars and Korean won. Pay close attention to the current conversion rates to get the best value for your money. There are a number of currency exchange centers off post that will exchange large amounts at varying rates. This service is especially important for those living off post who must pay their monthly rent to their realtor in cash.

Banks

The following financial institutions provide banking services in the USAG Yongsan area. Note: The banks on post observe both US and Korean holidays.

Community Bank

Community Bank operates the banking facilities on all posts and bases in Korea with full service banking (direct deposit, won conversion, auto loans (new and used), and ATM access). The Community Bank ATM card offers 24/7 banking with no fees for withdrawing US dollars, Korean won, or balance inquiries. Community Bank offers 13 full-time branches, two part-time offices and a network of 51 ATMs on the peninsula.

USAA

Call USAA and set up a system for local withdrawals at ATMs depending on your needs. The ATM restrictions usually allow only $500 withdrawals at one time, so you may need to make multiple withdrawals if you need access to large amounts to pay monthly rent.

Korean Banking

There are many Korean banks with branches throughout Seoul. You will not be required to have a Korean bank account unless you have a job on the economy that pays in Korean won. However, some families find it helpful to have a Korean account to facilitate online bill payment (including paying rent). Many (but not all) Korean bank branches will have at least one employee who speaks English well enough to assist you.

Requirements for opening a Korean bank account vary by bank. Korean banks prefer an Alien Registration Card (ARC) to open a new account, but most will allow the use of a passport if you do not have an ARC. The biggest banks in Korea (and most likely to be able to assist you in English) are Kookmin Bank, Shinhan Financial Group, Woori Financial Group, and KEB Hana Bank. Please visit these individual banks websites for more information on English-language services (including bank branches specifically for foreigners). There is a Shinhan ATM on Yongsan post just inside Gate 21.

POSTAL SERVICES

USPS

The Army Post Office (APO) processes all mail coming from and going to the Armed Forces Pacific, AP, Region. Sending mail to and from this region costs the same as continental US postal rates. Several USPS mail drop boxes are located throughout USAG Yongsan.

General delivery is available for those not serviced by a unit mailroom. Use the contact information below for more information

Korea Post

To ship items within Korea (not including to other military installations), you may need to use the Korean postal service, Korea Post. There are many post drop boxes in the Yongsan area, and the nearest post office is located outside Gate 14 on the right at the intersection with the main road. Please remember that it is almost never legal to ship goods purchased at the PX or Commissary to non-US military personnel in Korea.

Suggested Reading

There are countless books available on Korea, its culture, language, and tourist sites. Here is a small selection. All titles are available at www.amazon.com and local booksellers.

Planning Your PCS

Congratulations on your assignment to Korea! This section will help you prepare for departure, inform you about what to expect upon arrival and guide you when you plan to move to your next assignment.

Take a trip to your Army Community Service (ACS), Airman & Family Readiness Center, Fleet & Family Support Center or Marine & Family Programs office to sign up for an Overseas Move Class for Korea. If you and your family belong to a service branch other than the Army, inform personnel helping you that Yongsan Garrison (known as USAG Yongsan) is in Seoul, South Korea, and is an Army installation. In addition, be sure to look in your local bookstore or library and online for information (see Resources section).

Your gaining office should automatically assign a sponsor, but sometimes this is unintentionally overlooked. However, Korea is an assignment where a sponsor can be a relocating family’s biggest asset. Your sponsor can get your email and/or mailing address, assist with kennel reservations, check availability of quarters, provide you with Internet sites for learning more about relocation, etc. If you have not heard from a sponsor as your move draws near, take the initiative and contact your gaining unit, either by email or telephone, and ask for any sponsorship information they can provide.

PCS TO KOREA: A CHECKLIST

Military.com has checklists to help prepare for a PCS. Below are some Korea-specific suggestions. Though it is hard to anticipate everything you will need to care for prior to departing your current duty station, this checklist will give you some place to start.

If you plan to take extended leave prior to heading to Korea, be sure to take care of time-sensitive items at your last duty station before departing. Once you leave that duty station, it can be difficult to address issues if you are not physically located there any longer.
CHECKLIST: PCS TO KOREA

90 Days Before Departure from Current Duty Station
□ Attend an overseas move class for Korea
□ Start a “PCS” binder to hold all of your PCS-related documents to hand carry with you. At a minimum, you will want to include:
  □ Copies of orders and all amendments (10)
  □ POA(s)
  □ Birth certificates (originals)
  □ Marriage certificate (original)
  □ Shipping documents, including for your vehicle
  □ Passports
  □ ID cards
  □ Driver’s licenses
  □ Immunization/medical/dental/vision records (including from civilian providers)
  □ Pet documents
  □ School records
□ Sort your possessions into categories: household goods shipment, unaccompanied baggage, baggage for the plane, storage or purge (see Housing, Baggage, and Unaccompanied Baggage sections below for recommendations).
□ Obtain Power(s) of Attorney (see Documents below).
□ Update wills.
□ Contact personnel to obtain a no-fee passport (see Passports below).
□ Schedule medical and dental appointments to be completed before your move, including immunization appointments, and request records (see Medical below).
□ Determine your preferred timeframes for your household goods and unaccompanied baggage shipments and contact your transportation office for scheduling.
□ Complete required maintenance on any vehicle to be shipped and start arranging for shipping (see Vehicles below).
□ If you plan to bring your pet(s), determine transport plans. If not bringing your pets, begin to plan for their care while you are away.

60 Days Before Departure from Current Duty Station
□ Contact your insurance provider(s) and determine what insurance changes are needed (see Insurance below).
□ If needed, renew your drivers’ licenses and/or military ID (see Driver’s License & ID Requirements below).
□ Buy items that will be difficult to obtain in Korea (see Household Goods section below) to include in Unaccompanied Baggage or Household Goods shipments.
□ Obtain international drivers’ licenses if you plan to drive in Asia (see Driver’s License & ID Requirements below).
□ Pre-register school-aged children online and obtain school records from current school. (http://www.dodea.edu/Pacific/Korea/)

30 Days Before Departure from Current Duty Station
□ Make reservations for temporary accommodations when you arrive in Korea (see Accommodations below).
□ Make travel arrangements through the Travel Office and review arrival information below for your arrival airport. (NOTE: if you are departing your last duty station earlier than 30 days out (e.g., taking leave between departure from duty station and actually leaving for Korea), you may need to make these arrangements before you leave, as it may be difficult to do so once you are no longer physically collocated with the Travel Office.)
□ Submit your change of address with the post office scheduled to start upon your departure (see Mail below).

14 Days Before Departure from Current Duty Station
□ Plan your baggage for the plane, including entertainment options for children or any special treats to be opened in route.
□ If possible, start shifting your schedule to Korea time (staying up later and sleeping later).
□ Use up or give away perishable or opened foods, anything in glass containers, flammable items, aerosols, etc. Check with your shipping company to determine other items they will not pack and ship.
□ Download and study the Driver’s Study Guide (see Driver’s License & ID Requirements below).
□ Contact banks/credit card companies for information on fees for international purchases and ATM withdrawals (see Money below).
ACCOMMODATIONS

When you arrive in Korea, the first step is to sign into USAG Yongsan at the 1st Replacement Company. Housing may take some time, so please plan for accommodations either on or off post until your housing is available.

Hotels, On Post

Dragon Hill Lodge

The Dragon Hill Lodge (DHL) is a hotel located on post at USAG Yongsan. Be aware of international rates if you call from the US. The DHL is a vacation destination and although those in PCS status are a priority, room availability may vary depending on demand. If you are assigned to Yongsan, it is recommended to make reservations ahead of time for up to 30 days. If you are assigned to areas other than Yongsan, you may want to make reservations for up to 7 days. If you secure housing sooner than expected, let the front desk know; there are no early departure fees.

The Housing Management Office approves Temporary Lodging Allowance (TLA) in 10-day increments. Please be aware that the DHL does not do direct billing with military finance and hotel costs are to be paid by the service member/family. Receipts will need to be submitted for reimbursement with TLA documentation.

The DHL does not have pet friendly rooms (see the Pets section for more information). If you arrive in Korea outside of the Pet Center hours, the DHL will allow your pets (in their crates) to be stored in their loading dock area until the Pet Center’s next business day.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Phone: 011.82.82.7918.2222 (CONUS) Website: www.dragonhilllodge.com

Hotels, Off Post

You are not required to stay on post. If you prefer, you can choose to stay at a hotel off post. The Dragon Hill Lodge website has a list of hotels in the immediate area of USAG Yongsan (find it under “rooms,” then “other information” menu). Please be aware of cancellation policies when you book to avoid any unexpected charges.

COMMAND SPONSORSHIP

Military members eligible to have their family members accompany them in Korea must fill out paperwork requesting Command Sponsorship. Command sponsorship allows dependents to travel and live with the military spouse on base in a foreign country fully funded by the government. Command Sponsorship benefits, requirements, and programs vary by service. Your sponsor should assist you with this process. Note that TRICARE coverage in Korea for secondary adult dependents (an adult dependent other than the spouse living in the home) differs from benefits you may be receiving at your current duty station. Verify the coverage and services you need for all members of your family prior to relocating to Korea. Families choosing to accompany military members without Command Sponsorship will have very limited access to support services such as medical care, schooling, and housing. If you need to apply for Command Sponsorship after arriving in country, contact the Command Sponsorship Program Office.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: Command Sponsorship Office DSN: 724.8639 Website: http://8tharmy.korea.army.mil/g1_ag/g1/eusa_csp/csp_website.pdf

EXCEPTIONAL FAMILY MEMBER PROGRAM (EFMP)

As part of the overseas screening process, all military family members must be screened through the EFMP office at their Medical Treatment Facility. EFMP is a mandatory enrollment program that works with other military and civilian agencies to provide comprehensive and coordinated medical, educational, housing, community support, and personnel services to families with any special needs. Even if you are accepted for PSC to Korea, it is recommended that you contact the local EFMP office ahead of arrival in country to verify if the services your family requires will be available to you.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: USAG Yongsan, Bldg. 4106 Phone: 050.3338.5028 DSN: 736.7505/5028 Int’l: 8.22.7918,5028

DOCUMENTS

Make sure all necessary documents are up-to-date and copies are given to a trusted friend, relative, or attorney. Hand carry original documents such as birth certificates, marriage licenses, diplomas, and wills on the plane.

When you apply for your A-3 visa and Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) stamp, you will need a clear photocopy of the sponsor’s ID card and dependent ID cards with the front and back of the card on the same side of the paper. Color photocopies are recommended.

Orders

Always have multiple copies of your orders with amendments, pinpoint orders and any separate orders for family members available for in-processing both at Korean Immigration and on post. At least 10 extra copies are recommended. If you need to make additional copies, your unit or 1st Replacement Company can assist you once you arrive at USAG Yongsan.

Power of Attorney (POA)

It is wise for all service members and their spouses to have a current POA. Remote assignments, deployments, and Noncombatant Evacuation Operations (NEO) requirements make a POA an absolute necessity in Korea. Whether your family will be coming with you to Korea or remaining in the US, it is a good idea to have a POA prepared before leaving your current duty station.

Employment Records

Family members wishing to work in Korea should hand carry proof of previous employment, such as official personnel records, letters of recommendation, pay stubs, etc. Also, bring copies of diplomas, transcripts, and your marriage license to assist in qualifying for Military Spouse Preference. Family members wishing to work on the Korean economy, for instance as an English teacher, should bring their original diplomas, as copies of diplomas are not sufficient for the required E-2 visa. Some employers and colleges require an official, sealed transcript with a signature or stamp along the seal line of the envelope.

School Records

Make sure that copies of all school records are up-to-date and hand-carried. For guidelines on the documents needed for the DoDDS schools on post, see the Education section of this publication. School records (diplomas and/or transcripts) are required to take college-level courses at the university campuses on post.

Mail

Your sponsor or gaining unit should assign a mailing address so you can fill out change of address forms before you PCS. Most people stationed in USAG Yongsan are required to receive personal mail through their workplace. If your sponsor does not proactively provide this, do not hesitate to ask.

DRIVER’S LICENSE AND ID REQUIREMENTS

Driver’s License

Make sure that your US driver’s license is current and will remain current for your entire tour in Korea (and a few months beyond). Most Departments of Motor Vehicles will allow you to renew your license at any time, so it is wise to do this before you leave the US. Within the first thirty days of your arrival, you will need to obtain a United States Forces Korea (USFK) license to drive on post or anywhere in Korea.

International Driver’s License

If you plan on extensive travel in Asia (Japan, Malaysia, Indonesia, etc.), it is strongly suggested that you obtain an international driver’s license, available through AAA and other vendors. International licenses are available in Korea, but it is easier to obtain one before you arrive.

Identification Card

Your military identification card is your lifeline overseas. You will need this to get on post and gain access to most facilities. Until your ID card is registered in the Defense Biometric Identification System (DBIDS) and a ration card is issued, typically during in-processing, you will need a second form of identification to gain access to post. A copy of your pinpoint orders can be used to gain access to any AAFES facility. For commissary access, you need orders that show the dependents’ names, stamped by the ration card office, until your ration card is obtained.

A SOFA stamp can only be issued through to your date eligible to return from overseas (DEROS) or the expiration date of your ID card, whichever is first. If your ID is scheduled to expire during your stay here in Korea, renew it prior to arrival or at the 1st Replacement Company upon your arrival. More information on the SOFA stamp is provided below.
INSURANCE
The two types of insurance most commonly required by service members and their families in Korea are automobile insurance and household goods/personal effects insurance. The insurance company you do business with in the US may also provide coverage in Korea. You should confirm this prior to departing the US. Insurance in Korea is available through USAA, GEICO, and CIGNA. There are also affordable, reputable companies in Korea who will provide coverage to Americans serving here.

Automobile
Automobile liability insurance is required to register a motor vehicle with the Provost Marshal. Check with your insurance company and make sure your auto policies cover living abroad.

Personal Property/Renter's/Homeowner’s
Many service members also choose to carry a “renter’s policy” to cover their personal property against fire and theft. Also, if you own a home in the US and plan to rent it while overseas, be sure to talk to your insurance company regarding required changes to your homeowner’s policy. Check with your insurance company and make sure your renter’s/homeowner’s policies cover living abroad.

PASSPORT/VISA
Although an active duty service member can generally travel with his or her military ID card accompanied by military orders to the overseas duty station and will be allowed to stay for the full length of the assignment without a visa, all personal travel requires a tourist passport. All family members, including infants, are required to have a passport with a proper Korean A-3 visa and SOFA stamp.

The US government will provide a no-fee passport to all eligible command-sponsored family members. Contact your local personnel office for the proper forms and information. The processing time is generally between six and eight weeks, so begin the process as soon as orders for command sponsorship are approved. Do not depart your losing installation without receiving the no-fee passport.

All family members, civilians, and even newborns must obtain an A-3 visa (which allows for multiple entries into Korea) and SOFA stamp within 90 days upon arrival. Each person in the family (to include the military member) is encouraged to have a US tourist passport as well. You can obtain a tourist passport through your local US Post Office. This allows you the option to travel in Asia while you are here. Family members may also choose to travel to Korea with their tourist passport instead of a no-fee government passport to avoid having two passports for travel.

Generally, SOFA stamp holders are not required to get a Korean Alien Registration Card (ARC). However, in some circumstances, it may be helpful to have a card. It can make Internet banking easier and make it possible to register for certain types of classes. If you would like to get an ARC, you can fill out a form at the immigration office when you go to get your SOFA stamp.

MEDICAL
Medical, Dental and Vision Evaluations
Complete any upcoming checkups (such as dental cleanings or children’s annual pediatric checkups) prior to departing for Korea.

Prescriptions
Fill prescriptions for all family members prior to departing for Korea. Plan to have enough on hand for the journey, any unforeseen delays, and for at least three months after arrival; hand carry them with you.

Immunizations
Contact your stateside medical facility for current information on required immunizations, as these can change; Preventative Medicine is the best clinic to speak with. For information current as of this printing, please see the Medical section of this publication.

MONEY
If you are coming from a major city with banks or private companies that deal in foreign currency, it may be possible for you to buy some Korean won at an advantageous rate prior to departure. Check online for the current exchange rate in Korea and then compare that to the exchange rates available in the US.
Once at USAG Yongsan, all the ATM machines dispense your choice of US dollars or Korean won. Be aware of any fees or commissions that could cancel out any advantage of the quoted rate. You will be able to exchange US dollars at the airport, but it is not recommended that you exchange large amounts as this rate is generally not the lowest available. Many people also choose to utilize off post currency exchange offices, which sometimes offer better rates than ATMs.

Credit cards are widely accepted in Seoul, but you should obtain information on international transaction fees from your credit card company prior to departure to avoid unexpected surprises.

PETS

Many people choose to bring their pets to Korea. Be aware, however, that pets are not allowed in the Burke Towers housing complex and in some off post housing. Check with the Housing Office to find out about the availability of housing and whether pets can be accommodated.

Please see the Pets section of this publication for detailed information on transporting your pets, what to expect when you arrive, and how to care for them once you are settled in your new home.

VEHICLES

There are several options available to service members and their families, but regulations vary. Most families are authorized to ship one vehicle. Please keep in mind that a motorcycle counts as personal property and not a vehicle. If your vehicle is financed, you will need permission from the lender to ship your vehicle overseas (contact your lender for specifics). If you are leaving a vehicle in the US, consider providing a special POA to the person keeping the vehicle or make sure that they are authorized to speak on your behalf with your lender and/or insurance company. Contact your insurance provider to find out their requirements and take care of these issues early.

As an alternative, you can purchase a vehicle once you arrive. There are numerous used cars available, and as cars are prone to getting dinged here due to small parking spaces, a “hoopie” (jalopy) vehicle may be a better option.

CHECKLIST: SHIPPING YOUR POV TO KOREA

In order to ship your POV to Korea you will need:

- Official orders
- Proof of entitlement
- Proof of identity

Shipping Your Belongings

As of February 2009, US Army officials increased the Joint Forces Travel Regulation (JFTR) weight allowance to 50% of household goods to Korea for accompanied tours (there are exceptions by service) and 25% for unaccompanied tours for Army service members. Housing Offices have loaner furniture and appliances available for reporting service members.

Government quarters on post and leased quarters off post have limited storage capacity to accommodate entire JFTR weight allowance if shipped. There is typically no additional storage space in off post housing. Contact your servicing Housing Office prior to shipping any household goods for information on storage options.

As you prepare to PCS overseas, you will need to decide what will go into storage, and what will ship. Your belongings will be transported in three groupings: what you bring with you on the plane, an unaccompanied baggage shipment (air cargo), and a household goods shipment (sea cargo). The remainder of your belongings will be put into storage.
HOUSEHOLD GOODS VS. STORAGE

The government allows a percentage of your total weight allowance to be shipped and the remainder of your items will be placed in storage at government expense. Your household goods shipment may take several months to arrive, so consider sending this shipment early. Inventory this shipment very carefully. If you are sending special items, take color photos prior to packing and hand carry those photos to help settle any claims.

It is important to note that if items are in storage and you then move to another overseas location, you may be entitled to have all your items shipped from long-term storage to a new location. However, it is not possible to ship some items and leave some in storage. If you currently have items in long-term storage and wish to have them at your new residence in Korea, note they cannot be released until you have a final address in Korea.

Regardless of your weight allowance, think carefully when deciding what to ship. Bring the things that you cannot live without, but keep in mind that your life may become filled with treasures from Asia. Do not bring things “just in case” you might need them. Housing varies widely, but most quarters are smaller than US homes and have minimal storage space; you can quickly find yourself overcrowded. See Housing in the “Post Arrival in Korea” section below for details on loaner furniture.

LUGGAGE

When you first arrive, you may have to “live out of your luggage” for four to eight weeks or make purchases at the Exchange, Second Hand Rose Thrift Shop, or on the economy. Before you leave the US, find out which of your favorite stores will ship to an APO address and their website addresses. One option is www.shipitAPO.com for businesses that will not ship to an APO.

Each family member should have their own ticket and, therefore, each family member is entitled to luggage. Bring the maximum number of suitcases necessary to ensure you have all you and your children need, but keep in mind you and your family will have to carry all your baggage (including suitcases packed for small children) yourselves, and this can be especially challenging as you go through in processing once you arrive in Korea. What you pack is limited by the baggage weight limits. Check your orders and with your airline about the number of bags you are allowed per traveler and the weight limit. Some have very generous allowances for those traveling on military orders.

Car seats, booster seats, and strollers can often be checked free or as one of your checked bags. Check with your airline regarding any in-flight car seat requirement for your child’s age, height and weight.

CHECKLIST: BAGGAGE

The following are some suggested “essential” items to include in your checked baggage:
- Current seasonal clothes
- Summer: Umbrella and rain boots
- Winter: Warm layers, including a heavy coat, gloves, and hat
- Several pair of comfortable shoes, as you will be doing a lot of walking compared to what is common in the US, especially until your vehicle arrives.

The trip to Korea is a long one regardless of where you are coming from. The following are some suggested “essential” items to include in your carry-on baggage:
- Kid-friendly snacks
- Games, toys, and favorite blankets for kids
- Special surprises; parents experienced in long trips recommend having multiple small snacks, books, etc. that the kids can open at intervals throughout the trip to break it up.
- Reading material
- Slippers
- Toiletry kit
- Medications (prescriptions, pain killer/fever reducers, anti-nausea, motion sickness, sleep aid)

UNACCOMPANIED BAGGAGE

Although this shipment, by way of air cargo, could be slightly delayed, it may still be the only shipment you receive for months if you have to live in a hotel or temporary housing until your permanent housing becomes available. Even if you move into your permanent housing right away, your household goods still may not arrive for a few months.
HOUSEHOLD GOODS

Household goods is the largest of your shipments. Besides the obvious, consider bringing the following items (see the Shopping section of this publication for information on what may be available for purchase locally in Korea.)

Room Air Cleaners and Filters

Ensure you bring enough filters (or find a website that ships what you need to an APO) for your units to last your entire stay in Korea. These are extremely necessary for those with breathing conditions and small children. Some units and filters may be available through the Self Help Center or the Housing Office if you find you need them after arrival, but if you have your own, consider shipping it as availability is sometimes limited.

CHECKLIST: UNACCOMPANIED BAGGAGE

While the ACS Loan Closet can help you with some items until your shipment arrives, consider the following items in unaccompanied baggage:

- Kitchen and eating necessities, including plates, utensils, measuring cups and spoons, pots and pans (in limited numbers)
- Small appliances such as a microwave oven, mixer, toaster, crock pot, and coffee maker
- Household supplies (broom, vacuum, mop)
- Towels (bath and kitchen)
- Bed linens, including blankets and pillows (loaner furniture bed sizes are extra-long twin and queen)
- Queen/twin size mattress toppers
- Clothing to span the current and next season
- At least one evening dress/suit per adult for various social functions
- Children’s items, particularly their favorite games and toys
- Baby furniture and equipment: crib, changing table, jogger stroller, etc.
- Computer equipment
- TV/DVD player and electronic accessories
- Small hand tools (hammer, screwdriver)

Small Tools

Saw, impact-hammer drill (important as walls are concrete in most housing), concrete nails, mortar bits, stepladder, screws with anchors, etc. If you are sure you will be in government housing, these tools are available at the Self Help Center on USAG Yongsan but at times are difficult to reserve. You may also contract with individuals at Self Help Center to come and hang items at your home including pictures, curtains, and mirrors.

Baby Items

The Furniture Management Office (part of Housing) does not have cribs, toddler beds, changing tables or any other baby furnishing items to loan. If you have a baby or are expecting, bring baby furniture in your household goods. ACS does have limited supplies of pack ‘n play systems available for loan until your baby items arrive.

Specific Clothing Needs

Buying an adequate supply of underwear, bras, and shoes prior to your PCS is recommended – or make sure you can find merchants that carry your items and will ship to an APO. Don’t laugh – go into your local Exchange and if they carry the brands, styles, and sizes you prefer, you are in luck; otherwise get shopping! The choices on the economy tend to be for the young and the small. Lack of planning will result in trying to buy these comfort items over the Internet. Clothing on the economy, particularly at the large markets, is relatively inexpensive and plentiful; however, sizes are typically available only for men and women of small build and children’s sizes typically run much smaller than American children’s sizes.

Sports Equipment

Bring golf clubs, tennis equipment, ski gear, and sports shoes for your children in the next size up if they prefer certain brands. These items are available in Korea, but brands and sizes are limited, so plan ahead. Camping and hiking are also popular activities throughout Korea; if you enjoy the outdoors, bring your gear. If you have large hiking backpacks, they may also be useful when creating your NEO Kit (see NEO Section).

Sewing Machine

Have your machine serviced before you come and bring all essential accessories. Some items can be purchased at the Seoul Fabric Market.
Gas Grill
If you are assigned quarters on post you may be able to have a gas grill at or near your home. Be aware that you cannot ship your own tank (even purged). You can get propane tanks at the Exchange Mini-Mall.

Non-Perishable Food
If you have any specialty dry, non-perishable food items you wish to have in Korea you may consider shipping some in your household goods, but check with your assigned moving company. Some will not allow you to pack any food items, whereas others will allow unopened items in sealed containers. Commissary selections are limited so if you have any special dietary needs (or wants) you can ship these items in your household goods. Be sure to consider your weight limit and any expiration dates when buying ahead for shipment.

Rugs, Carpets, and Curtains
Floors in most quarters are linoleum over concrete, and they are cold. Bringing your own rugs and carpets (and carpet padding) with you. Sturdy window hardware is difficult to find. If you wish to put up curtains in your quarters, consider bringing curtain rods with you.

Holiday Decorations and Home Décor
Pictures, books, and decorative items, especially during holidays, transform a house into a home. Be sure to include plenty of these because they are real morale boosters. Keep in mind, though, that most quarters have walls made of concrete, so hanging items requires special tools. Some holiday decorations and Christmas trees (live trees not available) are available at the Four Seasons or on the economy, but bring enough of your family’s favorites to decorate in style.

You may want to downsize the quantity because of the size of your new living and storage space; consider leaving irreplaceable treasures in storage or with family members so pollutants will not damage them.

Craft Supplies
Bring a sufficient quantity of regularly used items especially water-based craft paint which is difficult to find in Korea. USAG Yongsan Arts and Crafts Center does not have facilities for stained glass and does not sell stained glass supplies.

Entertainment Center/Stand
Check with the Housing Office to see if one will be provided with your allotted furniture. It will depend on whether you are authorized government furniture and may or may not fit your television if you have a large television. If you chose not to ship your entertainment center, consider going to the Furniture Management Office when you arrive and looking at other items that could be used as a television stand including a buffet table.

Mattresses
The loaner mattresses tend to be very hard, and the largest bed available is queen size. It is recommended you bring your own mattress and box springs. For double or king size beds, bring your frame as well. The twin-size beds provided by housing are extra-long, so if you are shipping your standard twin mattress, you will also need to ship your box spring and bed frame or purchase them upon arrival. A feather or other mattress topper (often available at the Exchange) in queen size is a good alternative to shipping your own bed.

Futon/Air Mattress
The Furniture Management Branch provides only enough mattresses and bed furniture for each family member, so bring what you need for potential visitors staying with you.

Dehumidifier/Humidifier
Dehumidifiers are issued at Self Help Center, but quantities are limited. If you have one, consider bringing it. Dehumidifiers are also available on the economy and simple to identify as they have a “hippo” as a logo. Dehumidifiers are a necessity during monsoon season (95% humidity) as they help prevent mold/mildew problems in your house. In the winter, the air can be quite dry. Consider bringing a humidifier to reduce bloody noses and dry coughs.

Fans/Space Heaters
Some housing areas have ceiling fans, but many do not. On post housing has central air and heat. Pedestal fans are available at the Exchange seasonally. Some family housing units have enclosed non-insulated porch areas, so a small space heater is useful if you have one to bring. Air conditioning in off post housing can be very expensive, so consider bringing fans in order to reduce your power consumption.

Router for Wireless Internet
If you have one, bring it. They are also sold at the Exchange or can be ordered online.
Computers and Electronics

When considering whether or not to bring electronic items, note that there is a difference in power on and off post; on post uses (US Standard) 110V power outlets and off post uses 220V. Check with the manufacturer of your computer or other electronic devices to ensure that you will be able to get parts and service. Technology changes in the blink of an eye and many times a newer, better product may also be cheaper. The Korean Electronics market is close to USAG Yongsan.

Mosquitoes

These pests can be a huge problem in Korea, depending on the amount of rain; they are active from mid-spring well into the winter months. There are some options available on the economy to minimize mosquito problems, but it is recommended that you bring any products that have worked for you in the past. Mosquito nets over beds are helpful, so bring them with you if you can. Although nets can be purchased in the local stores and markets, supplies and styles are often limited.

Arrival in Korea

Depending on your travel plans, there are two potential locations where you will enter Korea. If you are traveling on a commercial carrier, you will land at Incheon International Airport just outside of Seoul. If you are travelling on a military carrier (Patriot Express), you will arrive at Osan Air Base.

Do not, under any circumstances, try to bring weapons or contraband into Korea. While the customs inspectors are pleasant and helpful, they are also very thorough. Contraband items such as drugs, weapons, and deer antlers will get you into trouble, not only with the Korean authorities, but also with the Military Police. All weapons should be left in storage.

INcheon International ArrivaL

There are four main stages to getting through the airport and the process can last an hour or more. Ask for assistance if you run into problems. Airport personnel often speak English and will help you or find someone who can.

The first stage is travelling from the international gate to the main terminal via the train shuttle. People who know the system will be moving fast to try to beat the crowd, so you may experience some jostling along the way. Keep your sense of humor and be prepared to either wait for the next shuttle or squeeze into the first one. Once you exit the shuttle follow the flow of people toward the Korean Immigration lines. You will stand in single file to wait your turn.

The second stage is Korean Immigration. You will need the Customs Declaration and Arrival Card you filled out on the plane as well as your passport. Service members only need their leave form (DA 31) and ID card ready. For family members, make sure they stamp your passport with an entry stamp. This is very important for the purposes of obtaining your SOFA stamp later. It is better to go through Korean Immigration as a family and not individually. A copy of orders is helpful. The third stage is the customs area, but you will need to get your luggage first. There are luggage carts available free of charge. Once you have collected your belongings, walk to the customs lines. There will be a couple of selections based on whether or not you have anything that you need to declare.

The fourth stage is going through the automatic doors to the main terminal to meet those there to greet you or to make your way over to the Military Reception Desk to arrange transportation. The Military Reception Desk and USO are located at Gate 1. USAG Yongsan is about 45 miles from the airport and will take about an hour and a half to travel.

All personnel are required to use the military transportation provided at the military reception desk at Gate 1 unless a sponsor has obtained the proper clearance from the 1st Replacement Company to transport the military member. For other branches of service a sponsor will need to pick you up or you can check in and utilize the Military processing transportation bus to USAG Yongsan located at Gate 1. All family members are allowed to accompany the military member on the military processing transportation bus to USAG Yongsan.

Depending on your time of arrival, you may want to find something to eat or drink before leaving the airport. Eating facilities on post are normally closed by 9:00 pm. There is an AAFES Shoppette at the Dragon Hill Lodge with extended hours that will have basic items and snacks available.

Sponsor Pick Up

Sponsor pick up is the best way to have a stress-free arrival to your new home especially if you have pets flying with you. If your sponsor is meeting you, be careful not to follow the military liaisons. They are highly visible and it is easy to get caught up with the flow. Even though they are calling for all military members, you will need to go through the regular lines like any civilian passenger. You will complete the four stages of the airport, described above, and walk out to the arrival area. Your sponsor will have a signed pick-up memo from the 1st Replacement Company Commander or First Sergeant authorizing the PCS pick up and the sponsor should understand that they are required to bring the soldier and accompanying family directly to the 1st Replacement Company for in-processing prior to taking them to lodging.

Traveling with Pets

See the Pets section of this publication for more information regarding transportation of pets. You will need to plan for your pet’s arrival before you arrive in Korea, either by having your sponsor pick you up or by arranging a third party transportation service. If your pet was able to fly with you, follow the signs in the luggage carousel area for animal health services. You must have all your pet records available for inspection. After your records and your pet have been cleared, the animal is free to be transported to USAG Yongsan but may not use government-provided transportation. If your sponsor is picking you up, you should coordinate with your sponsor to make sure space is available in their vehicle to transport your family, your pet, and your luggage. If you arrive in Korea outside of the Pet Center hours, the Dragon Hill Lodge will allow registered guests’ pets (in their crates) to be kept in the loading dock area until the Pet Center opens. The Pet Center is not in the immediate area of DHL. Please pack extra food, if you know you are arriving outside of normal hours.

Individual Transportation

All PCSing soldiers are required to ride the shuttle bus to USAG Yongsan for in-processing as provided unless prior authorization has been approved for sponsor pick up. No one is approved for taxi service nor will they be reimbursed (usually stated in the orders).

Osan Airbase (ab) Arrival

Osan AB is a smaller facility and somewhat easier than landing at Incheon. Have your passport, military orders, and customs declaration ready, and you should move quickly from the area where you pick up your baggage through immigration and customs. You are required to follow the same customs regulations as stated above.

See the Pets section of this publication for more information regarding transportation of pets. Your pet can travel on the shuttle from Osan to USAG Yongsan.

Once you have cleared immigration and customs, you will find you are outside the Osan AB Passenger Terminal. Whether your sponsor or someone from your gaining unit is waiting for you or you are taking the shuttle to USAG Yongsan, be aware that the trip can take anywhere from an hour to several hours depending on traffic conditions.

Post Arrival in Korea

Upon arrival, soldiers will typically be required to present two complete copies of their orders and all amendments, medical, and dental records, and leave form (DA 31), so be sure to have those readily available. Carry your identification card, ration control card (once you obtain it), multiple copies of orders, a power of attorney, and your passport with you wherever you go for the first two weeks.

IN-PROCESSING

All military personnel are required to in-process shortly after arriving in Korea. Locations for in-processing vary depending upon branch of service. Your military liaison or sponsor should know exactly when and where you will need to go for in processing. The following information is provided for your convenience. It is helpful to call before you go to verify information and to check hours of operation. Thursday mornings many offices are closed for training.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: 1st Replacement Company, Building 4034 Phone: 050.3323.6527

Housing
All service members, regardless of branch of service or status, must in-process with the Housing Office within 48 hours of arrival or completion of in processing with 1st Replacement Company. All DoD civilians eligible for a Living Quarters Allowance (LQA) are also required to in-process with the Housing Office. The Housing Office will work to make your transition into your new home as smooth as possible, whether you are accompanied or unaccompanied. This includes Temporary Lodging Allowance (TLA), which you may be authorized prior to moving into your permanent residence.

All civilians, unless designated as Key Essential Personnel with specific approval to reside on post, are required to live in off post accommodations. The Civilian Personnel Advisory Center (CPAC) will advise you on your Temporary Quarters Subsistence Entitlements (TQSE) and LQA entitlements.

See the Resources section for more information on KOHOM/Housing, Appliance Repair, and Self Help Center.

Accompanied Housing On Post/Army Family Housing (AFH)
Command sponsored accompanied personnel and certain designated key and essential civilians are housed on post in AFH. Your PCS travel orders will normally state concurrent travel to government quarters and indicate bedroom number authorization and housing area location. The Housing Office personnel will brief you on projected quarters availability, Temporary Lodging Allowance (TLA) or TQSE and place your name on the appropriate waiting list.

Bedroom authorization is determined by the size of your family. Couples with no children and families (either married couples or single parents) with one child receive two bedroom units. Families with two children generally receive three bedroom units and those with three or more children generally qualify for four or five bedroom units. Be aware that the age and gender of your children will affect the number of bedrooms you are entitled to in Korea, and smaller children may be expected to share a bedroom.

If quarters are not projected to be available within 60 days of your arrival, or if you are granted concurrent travel to economy quarters, you may be authorized to reside off post and receive Overseas Housing Allowance (OHA). Accompanied service members of all ranks and branches, as well as DoD civilians, are strongly advised not to seek economy housing quarters prior to in-processing with the Housing Office.

There are several AFH areas on USAG Yongsan. Below is a description of each type.

Unaccompanied Personnel Housing (UPH)

Unaccompanied personnel of all ranks and branches of service are normally housed in UPH on the installation. Personnel in pay grades of E4 and below will reside in the barracks. Personnel in pay grade of E5 and E6 may reside in barracks if adequate space and privacy criteria are met, or they will reside in the Bachelor Enlisted Quarters (BEQ). Unaccompanied officers and noncommissioned officers in the ranks of E7 and above will be assigned Bachelor Officer Quarters (BOQ) or Senior Enlisted Bachelor Quarters (SEBQ).

Only in the event of adequate quarters being unavailable will an unaccompanied service member be authorized to reside off post. While all UPH meets or exceeds the criteria for square footage, they may not be able to accommodate a full weight allowance of household goods. Full furnishing support is available in all UPH (See Furniture Management Office below).

Furniture Management Office (Loaner Furniture)

If you are an accompanied military family living on post, you are authorized full furniture support from the Housing Office regardless of any household goods that you shipped. This means that you will be given loaner furniture to use for the duration of your stay, if you choose to keep it.

If you are an accompanied military family living off post and are only entitled to bring partial household goods support, you are authorized furniture support from the Housing Office for your entire tour. If you are entitled to bring full household goods and live off post, you are only authorized furniture support for six months.

Civilian families are only authorized six months furniture support as they are automatically entitled to full household goods shipments.

Off Post Housing

Housing on the economy is plentiful and offers a wide variety of styles, to include many high-rise and villa (five stories or less) apartments, as well as a limited number of duplexes and single-family dwelling units. If you are eligible to reside off post due to non-availability of adequate government quarters, or if you are a DoD civilian, you will be issued a statement of non-availability (SNA) from the Housing Office.
Once you receive an SNA, you will be required to attend an off post housing briefing. The briefing will provide you a plethora of information about leasing on the economy, such as realtor information, security checklists, utility rates, and housing allowance entitlements.

Service members residing on the economy are entitled to a monthly Overseas Housing Allowance (OHA) and Miscellaneous Housing Allowance (MIHA). The MIHA is provided to help defray the costs of setting up the off post residence. Once you choose your off post unit, the Housing Office will assist you with all the contract negotiations. You may choose to hire a realtor to assist with finding off post housing to ease the selection process and expedite the negotiations with owners.

Note: DO NOT enter into a lease agreement without prior approval from the Housing Office.

Prior to taking the test, review USFK PAM 385-2, Guide to Safe Driving in Korea, which can be found online at the link below. Once you have successfully passed the test, you will be required to watch a safety video and then be provided your license. Reservations for driver’s license testing must be made at least 24 hours in advance.

Teenagers under the age of 18 with a valid stateside license can be granted driving privileges on post only. Teenagers 16 and over may also apply for a learner’s permit while stationed in Korea.

SOFA/Visa Stamp
The A-3 visa and Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) stamp are required for dependent family members of active duty service members, DoD employees and dependents, and independent contractors and dependents within 90 days of arrival in Korea. When obtained through Korean Immigration after arrival in Korea, the A-3 Visa and SOFA stamp will be valid for a maximum of two years, but not beyond the sponsor’s DEROS date, the expiration date of the passport, or the expiration date of the sponsor or dependent’s military ID card, whichever is earliest. Therefore, to avoid a second trip to immigration, you should make sure your ID cards and passports do not expire prior to the sponsor’s DEROS date.

The A-3 visa and SOFA stamp can be obtained at the locations listed above. The wait times at the Immigration Offices can be very long (several hours or more), so be sure to check the website above to learn more about documentation requirements in advance so that you arrive prepared. ACS sponsors a shuttle bus to the Mokdong Immigration Office once a month on the first Tuesday of the month, and they require you to sign up in advance. Alternatively, you can take a bus to the Immigration office at Osan AB where wait times might be shorter.

USFK is in the process of repositioning and consolidating into two enduring hubs south of Seoul, near the cities of Pyeongtaek and Daegu. By moving into these locations, USFK will improve readiness, efficiency, and further enhance its partnership with local communities. The Commander, US Naval Forces Korea (CNFK) will consolidate its forces to Busan and Marine Forces Korea (MARFOR-K) will consolidate its forces to Camp Mujuk. The consolidation of US forces in Korea will support US and South Korean national interests, including a strong combined defense and credible deterrence.

The USFK transformation program is accomplishing the relocation through two major plans: the Yongsan Relocation Plan (YRP) and the Land Partnership Plan (LPP). The Republic of Korea Government (ROKG) funds the YRP agreement to relocate the headquarters of USFK and the United Nations Command (UNC), primarily to Camp Humphreys.

The LLP agreement primarily consolidates forces from north of Seoul to Camp Humphreys, while still providing access to northern training areas and ranges. USFK will thus reduce its theater footprint with all non-enduring sites returning to the Korean government.

USFK manages the $10.7 billion transformation program already well underway at Camp Humphreys, with more than $1 billion in current construction. In total, there are 121 projects in the works, which will result in the construction of 655 new facilities.

The transformation efforts underway at Camp Humphreys triple its size from 1,210 to 3,528 acres, with the garrison population growing from approximately 10,000 to 42,000 military, civilian, and family members. Main construction projects include unit headquarters, vehicle maintenance facilities, hangars, soldier quarters, family housing, medical facilities, a military communications complex, a downtown shopping area, schools, child development centers, fitness centers, and numerous other facilities. Construction of new facilities is already underway and many are expected to be completed in FY 2016 including the Dental Clinic (May), new elementary school and middle school (July), Chapel (October), and the Downtown Exchange and Commissary Complex (December).
At end state, Camp Humphreys will be one of the largest Army installations in the region. More information can be found on the Camp Humphreys Facebook page.

CAMP HUMPHREYS RESOURCES
https://www.facebook.com/usaghumphreys
http://www.army.mil/humphreys
Korea remains a relatively safe country; however, it is important to be aware of the measures taken to ensure safety during your tour of duty.

US military installations are secure facilities. No one is allowed access to the post without a valid ID card. You must physically hand ID cards to the guards so they are able to view both sides. In addition, only vehicles with proper registration decals are allowed access to the post. Authorized ID card holders may escort visitors and vehicles onto the post.

As with all military installations, USAG Yongsan operates security procedures based upon levels of force protection conditions (FP CON). The FP CON levels change according to the level of threat. Force protection levels range from FP CON Alpha (lowest threat) to FP CON Delta (highest threat). The current FP CON level will generally be posted at the installation gates. For those living on post, the commander’s channel is another good source of information for the latest updates.

Demonstrations are periodically held throughout the peninsula. Protesters demonstrate for a variety of reasons, including opposition to the US military presence in Korea. These demonstrations are sometimes held just outside the garrison gates. Military officials publicize warnings affecting those affiliated with the government on the post TV channels, Facebook pages, and radio stations (102.7 FM and 1530 AM). Korean National Police are always present at these demonstrations to provide additional security.

Finally, as with any other large metropolitan city, you should practice common sense when venturing out. The buddy system is highly encouraged, and at times is mandatory. There is a strict curfew from 1:00-5:00 am, seven days a week.
CIVIL DEFENSE DRILLS
South Korea routinely conducts nationwide civil defense drills as part of their emergency readiness plan. The start of the drill is signaled by the sounding of the ROK government's Air Raid Siren System and the exercise lasts 20 to 30 minutes. During the drill, all personnel off post are expected to comply with the directions of the Korean National Police and other ROK government officials. All USAG Yongsan gates are closed to outbound traffic (vehicles and pedestrians) during the exercise, so plan accordingly.

ALERT WARNING SYSTEM
Monthly tests of the Alert Warning System, also known as the "Big Voice," are another part of USAG Yongsan’s plan for emergency readiness. You will hear announcements broadcast from speakers across the installation.

Noncombatant Evacuation Operations (NEO)
While Korea is a relatively safe location, it is important that all noncombatants be prepared to evacuate both quickly and safely. Noncombatant Evacuation Operations (NEO) are directed by the US Department of State to evacuate eligible personnel from foreign countries when their lives are endangered by war, natural disaster, or civil unrest. The US Embassy (AMEMB) Seoul designates those authorized evacuation assistance. Those considered noncombatant evacuees include:

US citizens who may be ordered to evacuate
- US government civilian employees and dependents
- US Armed Forces family members
- Designated US Armed Forces military personnel

US/non-US citizens who may be authorized assistance
- Private US citizens and their dependents
- Legal permanent residents of the US
- Designated foreign national employees of the US Government and their dependents
- Designated foreign nationals

Both command sponsored and non-command sponsored families are eligible for evacuation assistance from Korea. Military members and emergency essential civilian employees are not considered noncombatants and will remain in Korea until directed otherwise.

NEO INFORMATION
For more information on NEO and upcoming Courageous Channel exercises, please visit the following website:
http://8tharmy.korea.army.mil/NEO/Neo.asp

NEO WARDEN
Each unit on USAG Yongsan has an assigned NEO warden. All DoD affiliated noncombatants must register for NEO with their NEO warden. To help noncombatants prepare for a possible evacuation, USFK conducts a semi-annual NEO exercise called Courageous Channel. All DoD affiliated noncombatants are required to participate in these exercises in order to rehearse evacuation procedures and to train personnel who support NEO execution. In addition to participating in Courageous Channel, each family is required to maintain a NEO kit that includes important documents, enough food and water for three days, and protective gas masks (issued by the military; the sponsor is to draw a gas mask for each dependent). Your NEO warden will help you and your family prepare your NEO documents and ensure you are ready for the exercise.

NEO KITS
Each person is allowed one airline carry-on and one checked bag with a combined total weight of no more than 66 pounds. Your NEO warden will help you prepare a NEO binder to include in your NEO kit.
CHECKLIST: NEO KITS

Your NEO warden will help you prepare a NEO binder to include in your NEO kit. At a minimum, you should plan to include the following:

Mandatory Items
- Identification Cards
- Passports
- Family Care Plan (single and dual military parents)
- Prepared Forms

Recommended Items (hard to replace items)
- Birth, marriage, and adoption certificates
- Naturalization certificate
- Powers of attorney
- Will
- Insurance policies
- Checkbook, credit cards, financial records
- Vehicle registration and title
- Social security cards
- Tax returns
- Medical records

Each family member (including infants) should have a NEO kit prepared and available in the event of an evacuation. It should include:
- Food and water for three days
- 30 days of medications including prescriptions
- Protective/gas masks
- Blanket
- Change of clothes (warm)
- Toiletries and towel
- Baby and feminine hygiene items
- First aid kit
- Battery operated radio
- Flashlight
- Batteries
- Limited Cash (~$100-200)
- Comfort item for children

GAS MASKS
Sponsors are responsible for drawing a mask at CIF for each dependent, and for training their dependents on how to use them. Masks are available for both command sponsored and non-command sponsored military dependents as well as US DoD civilians and dependents. They are not available for contractors or technical representatives (the corporation holding the contract must provide the mask).

PET EVACUATION
Evacuation of people takes priority over pets. USFK will make reasonable efforts to evacuate pets of DoD affiliated personnel but pets are likely to be separated from their families during an evacuation. The NEO Tracking System helps reunite pets with their families. Two pets (cats and dogs only) per command-sponsored family are authorized transport in the event of a NEO. All other animals must be evacuated before NEO starts. All unaccompanied/single service member pet owners need to ensure they have a pet care plan. Pets cannot be abandoned.

In the event pet owners decide to transport their pets out of country commercially, all costs associated with commercial transportation are the sole responsibility of the family. If the US government transports a pet on a military or chartered aircraft, the military covers only the cost of transporting the animal from Korea to the first CONUS port of entry. You are responsible for all costs incurred from port site to the family's final destination. Please see your NEO warden for more information.
CHECKLIST: PET NEO PLAN

- Each pet must have its own approved airline carrier that is large enough for them to stand up, turn around, and lay down. Pets cannot be combined into one carrier.
- A valid Rabies Vaccination Certificate plus a copy should be maintained in your PET NEO kit.
- PET NEO card.
- Two completed Veterinary Health Certificates DD2209 (without the veterinary signature or date) in your NEO kit. Any pets leaving Korea will require a veterinarian to sign and date the health certificates before departure.
- Prepare at least 10 days of food supply and medications (if needed) in waterproof containers or ziptop bags.
- Bowls for food and water that do not spill easily.
- A well-fitting collar/harness with ID tag and a good leash.
- Small plastic bags for feces disposal.
- Cat owners need a 10-day supply of litter and a small compact container with lid for litter storage that can fit in the cat kennel to prevent spillage when not in use by the pet in the carrier.
- All pets must have an ISO-compatible microchip and must be registered with the local veterinary treatment facility (VTF).

For additional information and forms, see your local VTF or see the following website: http://www.korea.amedd.army.mil/veterinary/index.html.

Public Transportation

Using public transportation is critical to personal mobility in a city as densely populated as Seoul. Benefits to using public transportation include less road congestion, added physical activity, and improved air quality. The City of Seoul offers its visitors and residents a top-notch transportation system. It consists of several modes of transportation including subway, bus, and train.

HOW TO USE TRANSIT

In order to effectively use public transportation, you need to know where your trip begins (origin) and where your trip ends (destination). With knowledge of your origin and destination, you can plan your route and decide which modes of transportation are best to use.

Jihachul Subway App: A must-have mobile app for using the Seoul subway. With this app, you can easily plan your route, bookmark favorite stations, receive real-time travel information, and search for nearby stations on a map.

Seoul Bus App: Download the English version of this app for easy route planning and for locating nearby bus stops.

Map Applications such as Google Maps, Apple Maps, Naver, Waze, and Daum are also worth exploring. The usability of these apps will vary depending on your phone model and the language used by the app developer.

Public Transportation 101 (Class from ACS)

- Teaches newcomers how to use the public transportation system.
- Participants practice their skills by taking a field trip from ACS to a tourist attraction in Seoul.

USO Tours
The local chapter of the USO offers a variety of tours. Participating in a tour can be a good way for newcomers to learn the lay of the land in a small group setting. Visit one of the USO centers to learn more.

Grab a Buddy and Go
If you are feeling adventurous or you learn best by trial and error, grab a friend and explore the city using transit. The Visit Korea Tourism website suggests itineraries for Seoul city tours by subway. And a great way to learn a bus route is to simply get on the bus and see where it takes you. You will get the added benefit of being above ground to see the sights. Just make sure to keep a balance on your T-Money card.

T-Money Card
The T-Money card is a reloadable plastic smart card that doubles as an electronic cash card as well as a transportation card; hence the name T-Money. You can use it to pay for trips on the city subway, buses, and trains. You can also use your T-Money card as electronic cash to pay for taxi service, parking, convenience store purchases, and more. To purchase and reload your T-Money card, visit any convenience store such as CU or 7 Eleven, any subway station ticket vending machine, or the Dragon Hill Lodge on USAG Yongsan. The cost of the card is ₩2,500.

There are endless combinations for trips; the T-Money card calculates the best fares based on your trip’s distance and modes of transportation. And while single trip tickets are available, T-Money provides a fare discount (₩100) and free transfers. If you use a single-trip ticket, you will need to pay the full basic fare for each transfer. The T-Money card is accepted within the Seoul Metropolitan Region, Busan, Jeju Island, and many provinces and cities in South Korea.

SUBWAY & METROPOLITAN RAIL
With nine subway lines, eight rail lines, and 391 stations serving over 20 million people, the Seoul Metro Railway System is one of the largest in the world. The metro covers the entire metropolitan region. Even Camp Red Cloud, Camp Casey, and Osan Air Base are accessible via subway. You can expect the subway to be crowded during peak commute times.

Plan Your Trip
Use your Jihachul Subway App to plan your route. You can also plan your route using the interactive online map (see link above). If you are using a paper map, you can easily plan a subway trip using these steps:

- Step 1: Identify your trip’s origin and destination by subway station. For example, you are staying at the Dragon Hill Lodge and want to visit Namdaemun Market. After a quick Internet search or consulting the Dragon Hill front desk, you learn Namdaemun Market is located at Hoehyeon Station on Subway Line 4, Exit 5. (Usually, addresses in Seoul will include a subway station reference.)
- Step 2: Find your origin/departure station and line. From the Dragon Hill Lodge, a nearby subway station is Samgakji on Line 6 and Line 4.
- Step 3: Find the destination/arrival station and line. Hoehyeon Station is on Line 4.
- Step 4: Choose your route. This trip is a simple one since both the departure and arrival stations are on the same line; in this case, Line 4. Your route will consist of going to Samgakji station and taking Line 4 to Hoehyeon Station.
Fare
The T-Money adult fare for the subway is ₩1,250 for the first 10 km, which is about $1 to travel up to six miles.
Kids, six years old and younger, ride transit for free. In Seoul, children 7 to 12 years old pay ₩450 and teens 13-18 pay ₩720 won. To qualify for this discount, register your child’s T-Money card at a station customer service counter.

Language
Signs and notices in the subway system will be in Korean, English, and other languages.

Hours of Operation
The Seoul Metro operates from about 5:30 am to midnight. Exact times vary by station, so check the subway app for your route.

Station Ins and Outs
Once you know your origin and destination, you can proceed to your departure station. First, make sure you are at the correct station for your trip. Each station will have multiple street level entrances. Use the street level marker to verify the station information. Stairs, escalators, and/or elevators will take you into the station.

Enter the Gate
Have your T-Money card in hand and approach the turnstile or subway gate. Note the green arrows and red circles designed to tell the user which gates to pass through. Sometimes these indicators change based on the direction with the most demand at the time. Locate the T-Money reader on your right side. Place the T-Money card on the reader until you hear it beep. The display will show the trip fare at the top and the remaining balance on the bottom. The fare for transfers is zero. If the card does not scan, the turnstile will lock or the gates will close. Try again then ask for assistance from a subway attendant or fellow passenger.

Locate the Platform
Now that you have successfully passed through the gates, it’s time to find the platform from which you will arrive and depart. This can require you to go down more levels and walk through hallways to connect to your train. Follow the signs with your line number. Knowing the color of your line will help you locate it quickly. The sign will also list other stations in the direction of travel for that line.
Knowing your direction of travel is key to not getting lost. Some lines use the same platform for both directions while other lines use different platforms located in different areas of the station.

Ride the Subway
Trains run frequently in Seoul, so your wait time will be short. You can expect the subway to be crowded during peak commute times. When the subway is crowded, riders will form two lines in front of each set of doors. Once the train arrives, allow the arriving passengers to step off the train, then enter the train. There may be some pushing and shoving during peak times. You can sit or stand anywhere except for the spaces designated for passengers with limited mobility (unless applicable). Generally, subway rides are quiet, and you will notice locals napping. Silence is encouraged. Inside the train, you will also find a diagram of the line as well as screens indicating the next station. An arrow will appear on the screen to indicate the exit door.

Transfer to Another Line
If a line transfer is required, you will need to exit the train at the transfer station, then locate the color-coded signs on the platform for your next line. Here, again, it is important to know your direction of travel so that you can find the right platform.
Find the Way Out
At your arrival station, you will need to exit the train onto the platform. Now find the signs for “Way Out.” Most stations will have several ways out, so you will need to know your exit number before following the signs. If you do not know your exit number, consult the neighborhood map usually located on platforms and near exit stairwells.

Exit the Gate
Before you arrive at the station exit, you will need to pass through the exit turnstile or gates. With your T-Money card in hand, approach a gate with a green arrow and place the card on the reader. Your subway trip is now closed, the proper fare charged, and you are ready for a free bus transfer if needed.

Leave the Station
Continue to follow the signs for your exit number. Notice which way is north as not all maps are oriented the same way. Knowing which way is north will also help when you are above ground. Stairs, elevators, and escalators will take you above to street level.

Subway Amenities
Subway stations in Seoul have a variety of amenities such as restrooms, shops, convenience stores, eateries, lockers, police stations, lost and found, neighborhood maps, and customer service counters. Some stations connect to underground malls, hotels, or museum entrances. Many subway trains have 4G LTE, Wi-Fi, air conditioning in summer, and heated seats in winter.

SEOUL BUS SYSTEM

Armed with your T-Money card and Seoul Bus app, you are ready to use any of the city’s 765 bus routes. Using T-Money, transfers from the subway within 30 minutes are free. Like the subway, the bus system is color-coded, and the fares are based on the distance traveled. The bus stops are clearly marked, and they can be located either adjacent to the sidewalk or in a bus lane corridor in the middle of the larger avenues. Bus schedules are subject to traffic delays. For bus stops serving multiple bus lines, be at the bus shelter corresponding to your bus. Signs at bus stops are often in Korean only. Board at the front of the bus and tap your T-Money card on the reader. Exit using the rear or center door, tap out, and close your trip.

The following describes the different types of buses and routes they run!

Blue Bus
- Major thoroughfares and long distances through Seoul. Cash fare is ₩1,300 for the first 10 km (T-Money discount: ₩100); ₩100 for each additional 5 km.

Green Bus
- Shorter distances with connections to subway stations and blue bus stops. Cash fare is ₩1,300 for the first 10 km (T-Money discount: ₩100); ₩100 for each additional 5 km.

Maeul Bus (little green bus)
- Smaller bus designed to enter residential areas and narrower streets. Cash fare is ₩1,000 for the first 10 km (T-Money discount: ₩100); ₩100 for each additional 5 km.
Red Bus
Express routes from suburbs into the city; make fewer stops, are more comfortable, and have seats for all passengers. Cash fare is ₩2,400 for the first 10 km (T-Money discount: ₩100); ₩100 for each additional 5 km.

Yellow Bus
Travels within the city on a closed circuit route. Cash fare is ₩1,200 for the first 10 km (T-Money discount: ₩100); ₩100 for each additional 5 km.

Seoul City Bus Tour
Like most tourist-friendly cities, Seoul has a hop-on and hop-off bus tour; it is a quick way to see many sights in a short time. A one-day ticket is ₩12,000, and descriptions of the sights are presented via headsets in multiple languages. See http://en.seoulcitybus.com for maps and routes.

Regional Bus Transportation
Now that you know how to get around Yongsan and the city of Seoul, travel to other regions of South Korea via bus is fast, affordable, and comfortable using the regional buses.

Within Seoul, the Express Bus Terminal is the main hub for regional bus travel and connects to a subway station of the same name. Tickets for the buses can be purchased at the ticket counters. Every city has bus terminals that may serve either Express or Intercity buses or both. For a complete breakdown of bus terminal service by city, visit the link on the previous page.

Express Bus
Express buses run long distances on the expressways. An Express bus will generally not stop until it reaches its destination (with the exception of rest area stops). Travelers have the option of booking an Express trip on a regular bus or a luxury bus. The fares vary according to the comfort level of the bus as well as the distance traveled.

Intercity Bus
The other bus option for regional travel is the Intercity bus system. Here travelers also have two options to meet their travel needs. The regular Intercity service is cheaper but with several stops between the origin and destination while the straight Intercity service is more costly but provides a direct bus service with no stops. The fare depends on distance traveled and type of service.

POST/BASE BUS SYSTEM
USAG Yongsan, in partnership with our host nation, offers several bus routes on post as well as to other US military posts and bases.

Moyer Bus Terminal
The Moyer Bus Terminal is located at the Moyer Community Activity Center on Main Post. Buses arriving and departing from here serve USAG Yongsan and other military installations. For the most up-to-date time and fare tables, visit the Moyer Bus Terminal.

USAG Yongsan Post Run
The Post Run bus operates free of charge every 15 minutes during peak commute times, every 20 minutes during low use intervals, and every 30 minutes on weekends and holidays. Each stop on post can be found by locating the bus shelter. Bus shelters have three side walls, a roof, and seating along with a map of the shuttle route and timetable.

To board a Yongsan shuttle bus, be present at the bus shelter a few minutes prior to the scheduled arrival time. Once the bus arrives, allow departing passengers to exit, then board the bus and quickly find a seat. There is no space for storage or cargo. The first row of seats is reserved for passengers with limited mobility. The driver will not depart until passengers are seated, and seat belt use is mandatory. Always use designated pedestrian crosswalks to complete your trip.

Inter-Installation Routes
Buses run, for a small fee, from Yongsan to Osan Air Base, Camp Humphreys, K-16 Airfield, Camp Casey, Camp Red Cloud, and Camp Jackson. Additionally, there is a Medical Bus Service that runs between medical facilities on USAG Yongsan, Camp Walker, Camp Carroll, and Camp Henry. Most buses on these routes have cargo space and will begin loading a few minutes prior to their departure time. For the most up-to-date information on routes, schedules, and to purchase bus tickets, visit the Moyer Bus Terminal.
TRAINS
One of the most dependable forms of travel in Korea is via rail. It is operated by Korail (KTX). Trains depart and arrive on schedule and travel from city center to city center as well as through small towns and rural areas. You can travel the entire peninsula by train. Even some routes within the city of Seoul can be reached via a connection with fewer stops for an additional cost to the T-Money fare. The cost of train travel is determined by the distance traveled and the amenities and luxury level of the train and travel experience. This metropolitan railroad system is integrated into the Seoul subway map and mobile applications. Expect train travel to be comfortable and fast with amenities such as video entertainment, and spacious legroom and travel speeds of up to 300 km per hour.

Korail also offers various passes available to visitors and foreign residents for unlimited train travel on the KTX system for travel on consecutive days. This is a great travel option for those sightseeing and touring the peninsula on vacation. There is even one that includes travel on Japan’s network.

The main train stations in Seoul are Seoul Station, Yongsan Station, Cheongnyangni Station, and Yeongdeungpo Station. All have travel centers and ticket counters with English-speaking staff to help with your travel plans.

Airports
Seoul is serviced by two airports. Both are easily accessible by any means of transportation.

Incheon International Airport
• Airport code: ICN
• Located 50 km west of Seoul
• Primary hub for long haul international flights
• Shopping, dining, and entertainment
• Accessible via non-stop and all-stop trains, limousine buses, taxis, direct expressway
• Parking available; fees vary according to car size, time, and distance from terminal

Gimpo International Airport
• Airport code: GMP
• Located about 15 km west of downtown Seoul
• Domestic air traffic (e.g., to Jeju Island); international flights in the Asia Pacific region
• Shopping, dining, and entertainment
• Easily accessed by car, bus, and train
• Parking available; fees vary according to car size, time, and distance from terminal

City Airport Terminals
City airport terminals allow passengers to check in for flights, conduct passport control, and drop off luggage before leaving the city. For participating airlines and details, check out the links provided above.

USFK Airport Joint Reception Center
When you first arrive in Korea, the USFK Joint Reception Center at Incheon International Airport is where you will proceed after clearing customs and baggage claim. It is located near Terminal Exit 14. There are snack vendors and restrooms nearby. Here you can inquire about military bus transportation to your duty station, especially if your sponsor is not present when you arrive.
Airport Transportation

The Dragon Hill Lodge and 1st Replacement Company (1RC) provide an airport bus at no cost to travelers. It is primarily designed to transport service members on PCS/TDY orders and their families to and from the Dragon Hill Lodge, the Soldier Support Center, and Incheon International Airport. When space is available, those on leisure travel may use this free bus system. Osan Air Base and Kunsan Air Base also provide bus service from Incheon for a fee.

It will cost at least $65 to take a taxi from Incheon International Airport to USAG Yongsan. Have an AAFES taxi dispatched to ensure it is authorized on post access. If you take a non-AAFES taxi, you run the risk of being dropped off at the gate with all members of your party and luggage. Larger taxis will cost more, and taxis to installations farther from the airport, such as Osan Air Base, will also cost more.

If there are no other alternatives, the Dragon Hill Lodge and USFK Airport Reception Center can assist in dispatching an AAFES taxi or with public transportation.

Private Transportation

Private transportation in Seoul will mainly consist of driving your own vehicle, renting one, taking a taxi, walking, and bicycling. The Seoul road network is a mix of pedestrianized areas, narrow neighborhood streets with little vehicle access, spacious boulevards with ample sidewalks, and freeways carrying large traffic volumes in and out of the city. Walking and riding in a car may seem to provide newcomers from the US a familiar experience, but keep in mind that getting around in a city as densely populated as Seoul presents its own quirks and planning considerations.

PRIVATELY OWNED VEHICLE (POV)

First, find out from your PCS orders or chain of command whether or not you are authorized a POV. If you are shipping a vehicle to Korea, using your POV on the installation for transportation is an option once you have obtained your USFK driver’s license. Driving off post, expect to encounter traffic and congestion.

PARKING

On post, parking is adequate. Although parking may not be available immediately next to your destination, you can easily find parking in a nearby lot and walk a short distance to most places of work, shopping areas, and residences on post. Expect full lots at popular spots during peak hours. Parking on the installation is free. Off post, parking is on the street or in underground parking garages.

RENTAL CAR

Avis and Hertz car rental agencies are located on main post at the Moyer CAC. Be sure you have obtained your USFK driver’s license. Korean car rental companies off the installation may require an International Driver’s Permit along with your USFK driver’s license.
TAXI SERVICE

TAXIS ARE EVERYWHERE IN SEOUL. GETTING AROUND IN A TAXI IS FAST, SAFE, AND AFFORDABLE. TAXIS COME IN A VARIETY OF SIZES WITH VARIOUS AMENITIES AND CAN TRAVEL LONG DISTANCES. DRIVERS SPEAK ENGLISH TO VARYING DEGREES. SEATBELT USE IS MANDATORY.

You can hail a taxi on the street, or, for a small fee, dispatch one. Fares for taxis are calculated based on how the taxi is dispatched, what type of taxi it is, the time of day you are traveling, travel time, and distance. When taxiing in Seoul, payment can be made in Korean won, by credit card, or by T-Money card. In provincial areas, only cash may be accepted. Inform the taxi driver of your payment method at the beginning of your trip.

When arriving at your destination via taxi, it is common to be dropped off at a nearby landmark. For example, the nearest subway station is a useful landmark to know and one the taxi driver will most likely know.

A note about coming on to post in a taxi: If you are in an AAFES taxi, the driver will be able to drive you onto the installation. However, if you are traveling in a non-AAFES taxi, the driver will not be permitted on post, and you (and your cargo) will need to exit the taxi at the gate. The best way to ensure you are in an AAFES taxi is to dispatch one to your pickup location.

AAFES CONTRACTS WITH FTN HOLDINGS TO PROVIDE TAXI SERVICE ON YONGSAN AND OTHER INSTALLATIONS. AAFES TAXIS ARE THE ONLY TAXIS ABLE TO OPERATE ON MILITARY INSTALLATIONS THROUGHOUT THE PENINSULA. YOU CAN REQUEST A TAXI VIA PHONE, TEXT, OR USING THE AAFES SMARTPHONE APP; YOU CAN ALSO RESERVE A TAXI ONLINE FOR LONG DISTANCE TRIPS (FEES VARY); SEE THE LINK PROVIDED ABOVE.

When you dispatch an AAFES taxi, you will be sent a text message with instructions for which taxi to take. For example, the message may read, “Plz take cab#4304 slv at g21 in 6 min.” In other words, “please take cab number 4304, silver in color, at gate 21 in 6 minutes.”

There is a basic charge of ₩3,000 for the first 2 km with additional charges for increased distances as well as nighttime and dispatch fees. In addition to Korean won, credit card, and T-Money card, these taxis also accept payment in US dollars. If you use the app, text, or call to dispatch a taxi, there is an additional fee of ₩1,000 (fee does not apply if taxi is accessed at a taxi stand: Dragon Hill Lodge, Moyer CAC, Commissary, and BAACH). Four-passenger taxis as well as vans are available.

For detailed fare, area coverage by installation, and dispatch information, visit the website at the link provided above.

City Taxi Options

Other than dispatching an AAFES taxi, you may find it easier to hail one on the street in the city or call the Korea travel hotline at 02.1330. Listed below are the local taxi options.

Pedestrians should stay on the sidewalks where available. There are some streets in Seoul where there are no sidewalks. Simply keep to the right side and drivers will navigate around you. Walking in Seoul can sometimes mean using underground pedestrian routes or stairs through hilly neighborhoods. One quirk of walking in Seoul is that mopeds and motorized scooters are permitted to use sidewalks. Keep a steady course, and they will ride around you.

Above: Delivery man on a motorbike using the pedestrian crosswalk. Be a vigilant pedestrian. Image by: Lisa Bond Jaywalking is illegal on and off post and is extremely dangerous in Seoul. Seoul intersections are busy and de-conflict multiple flows of traffic including center bus lanes. It is safest to wait for the pedestrian crossing light. Teach children safe habits such as crossing only at marked crosswalks and intersections.

ENHANCED SECURITY PEDESTRIAN GATES (ESPG)
The Enhanced Security Pedestrian Gates (ESPGs) are unmanned walk-through gates for entering and exiting post. You will use your ID card and fingerprint to gain access. On occasion, these gates may malfunction, so be prepared to walk to another gate or call a taxi. If your card is not accepted multiple times, call or visit DBIDS at 1st Replacement Company. The ESPG system continues to be enhanced to better serve the community.

BICYCLING
Riding a bike is another alternative for both recreation and transportation in the USAG Yongsan area. Bicycle parking is available near many buildings on post. Bicyclists must adhere to the same traffic laws as drivers and have the same rights as drivers. In general, there are standard safety and best practice rules for bicycling. Reference USFK Regulation 190-1 Motor Vehicle Traffic Supervision Section B-18 for the complete policy. Here are a few guidelines to keep you safe and in compliance:

- Register your bike at the Area Pass and ID Office.
- Wear a helmet (all ages).
- During the day, wear visible upper body clothing.
- At night, wear reflective gear and use front and rear lights.
- Ride on the right side of the roadway and in the direction of car traffic.
- Follow all traffic laws including obeying stop signs and traffic lights.
- Use hand and arm to signal your intent to turn.
- Take extra precaution at intersections.
- Riding on the sidewalk is reserved for children.

While riding on the installation is safe and convenient, only the most intrepid cyclists brave the roads in Seoul. Combining bicycling with transit and walking is one way to get around. You will find bicycle parking throughout the city, especially near subway stations, bus terminals, and other transit interchanges. The subway welcomes bicyclists on the first and last cars of the train outside of peak commuting times. Visit the Military Police Station for the latest information on the rules of the road for bicyclists in Seoul.

Riding your bike on Seoul’s many trails is a common activity on the weekend for Seoumites and foreigners alike. These trails may be used by pedestrians and bicycles only. The Han River Trail is one of Seoul’s most extensive bike networks. It offers a chance for exercise, leisure, and spectacular views of the city along the river. If you don’t have a bike, there are plenty of bike rental kiosks throughout the trail. To learn more about this trail and to pick up a bicycle passport, visit the post bicycle shop (see the Shopping section for contact information).

It is highly recommended that if your weight limit will allow for it, pack your family’s bicycles into your unaccompanied/express baggage shipment along with helmets, baskets, and other gear. You will then have two-wheeled transportation as soon as you arrive. A family bike ride along the Han River is a wonderful first memory of Seoul!

The information in this section is intended to inform you about some of the specific employment requirements and restrictions in place in Korea, and to provide some guidance regarding resources available to help you.

USAG Yongsan has US government, contract, corporate, and volunteer positions available. Spouses of active duty and federal civilian employees have hiring preference upon arrival for all government positions. Employment opportunities are very competitive, so anticipate potential delays in securing a position commensurate with education and/or experience.

Dependent of members of the US armed forces and civilian component are admitted to the Republic of Korea (ROK) under an A-3 visa. Persons in Korea under an A-3 visa are not entitled to be paid for work on the Korean economy without an additional authorization from the Korean government.

Employment, On Post

The Family Employment Readiness Program (FERP) assists family members with resume writing, identifying employment opportunities, and preparing for a new job. They sponsor opportunities to meet potential employers face-to-face at Job Fairs several times a year. Ensure you bring clean, accurate copies of your resume and dress appropriately.

USAJOBS is the Federal Government’s official source for federal jobs and employment information. However, many government job postings don’t show up in USAJOBS. For a more comprehensive list, go to federalgovernmentjobs.us. All jobs here are linked to USAJOBS for the application process, but you may not find them in a search of the USAJOBS website. There are employment opportunities on both sites for US federal civil service, non-appropriated fund (NAF) organizations such as AAFES, Department of Defense Education Activity (DODEA), and other on post organizations.

Substitute teaching positions with DODEA are subject to a background check process that may take two to three months, so plan accordingly. Though posted on USAJOBS, you should start the application process directly with the elementary, middle, or high school. Remember, the school where you submit your application has priority for your services.

Army and Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES) employment opportunities can be found on the AAFES employment website. These include positions at the Post Exchanges and various food courts.

High school age children and older dependents interested in working as baggers may apply in person at the Commissary.

You can also search corporate and university websites to seek out additional employment opportunities.

HOME-BASED BUSINESSES

Home-based businesses (HBB) are another viable employment option. Examples of home-based businesses include independent consultants, individuals offering private lessons, and individuals selling goods or services. HBBs are regulated by the Garrison and subject to written approval by the Garrison Commander.

Another HBB opportunity is to become a Family Childcare (FCC) provider. Individuals provide childcare in on post housing units. Providers are independent contractors that are certified and trained.

VOLUNTEER WORK

In order to gain experience, build a resume, or to provide vital services to the community, dependents under A-3 visa status may select volunteer work. For more information on volunteer opportunities, contact the ACS Volunteer Program Coordinator.

Employment, Off Post

Dependents with A-3 visas may obtain a work permit in any of eight employment categories. These categories each have a number of qualifications applicants must meet in order to be eligible. The employment status categories are:

- E-1 Teaching (Professor): This is for professors of higher education. Requirements include education and experience as a professor of higher education.
- E-2 Foreign Language Instructor: This category includes English teachers. Requirements include a bachelor’s degree and/or relevant college level educational and/or work experience. Individuals applying for this permit must also be natives of a country where the language they wish to teach is the mother tongue. Proof must be provided of relevant qualifications. The Korean government recently imposed additional requirements including criminal record check by FBI or home state police, health certificate issued by a Korean public health office, and fingerprints.
- E-3 Research: This category includes those performing research in the natural sciences or in the development of industry and technology. Requirements include an invitation from a Korean public or private institution to perform work of this nature.
- E-4 Technology Instruction: A person possessing professional level knowledge in the natural sciences, or special technical skills. Requirements include an invitation from a Korean public or private institution to perform instruction of this nature.

- E-5 Professional Occupation: This category includes foreign attorneys, accountants, and doctors who are certified in a foreign country and are authorized under Korean law to practice in their field in Korea.

- E-6 Arts and Performance: This category includes those engaged in music, the arts, literature, modeling, or other performance activities for profit.

- E-7 Special Occupations: This category includes such employment as designated by the Minister of Justice, including work in translation, interpretation, cultural research, etc.

- E-8 Employed Trainee: This category is for temporary employment for industrial training purposes.

Employment without proper permission violates Korean law. This includes teaching English to private individuals. Penalties for violation of Korean immigration law may include deportation, prosecution in Korea, fines, and levying of back taxes. A dependent with an A-3 visa may secure employment with a Korean company but the employer must then initiate the necessary paperwork with the Korea Immigration Service (an agency of the Korea Ministry of Justice) to obtain an employment permit for the dependent. The dependent may then visit a local immigration office and obtain the passport employment permit stamp. Once the dependent obtains the proper work permit, he or she may be lawfully employed on the Korean economy. Dependents employed on the Korean economy are subject to the withholding of Korean income taxes from their wages in Korea.

MODELING AND ACTING

Korean companies need people of various ages and nationalities for advertisements, television shows, and movies. Look for job postings on the Internet and Facebook, and apply directly to the agencies seeking models. You may even be approached on the street if you or your children have “the look” they need. You will typically need to provide three to five head shots and you may be asked to submit a short video. You’ll also need to provide size measurements (know your Korean clothing sizes and metric conversions). The modeling company will supply the necessary work visa for each shoot.

IMMUNIZATION AND DISEASE AWARENESS

Immunizations

For active duty, mandatory immunization requirements will be communicated through the Periodic Health Assessment (PHA) process. DoD family members, DoD civilians, and DoDDS employees should check with your medical treatment facility, healthcare provider, and/or school nurse for recent updates on immunization requirements. Family members/dependents will be screened through the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) for overseas travel prior to departure for Korea, and guidance on any immunizations that are required or recommended prior to entering Korea will be provided during that process.

IMMUNIZATION RESOURCES

- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention http://www.cdc.gov
- American Academy of Pediatrics
  http://www.aap.org

- World Health Organization Immunizations

process. For school immunization requirements, visit the DoDEA website at www.dodea.edu.

Diseases

Tuberculosis (TB) is present on the Korean peninsula, and within the Asia region. To test for this disease, it is recommended to have a Purified Protein Derivative (PPD) for tuberculosis infection test prior to coming to Korea, every year while in Korea, and just prior to leaving Korea. This is a mandatory requirement for Active Duty service members and highly recommended for all others. DoDDS and Child Youth and School Services require current proof of PPD testing for registration.

Vector-Borne Diseases are similar to those in the US; diseases transmitted by mosquitoes, mites, ticks and rodents are present in Korea. Japanese Encephalitis is prevalent in the Asia region, and a vaccine is available for all active duty, DoD family members, DoD civilians, and DoDDS employees.

Vivax Malaria is transmitted by mosquitoes and is present at relatively low levels, primarily in areas north of Seoul and near the DMZ. For protection, military personnel should use repellents on exposed skin when in malaria risk areas during hours when mosquitoes are present. As mosquitoes can also bite through clothing, DEET repellent spray can be applied to the outer garments for protection. Soldiers should use permethrin impregnated ACUs during the malaria season.

Common House Mosquito (Culex, pipiens) is often found in abundance on military installations, including USAG Yongsan. In Korea, it is not attributed to the transmission of any disease. Populations breed in standing water on and off post and in government housing complexes, making pesticide applications less effective. Mosquitoes are more prevalent at night; they enter houses through air conditioning systems or any small opening (e.g., under the door and through the drains). Bed nets, drain covers, and indoor space sprays (available from the military Self Help Center) are often effective. Korean products including MOGSOL (needs a plug adapter) are available off post at grocery stores.

PHARMACY

Prescriptions obtained from off post providers can be filled at the on post pharmacy only if prescription is written in English.

You may order prescription refills using the automated telephone system (see number below), or online (see link below).

The pharmacy’s busiest time is 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. If possible, visit the pharmacy before or after this period for fastest service and shortest wait times.

Childbirth Class

Childbirth classes for expectant parents are available through ACS. A New Parent Support Program is also available. This program enhances parent and infant attachment, increases knowledge of early childhood development, and provides support services to allow parents to become nurturing and capable caregivers. Breast pumps are available through TRICARE for both active duty and DoD dependents. Additional information is available at www.tricare.mil/breastpumps. Currently, there is a lactation consultant available through ACS.

For individuals who require medical care off post, there are several doctors and clinics that service the foreign community. The 18th MEDCOM currently maintains partnerships with several state-of-the-art Korean hospitals. Host nation partnership hospitals and clinics provide the highest quality of health care and all are accredited by the Joint Commission International or the Korean Hospital Association. Many of the medical staff speak English and a significant number were trained in America.

BAACH has implemented a new patient program to ensure TRICARE Representatives, Nurse Case Managers and Host Patient Liaisons assigned to the BAACH and each of the outlying health clinics are available to help. Providers will refer you to host nation partnership hospitals and/or clinics for the specialty care you require when the services are not available within the military system (transport and guides are provided). A staff of Host Nation Patient Liaisons assist patients as well. The Nurse Case Managers visit all our beneficiaries if they require hospitalization and conduct telephone follow-ups with the Korean healthcare team providing your medical care.
REFERRALS

Most visits to a host nation partnership hospital or clinic typically begin with a referral from your Primary Care Manager at the local Military Treatment Facility (MTF). If the needed care is not available at the Military Treatment Facility, a Host Nation Appointment Clerk or TRICARE Representative at your local TRICARE office will assist in making your appointment at one of our host nation partnership hospitals or medical clinics. Usually, the Host Nation Appointment Clerk will make your appointment, schedule transportation on one of the TRICARE courtesy shuttles, and provide you with a claim form and any necessary medical documentation or care authorizations needed for your medical appointment. Although our host nation partnership hospitals and clinics accept self-referrals, it is best to work through your local TRICARE office to coordinate your care. The payment for your care at the Korean facility will depend on your TRICARE status or other insurance plan you may have. When you call to make your appointment, TRICARE staff will advise you on your coverage and financial responsibilities at that time.

The BAACH provides a free shuttle service for patients and their family members to and from appointments at several host nation partnership hospitals. Visit the TRICARE section of the 65th Medical Brigade website, www.korea.amedd.army.mil, for more information on each of the host nation partnership hospitals, as well as maps and answers to frequently asked questions.

One of the surprising things about living in Korea is the lower cost of elective procedures off base. A service that helps many families is the infertility options. From IUI to IVF and everything in between, Korea’s infertility clinics offer options not covered by TRICARE at a fraction of the cost of treatments in the US. Many doctors in Korea studied abroad and speak English. Some are even certified in the US or have had practices there.

Additionally, if you have thought about Lasik eye surgery, cosmetic surgery, laser hair removal or chiropractic care, you could save hundreds to thousands of dollars by having those procedures done here. As with any medical service, ask your community for recommendations on where to go; chances are you will meet someone who has done what you are thinking about right now.

There are many support services in Seoul and the surrounding areas that can assist individuals and families with the birth of their child. Doulas provide non-medical, labor, breastfeeding, and postpartum support. Doulas without post access can be signed onto post for births at the hospital or for home births. Midwives are medically trained professionals who provide delivery care in both hospitals and clinics, along with specializing in natural home and water births.

For those choosing to birth off post or wanting further childbirth education, there are several options available. Contact the OB/GYN clinic at the hospital and TRICARE for more information and to ensure coverage. Also see the resources listed below, and consult the links in the box above to explore options, locate multi-lingual practitioners, and review credentials.

If you plan to travel outside Korea, check with the Clinical Preventive Medicine (PM) Service for current requirements in other countries. The clinic staff provides a personal medical consultation to ensure an enjoyable and safe vacation for you. Please bring shot records for each person traveling. It is best to schedule appointments four to six weeks before traveling to allow adequate time for any necessary vaccinations to take effect.

Healthy Travel Tips
No matter where your travels may take you, be sure to observe the following:
- Wash your hands often with soap and water.
- Eat only thoroughly cooked food or fruits and vegetables you have peeled yourself. Remember: boil it, cook it, peel it, or forget it. Don’t eat food purchased from street vendors.
- Never eat undercooked ground beef and poultry, raw eggs, or unpasteurized dairy products. Raw shellfish is particularly dangerous to persons who have liver disease or compromised immune systems.
- Drink only bottled or boiled water, or carbonated drinks in cans or bottles. Avoid tap water, fountain drinks, and ice cubes. Check to make sure that bottles for water are not being reused. Bottle caps should be new and unopened.
- Motor vehicle crashes are a leading cause of injury to travelers, so walk and drive defensively. Avoid travel at night if possible and always use seat belts.
- Protect yourself from insects by remaining in well-screened areas, using repellents (applied sparingly at four-hour intervals), and wearing long-sleeved shirts and long pants.
- Monkeys, dogs, cats, chickens, and ducks can be a source of serious diseases such as rabies, plague, and bird flu, so avoid contact with animals whenever possible.
- To prevent fungal and parasitic infections, keep feet clean and dry. Never go barefoot.

Recommended Supplies and Equipment
Make sure you pack:
- A long-sleeved shirt and long pants to wear outside, whenever possible, to help prevent sunburn and illnesses carried by insects.
- Insect repellent containing diethylmethyltoluamide (DEET), in 22% to 35% strength for adults and 6% to 10% for children, as well as a bed net impregnated with the insecticide permethrin. (Bed nets can be purchased in camping or military supply stores.) There are also natural insect repellents available for use by adults and children that are DEET-free.
- Over-the-counter anti-diarrhea medicine to take if necessary, and iodine tablets and portable water filters to purify water if bottled water is not available.
- Prescription medications: make sure you have enough to last during your trip, as well as a copy of the prescription(s).
- Carry an emergency contact information sheet with you: include any medications, as well as any medical conditions and known allergies.
Emergency/Urgent Care While Traveling

TRICARE has contracted and partnered with International SOS (ISOS), a worldwide company, to establish a network of quality healthcare providers and hospitals throughout the Western Pacific to assist with urgent and emergency medical and dental care for active duty service members (ADSMs). By using the ISOS network, ADSMs will not incur out-of-pocket expenses and there will be no claims to file. It is a cashless and claimless service. This service is available to ADSMs who are TDY, deployed, or simply on leave in Pacific areas where a US Military Treatment Facility is unavailable.

Active duty family members enrolled in TRICARE Prime may use ISOS for emergency medical care only. ISOS can assist you in obtaining urgent medical or dental care, but you will be required to pay for the services up-front and file a claim through the region in which you’re enrolled for reimbursement. TRICARE Standard active duty family members, as well as retirees and their family members, are not eligible for this emergency travel benefit.

To utilize these services in an emergency, members should call their nearest ISOS assistance center. It’s a good idea to visit the TRICARE/ISOS website before you travel and record the phone number for the ISOS assistance center in the country in which you’ll be traveling. Collect calls are accepted. Note that when calling collect, it may be necessary to request an international operator.

For civilians and family members not eligible for ISOS, it is a good idea to purchase international or travel medical insurance before going abroad. If you already have international insurance, check with your current insurance provider before you travel to confirm coverage and procedures in case of emergency.

Emergency Care Defined

Emergency care is care provided for sudden and unexpected onset of a medical or psychiatric condition or the acute exacerbation of a chronic condition that is threatening to life, limb or sight and requires immediate medical treatment. If you need emergency care as defined:

- Seek care from the nearest medical facility.
- Dial the local number for ambulance service as provided by the American Embassy, military unit, or other source.
- Have a local address and phone number available. Do not hang up the phone until directed to do so by the host nation operator.
- When emergency treatment or hospitalization in a local civilian hospital is received, contact International SOS as soon as possible.

Urgent Care Defined

Urgent care is defined as treatment for a medical or psychological condition that would cause undue discomfort to the patient or that may worsen if not treated within 24 hours. If you need urgent care in Pacific locations, ISOS can provide several valuable services. By calling them before receiving care, you can:

- Find a qualified health care provider.
- Avoid paying up front costs.
- Avoid filing claims.
- Otherwise, expect to pay the host nation provider at the time of service. Then file a claim with your TRICARE Service Center upon return from travel.

Dental Services, On Post

Because the Dental Company’s (DENTAC) mission encompasses Soldier readiness throughout the peninsula, family member dental care in military clinics is limited and is on a space-available basis. While there is some degree of space-available in-house family member care, the majority of family member care occurs through a network of Preferred Host Nation Providers. Selected providers practice dentistry in line with US standards, maintain modern facilities, and engage in infection control and sterilization protocols in accordance with US standards and Centers of Disease Control guidance. They sometimes accept insurance in lieu of upfront payment from the patient. The DENTAC strongly encourages all sponsors to ensure coverage of their family members through participation in the TRICARE Dental Program (MetLife). Check their website, which provides up-to-date information.

Active duty family members are the only non-active duty category that may obtain routine space-available care in military dental clinics. However, the DENTAC will always provide emergency care to address pain, infection, or trauma to members of all beneficiary categories. Patients may seek after-hours emergency dental care by reporting to the emergency room at the local military hospital or treatment facility.

For many people, their pets are members of their families, and they cannot imagine moving without them. If you decide to bring your pets to Korea, start the process three to four months prior to your departure. Please note that for this publication, “pets” refers only to dogs and cats. Animals other than dogs and cats have different quarantine specifications and require different paperwork. For information about birds and other animals, contact the projected airline, a military vet, and research the Internet for country restrictions, both ingoing and outgoing.

Getting Your Pet to Korea

Whether your pet travels accompanied or unaccompanied, if you arrive after hours or during the weekend, your pet will be kept at the airport due to customs duty hours. If possible, pets should arrive during weekday/daytime hours to prevent unnecessary stress for the pet or the owner.

CHECKLIST: INBOUND PET TRAVEL PAPERWORK
This checklist of paperwork required for pet travel is applicable for the import of cats and dogs aged 90 days or older. Contact your veterinarian and airline for the most up to date requirements.

- Original Rabies Vaccination Certificate (greater than 30 days old)
- ISO-compliant microchip (ISO11784 and 11785 standards) implant
- Original, passing, rabies-neutralizing antibody test (“FAVN”) results
- Original health certificate issued by USDA-authorized veterinarian (must have a confirmed microchip number and list the result of the rabies antibody test) within 10 days of travel
- Letter of acclimation (may be separate or attached to health certificate)
- Medical record and personal information about your pet
- Flight itinerary
- Copy of your orders
- Telephone number of a person receiving the pet at the final destination
- Unit forwarding address in Korea
- Feeding schedule for your pet (type, amount, frequency)
COMMERCIAL AIRLINE TRANSPORT

US airports require physical screening of all pets and kennels transported in the passenger cabin, accompanied baggage, or as air cargo. If your pet is “carry-on luggage,” you will remove your pet from its kennel and walk through passenger screening at the security checkpoint. The kennel will undergo the same procedures as carry-on luggage or checked bags.

For pets transported as cargo, the airline may require you to remove your pet from its kennel to allow for security screening of the kennel before your pet begins transport.

Most airlines allow only a limited number of pets on a flight, so you may want to book earlier rather than later. Be prepared to provide your pet's breed, size, weight, and crate dimensions. Contact the airline for the specific requirements for traveling with your pets. Requirements, including date restrictions and breed restrictions, vary according to the airline. If flying commercially, contact the airline prior to purchasing tickets to ensure pets will actually be able to fly on the day of travel (e.g., ask about the airline’s regulations regarding pets on flights greater than 12 hours, outdoor temperature restrictions on travel date, pet flying in-cabin, etc.).

MILITARY TRANSPORT (PATRIOT EXPRESS)

Effective September 2014, cats and dogs leaving Korea can fly aboard Patriot Express. Discuss pet travel with the Travel Office when making travel arrangements. If you are traveling by Patriot Express, please reference the Facebook page “Osan Passenger Terminal.” Along the left-hand side under photos, at the bottom of the photos page, is a section on pet travel. Here you can find contact information for the latest updates on military transport pet travel. Pets are generally not allowed to accompany the military member on the Military Processing transportation bus from Incheon to USAG Yongsan; however some small pets confined to an airline approved carry-on sized pet carrier may be allowed on the bus. Confirm current regulations at the time of making your bus transfer reservation. Pets can be transported from Osan to Yongsan on the military transport.

UNACCOMPANIED TRANSPORT

If you choose unaccompanied travel for your pet, you may want to consider using an animal or pet broker that will serve as your representative to negotiate the process for you. The links for pet travel assistance are provided below for your reference. Inclusion in this list does not constitute an endorsement.

PET QUARANTINE

The Quarantine Inspection Agency determines if your pet meets all requirements for entry into Korea. To help avoid quarantine, be sure you have a valid, original rabies certificate; original, current, passing FAVN results; and a completed (no empty fields) health certificate (APHIS form 7001 and DD 2209). The pet must be registered on post as soon as it is released from quarantine.

If you encounter problems at Incheon airport, contact the USFK Incheon Customs Office at the number below.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: USFK Incheon Customs Office Phone: 050.3323.7561. 010.3708.5214 (After duty hours, weekends, and holidays) DSN: 723.7561 Hours: Monday-Friday 8:00 am-6:00 pm
DOG RESTRICTIONS

No specific dog restrictions are listed for entering Korea; however, airlines have specific guidelines for transporting certain breeds. Contact your carrier for more detailed requirements for transporting your pet. If you own an American Staffordshire Bull Terrier (Amstaff), Bull Terrier, Argentinean Dogo, Japanese Tosa, Staffordshire Bull Terrier (English Staff), Pit Bull Terrier, Brazilian Fila, Rottweiler or mixed breed dogs that appear to be a predominant breed listed, you should verify the specific breed restrictions at your new duty location prior to your PCS from Korea.

LODGING FOR YOUR PET UPON ARRIVAL

Care for your pet will have to be pre-arranged prior to arrival in Korea. The USAG Yongsan Pet Care Center is an official quarantine facility for the Republic of Korea and is the primary pet care provider for all pets in a PCS-inbound status. See Pet Boarding and Grooming below for contact information.

Pets are not permitted in rooms at the Dragon Hill Lodge on USAG Yongsan. For those service members who arrive in Seoul after normal duty hours or on weekends, the Dragon Hill Lodge now allows pets to be temporarily stored on the loading dock in their travel kennels until they can be moved into the Pet Care Center. While in the Dragon Hill Lodge holding area, sponsors are responsible for the feeding and care of their pets. The Dragon Hill Lodge Security Office, which is located in close proximity to the pet holding area, has oversight of the pets and may notify the sponsor if a pet is showing signs that attention is needed.

Government and civilian housing policies differ as to authorization, number, and types of pets. USAG Yongsan housing areas that allow domestic pets are Helo Acres, Watkins Ridge, Krzyzowski Hills (Itaewon Acres), Koelsch Grove (Eagle Grove) and Loring Village (Blackhawk Village). Only two pets per family are authorized for on post housing. Burke Towers is a “no-pet” housing area and there are no exceptions. If a member of your family has a service animal, discuss with the Housing Office so they can factor that into determining your housing assignment.

Just like anywhere else, some off post/civilian apartments allow pets and some do not. Ask your property manager or landlord about pet allowances before signing a lease.

Pet Services

VETERINARY SERVICES

Per regulation, all pets must be registered at the Yongsan Veterinary Treatment Facility (VTF) within 10 days of arrival or purchase. Pet owners not living on a military installation must also register (license) pets at the city hall nearest their residence.

ISO-compatible microchips are mandatory for all pets, on and off the military installation.

The 106th Medical Detachment primarily provides preventive veterinary medical and surgical care for privately owned animals on a space available basis. There are six VTFs in Korea: Camp Casey, USAG Red Cloud, USAG Yongsan, Osan Air Base, USAG Humphreys, and Camp Walker. The six clinics work together to provide a range of veterinary care services including vaccinations, lab work, x-rays and ultrasound, microchips, surgery, and health certificates. VTFs do not provide after-hour emergency care services. Veterinary care at VTFs is limited during military training exercises.

A list of off post veterinarians (including several with 24 hour emergency services) is available on line (see below).

PET BOARDING AND GROOMING

The Pet Care Center is an official quarantine facility for the Republic of Korea. It can house up to 21 dogs and 17 cats in condo-like quarters; grooming and boarding services are also available. Payments can be remitted by cash or check; limited credit card services are available.

The staff can also function as a pet broker and will pick your pet up at the airport, clear customs, and deliver it to the Pet Care Center for a fee. The Pet Care Center is not part of the VTF.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Location: Yongsan Pet Care Center, Building 5256 (located next to Gate 13) Phone: 050.3336.6426, 050.3323.3291 DSN: 736.6426, 723.3291 Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/yongsanpcc/ Hours: Monday-Friday 9:00 am-6:00 pm, Saturday 9:00 am-4:00 pm, Closed Sunday and Holidays
DOG PARK

Korean apartments generally do not provide areas for walking pets. However, USAG Yongsan does have a very nice dog park. The dog park/playground has two large fenced areas designated for you to exercise and play with your pets off the leash. This can be used by all ID card holders (living on or off post) to exercise and socialize dogs. Please observe the “rules of petiquette” posted in the park. Owners must pick up and dispose of all pet waste.

You may have up to two dogs per adult per visit. Owners are responsible and liable for their pets' actions; aggressive pets or pets in heat are not allowed in the park.

Note that pets are not allowed on ball fields, tennis courts, or basketball courts, even if on a leash.

PET ADOPTION

There are many options to acquire a pet both on and off your local installation. Visit your local VTF for informational websites, maps, and directions on where to purchase a pet.

Most VTFs handle the adoption of strays and surrendered animals needing new homes including many pure breeds. Every year during the PCS season, owners struggle to find new homes for animals they can no longer care for because of unforeseen reasons. Be responsible, and be aware of the potential complications of pet ownership before getting a pet, including idiosyncrasies of some breeds, and what type of pet will be most compatible with your family.

Leaving Korea

CHECKLIST: OUTBOUND PET TRAVEL PAPERWORK

Take all three of the following original documents (with three copies of each) with your pet to the Korean Animal Quarantine Office (KAQC). The Korean vet will issue a certificate while you wait. Cost is ₩10,000.

- Valid Rabies Vaccination Certificate from within the last year
- USDA health certificate (APHIS form 7001)
- Korean health certificate

For further information, contact the Korean Animal Quarantine Office located at Incheon Airport at 032.740.2660.

In general, bringing your pet cat or dog back home to the US is easier than bringing them to Korea. Most animals meeting Korean requirements will meet US requirements. Korea requires a Korean Health Certificate for any pet to leave the country. These requirements apply equally to service animals such as Seeing Eye dogs. Pet cats and dogs are subject to inspection at ports of entry. If a pet appears to be ill, or evidence of infectious disease is present, further examination by a licensed veterinarian at the owner’s expense might be required and entry into the US may be denied.

Some countries require a Fluorescent Antibody Virus Neutralization (FAVN) test to be completed for each pet within 180 days prior to arrival. The result needs to be readily available upon arrival. If completing a FAVN test in Korea, the blood sample is sent to the US for lab testing, and it can take four to eight weeks for the result to be sent to Korea. It may be wise to have the FAVN test completed before orders are issued because if the orders are received less than 180 days out from PCS date, it might not be enough time to receive the result before departing. The rabies-neutralizing antibody test must be administered by an internationally approved laboratory or by the competent authority of the exporting country within 24 months prior to boarding.

Research the country of your projected next duty station as early as possible and begin preparation six to eight months before moving.
Determine requirements, regulations, and costs for pets to depart Korea and to enter final destination. Ensure all vaccinations, blood work results, etc. meet requirements set forth by both countries.

Begin process right after orders are received because it can be time-consuming and expensive depending upon your pet’s final destination. (If possible, begin process 180 days before PCS date.)

PET NON-COMBATANT EVACUATION OPERATION

Please see your unit NEO warden or the NEO section of this publication for more information.

IMPORTATION OF CATS OR DOGS TO THE US FOR COMMERCIAL/BREEDING PURPOSES

If you are thinking of bringing a dog or cat to the US from Korea for breeding, check out the rules for bringing domestic cats and dogs into the US specifically for breeding by reading US regulation 42 CFR 71.51.

K-12 Schools

K-12 SCHOOLS, ON POST

The USAG Yongsan school district consists of Seoul American Elementary School (SAES), Seoul American Middle School (SAMS), and Seoul American High School (SAHS). All three schools are on South Post. The schools provide free education to command-sponsored military and Department of Defense (DOD) civilian family members. Non-command sponsored students and non-DOD students may attend on a tuition-paying, space available basis.

Registration

DoDEA offers online pre-registration in order to reduce the waiting time for registration on site; however, pre-registration does not complete the registration process, nor can it be used to re-register a student. To register for school, parents should bring the required forms listed below to the school registrar. The school registrars are located in the front office of each individual school. School placement will be determined upon assignment of housing once in Korea. Kindergarten students must be five years old on/or before the first of September of the current calendar year to be eligible to register for the upcoming school year. First grade students must be six years old on/or before the first of September of the current calendar year to be eligible to register for the upcoming school year.

Transportation
Walking to School or to a Bus Stop
Elementary students are expected to walk no more than one mile, and secondary students no more than a mile and a half, to school or a bus stop. Distance is measured in a straight line from the student’s residence to the designated stop.

Space Available Basis Students and the School Bus
Space available students also fall into the space available category for transportation.

There are a lot of beginners on the slopes, so it is advisable to be cautious and to be aware of who is coming down behind you.

Ski clothing is abundant and inexpensive. However, if you have ski equipment and plan on skiing a lot, bring your own. Rental items are available at most resorts, but buying ski items there can be expensive. Some MWR offices may also have equipment for rent so check before heading on your ski adventure.

From Seoul, to Korea, to the many countries beyond, there is a world of opportunity awaiting you and your family, but to maximize your enjoyment, it is wise to be properly informed and prepared. This section will help you become acclimated to your new home, prepare to welcome visitors, and to explore both Korea and the region.

General Information

PUBLIC RESTROOMS

Public restrooms may have western style toilets and/or in-ground toilets. Signs are usually on the doors to identify which type of toilet is inside. You may find a toilet that has seat warmers and other features. Look at the pictures carefully before pressing any buttons.

Foreigners sometimes miss toilet paper in bathrooms because it is often in large dispensers similar in size to a paper towel dispenser located outside the stalls. When you walk into the restroom, you may notice toilet paper dispensers on the wall. This signals that the stalls do not have their own rolls, so take some with you. A good rule of thumb is to carry tissues with you, just in case the bathrooms do not have any available. Also, you might see a wastebasket and signs that read “do not to throw toilet paper into the toilet.” Be aware that soap for washing is often communal and on a stick near the sinks.

SPACE AVAILABLE TRAVEL

Patriot Express

Space Available Flights, also referred to as Space A travel or Patriot Express, is air travel that is offered at a highly reduced cost to active and retired members of the military as well as qualifying members of their families. Space A travel is possible if seats remain available after military personnel traveling under orders receive their seats. There are various restrictions governing Space A travel so familiarity with these guidelines is highly recommended.

In Korea, Space A travel is provided at Osan and Kunsan Air Bases. Osan Air Base is located one hour south of Seoul and is conveniently and inexpensively reached by bus service departing from USAG Yongsan’s Moyer Bus Terminal or the Dragon Hill Lodge. To ensure the most accurate and up to date information, travelers should speak directly to personnel.
The passenger terminal at Osan Air Base has excellent modern facilities including a spacious, well-equipped play area for families traveling with children.

The Space A flights depart from Osan Air Base and arrive in the United States at Seattle International Airport. Connections from Seattle are via regular commercial airlines. Connecting commercial flights are not part of Space A travel and are at the traveler’s personal expense.

Keep in mind that Space A travel is not a reliable means of transportation. Unlike commercial airlines, there are usually no back-up flights if a plane is diverted. There are also no guarantees that seats will be available. This means travelers must be flexible and prepared with an alternative travel plan. If you keep this in mind, and follow all the required guidelines, you will no doubt find that Space A is a great option.

Here are the basic steps for successful Space A travel.

• Identify your eligibility travel category.
• Determine your departure and arrival points, and intended travel dates.
• Prepare required documentation and obtain requisite authorization.
• Register with the Passenger Terminal (the earlier this is done, the better). Be sure to register for both your departing flight and your return flight.
• Call the Passenger Terminal 24-48 hours prior to departure date to receive flight status updates, required “show-time” and projected seat availability.
• Check-in at the Passenger Terminal on flight departure date. Be sure you have all required travel documents (Passport, ID card, authorized letter to travel, and any other documents you were instructed to bring).
• Listen for the seats available announcement. If you are selected for a space available seat, be prepared to check in immediately.

VISAS
The best way to get accurate information on visas is to contact the relevant embassy several months prior to the time you are interested in traveling. Conditions are constantly changing around the world, so be prepared for some travel changes. Travel agents or the USO can help groups of travelers obtain passport information and visas. For visitors to Korea, a visa is not required if the period of stay in Korea is 90 days or less.

VISITORS TO USAG YONGSAN/SEOUL
Many families stationed in Korea host visiting family and friends. Each visitor you have will need a valid passport. Before your visitors purchase airline tickets, check with travel agents in Korea (both on and off post). They will often be able to provide you with cheaper fares on flights from the US to Korea.

Temporary Post Pass
Visitors need a pass issued so that they can have access to the post. Prior to their arrival, pick up an application (USFK Form 82-E) for a temporary post pass from the Post Access & POV office in the USAG Yongsan Headquarters Building. Return completed forms (you will need a copy of the visitor’s passport information) to the same office. Pass processing and approval takes about three working days. You may request a pass for up to 30 days. When you pick up the approved pass, you can also pick up a letter that will allow your visitors access to the PX (escorted by you); this process can easily be done before your visitors arrive.

Once your visitors arrive in the country, take the completed paperwork, your visitors, and their passports to the Pass, ID, and Vehicle Registration Office. Visitors must be present to have their thumb print scanned for the DBIDS system. They will also have their photograph taken and will be issued a pass valid for their entire stay. If your visitors arrive after hours or on a weekend, you will be able to sign them on post for a 24-hour period. You will need to re-sign them in every 24 hours until you obtain a pass for them. This can be especially inconvenient if your visitors arrive just before a long holiday weekend.

Another option is to start your exploration by joining a group tour with the USO, The Royal Asiatic Society, or to spend the day on the Seoul City Bus tour.

The village is located between two palaces. The eaves of houses are connected and walls are shared. These homes are often still occupied, so consideration should be made regarding large groups and rowdy behavior.

The Gahoe-dong Traditional Village Cultural Festival is held in the streets of Bukchon Hanok Village by the Bukchon Nobility Life & Culture Pavilion, where visitors can learn about the lives of historical Koreans.

BEYOND SEOUL
Though there is so much to do in Seoul, take the time to leave the city and explore the different regions and terrains of Korea. Let this list serve as a launching pad for your own adventures.

Northern Locations
Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) and Panmunjom
In order to truly understand the effect of being so close to the most heavily fortified border on the planet, visit the DMZ to learn about this important part of Korean history. Panmunjom is the most forward location in the DMZ that can be visited by civilians. There are tours available through the USO and Discover Seoul. Reserve your spot early, as the spots fill up fast, and it takes several days for the clearances to be obtained.

Goseong Unification Observation Platform and Tongil Security Park
The Goseong Unification Observation Platform, located in Goseong-gun, Gangwon-do, is where you fill out the paperwork to gain permission to continue on to the observation platform. Wear sturdy shoes as there is a climb up to the observation platform, which is 700 meters above sea level.

The Observatory provides a wonderful view of the 4 km wide DMZ, North Korea, and Mt. Geum-gang. Between the Observation Platform and the Unification and Security Park is the DMZ Museum. Although the observatory, park, and museum are on many people’s must see list, the information at these sights are not always written in English so it may be helpful to find a Korean friend to accompany you.

Ganghwa Island (Ganghwado)
Ganghwa Island, or Ganghwado, is the fifth largest island in Korea located approximately 50 km to the west of Seoul, and less than 1 km off the coast of Incheon in the West Sea. It is rich in both history and natural beauty. Visitors can easily find Ganghwa local products such as Hwamunseok (a mat woven with flower patterns), rice, and ginseng at the town markets. Famous for its “stamina producing” ginseng, Ganghwado is still a rural island. Egrets stalk through verdant rice fields, gulls chase ferries, and the pace of life is slow. Attractions include numerous small fortifications: the Ganghwa dolmens (a UNESCO World Heritage site), which are among Korea’s largest dolmens; Mt. Mani (Manisan), which is the site of the Chamseongdan Alter; and a 10km coastal bicycle track.

This bustling industrial port 36 km west of Seoul has a nice waterfront area with amusement rides, sushi shops, stores, and ferries, as well as a very accessible Chinatown. Come here for a great day trip out of Seoul, sample some different foods, stroll along Wolmido waterfront, or use Incheon as a stepping stone to the more remote islands.

The Memorial Hall for Incheon Landing Operation, a park commemorating the sight of MacArthur’s famous landing in 1950, is located in this busy port city. The hall was created by the Incheon citizens to honor those who sacrificed their lives to preserve democracy and freedom on the Peninsula. There is also a small museum that houses the city’s collection of archaeological and historical materials.

Stretching over four cities and counties, the peaks and valleys, home to more than 2,000 animal species and 1,400 rare plant species, have various streams that meet up in the Baekdamcheon valley, which is also the location of the Baekdamsa Temple. Seoraksan has been recognized since 1982 as a Biosphere Preservation District by UNESCO. There are no entrance fees and camping site fees are very reasonable. The USO has some hiking tours available during the fall hiking season.

Located on the southern coast, Chinhae is approximately a seven-hour drive from Seoul, or around four hours by the KTX train. Try to stay in one of the billeting rooms if you visit.

Chinhae is known for its Jinhae Gunhangje Festival. The event is held annually and honors Admiral Yi Sun Shin, a famous Korean naval hero. The festival usually begins in late March or early April and runs for 10 days. It is one of the largest cherry blossom festivals in the world, with approximately two million visitors annually. During this time, food vendors and stands offering Korean goods line the streets of Chinhae, along with street performers, carnival stalls, and street lighting.

Just south of Chinhae lies Korea’s second largest island, Geojedo, and it is just a 90-minute ferry ride away. The island was once a POW camp during the Korean War and has subsequently become home to a thriving fishing and shipbuilding industry, along with first-class beaches and resorts.

After the cultural experiences and sites to enjoy in Korea, the biggest adventure everyone should take advantage of is travel to other countries. Here are a few tips to make the most of your travel:

- Register with STEP. The Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) is a free service to allow US citizens and nationals traveling abroad to enroll their trip with the nearest US Embassy or Consulate. You can quickly and easily register at https://step.state.gov/step/.

- English as an official language. Consider traveling to countries where English is prevalent; this allows you to travel on your own with ease.

- Carry local currency and monitor your bank account. Many countries impose fees upon arrival that must be paid in local currencies. Additionally, transportation from the airport to your hotel, if not prepaid, will have to be paid. Not everywhere accepts credit cards so keeping local currency on hand is helpful. ATM machines will allow you to pull money from your US bank account. Study the international currency rates published in the local papers before going on your trip so that you will know the amount of local currency you can expect for your dollars/won. Airports and hotels typically have the lowest exchange rates; only get what you absolutely need from these places.

- Travel to more than one country per trip. This can improve the adventure while minimizing costs.

- Roll with it! Whatever happens, remember to laugh and add it to the list of memories that you made with your family!

- Know the USFK foreign travel regulations and request travel in advance. Military members must request permission from their commander for foreign travel. Some areas are restricted and others require higher level approval. Service members should initiate travel requests early to ensure they receive approval prior to planned travel dates.

- Check with your travel agent on the visa/passport requirements for the country you are visiting; they vary from country to country. Leave ample time for processing these documents.

- Always know the immunization requirements of the country/ countries you’re going to visit.

- Plan ahead. Dealing with travel agents or airlines in Korea is somewhat different than the experiences you may have had elsewhere, so you need to have plenty of time to make sure all details are in order and to ensure that you are getting the best deal possible. Don’t allow your travel agent/group tour promoter to wait until the last minute to provide you with your tickets, accommodations confirmation, etc. It’s not easy to get your military leave orders changed if a travel agent lets you down at the last minute.

- Research, research, research. Once you have selected a destination, find out everything you can about which airlines are available, hotel promotions, and travel agents. You will find you can save hundreds of dollars by shopping around.

- Benefit from the experiences of others. Talk with those who have traveled during their tours in Korea. Their experiences can often save you a lot of time, trouble, and money.

- Look for discounts and deals. Check with the airline yourself to view current fares and always ask about discount rates. Check with the international reservations center of the local hotels that give military discounts (Hilton, Hyatt, Sheraton, Ramada, and Intercontinental). You will often find that you can put your own package together for less than what some of the tour operators quote.

- If it’s offered, always buy baggage insurance when traveling in Asia. If your luggage does get lost, you can buy enough personal items to hold you over until it finally shows up. Never check valuables in your luggage; always hand-carry them.

- Do your homework. Learn as much as possible about your intended destination and don’t pay for a lot of “optional” tours to places you don’t really want to see. Be aware of the fact that most of the airports in Asia have an airport tax, some of which have to be paid in the local currency. Always know what this is and put money aside to pay it.

- Be prepared to communicate. If you’re going on your own without the assistance of an English-speaking tour guide, consider buying an English translator dictionary or downloading one to your phone. Even if you can’t speak the language, being able to point at the appropriate words often helps. Also, learn a few key words and phrases. Knowing enough to be polite will often encourage others to help you.

- Know in advance what the customs are and dress accordingly. Many Westerners unintentionally offend people of Asian cultures by wearing “improper” clothing into temples and shrines. Remember, you are representing your family and your country.

- Be respectful. Remember that many things are different in Asia (voltage for appliances, driving on a different side of the road, etc.) and you need to prepare yourself and your children for these differences. The last thing you want is for your children to be offensive by telling people, even the waiter, that things are weird or gross.

- Travel light because you undoubtedly will find many treasures to purchase during your journey. Many veteran travelers travel with an empty lightweight bag folded into their luggage just so they’ll be able to get their purchases home safely.

- Know the customs and laws of each country you plan to travel in as well as the Korean laws. You can check with the embassy of your destination for current information on their laws and with the Customs Office on Yongsan for the Korean rules.

- Have a Plan B if you are flying Space A. Always be prepared to pay for a commercial ticket back to Korea if the Space A flights are suddenly not available. Also, be prepared to pay for lodging if you are forced to stay in an area longer than anticipated.

- Please refer to the Medical section of this publication for information on obtaining services while traveling.

WHERE TO GO

The following is a list of possible places to explore. Due to changing world conditions, always check with the embassy and USFK to see if travel to your country of choice is recommended, or even prohibited. An International Driving Permit (IDP) may be required to operate a vehicle in your chosen destination and is only valid when used in conjunction with a valid US driver’s license. IDPs may be obtained at AAA offices in the United States or by mail via AAA (www.aaa.com/vacation/idpf.html) or through the National Automobile Club (www.thenac.com/idp_faqs.htm).

Australia

The “land down under” is beginning to enjoy a real surge in popularity with travelers from Korea. There are several package tours on the market. You can easily obtain your visa from the Australian Embassy in the Kyobo Building downtown near the American Embassy or you can obtain a visa online through the Australian Government’s Department of Immigration and Citizenship Electronic Travel Authority website at https://www.eta.immi.gov.au/ETA/etas.jsp. Qantas, Korean Air, and Asiana have direct flights to Sydney and many other cities.

Sydney Points of Interest

There are many things to see and do in Sydney, including visiting the Sydney Opera House. A Circle pass is good for unlimited one day travel with stops at most of the famous Sydney sights. Sydney also has a subway system you can use to get around. The Australian Naval Base is accessible with a valid US military ID, and then you can walk on base straight down to the harbor.

If you are traveling on a flexible itinerary, try visiting a travel agency while in Sydney and check into their tours of the Gold Coast. They offer some specials for the Great Barrier Reef area. Call the Australian Embassy at 02.2003.0100 or visit one of the travel services on post to book a trip.

Cambodia

Korean Air has a direct flight into Siem Reap and the Temples of Angkor Wat, making it much easier to reach them. Although the city is modernizing at a fast pace, this still may not be a trip for children. Healthcare is not easily accessible and there is a lot of walking through old stone ruins.

The temples date back to 800 AD and are mainly of Hindu origin with Buddhist influence in the later temples.

China

Americans and other foreign visitors are touring China in increasing numbers to visit Beijing, Guangzhou, Shanghai, Guilin, Xian, and Hangzhou. A visa is required to visit China and they can be expensive.

Travel services on or off post offer individual or group tours to many destinations in China for varying lengths of time and prices. These trips are an excellent value for the money especially with the travel services arranging all visas, tours of your choice, and great four and five star hotel accommodations. A flight from Incheon Airport to Beijing is about two hours.

Guam/Saipan

Located off the coast of Japan in the Mariana Islands, Guam is a four and a half hour flight from Incheon International Airport and the short hop to Saipan is less than an hour from Guam. In addition to white sandy beaches and breathtaking views, Guam, a US territory, is home to two military bases where you can pick up discount tickets for local activities. For a more tranquil setting consider Saipan. This US Commonwealth is smaller and does not have the hustle and bustle of Guam. Both Guam and Saipan have a variety of luxury hotels and recreational activities.

Hong Kong

Hong Kong is an amazing city with skyscrapers jutting out of the surrounding mountains and the bustling harbor down below. It's truly a shopper's paradise since imported goods enter Hong Kong duty free. Shop carefully and compare prices and quality. Always deal with reputable dealers. Look for the Hong Kong Tourism Board symbol, as it normally indicates an established merchant with a good reputation.

Upon arrival at the Hong Kong airport, pick up one of the free tourist travel kits available in the baggage claim area or download the free app offered by the Hong Kong Tourism Board. The kit contains an excellent map and a good guidebook. The Hong Kong subway can get you just about anywhere you want to go. Buy a tourist pass; it's cheaper and you won’t have to wait in the long lines to pay for a ticket each time.

The Fleet Arcade shopping area is at Fenwick Pier, 1 Lung King St. Wan Chai. It is located on the Hong Kong island side of the city and can be easily reached from the Admiralty Subway Stop. The United States Navy Fleet Post Office (FPO) is located on the second floor of the Fleet Arcade. The FPO is a full-service United States Post Office. A commercial packaging facility is located next to the FPO and makes mailing home your purchases very convenient! The hours of operation are Monday-Friday 10:00 am-4:00 pm and 10:00 am-6:00 pm when US ships are in port. The FPO is closed on holidays and weekends. To use FPO services, identification is required. Payment is accepted in US dollars or by personal check (no credit cards).

If you are looking for a vacation to remind you of the US, Disneyland Hong Kong is a great option. With the least expensive prices of the Disney resorts in Asia, it is an affordable spot to treat your kids or treat yourself like a kid.

India

India's rich diversity is comprised of many languages, religions, traditions and beliefs. This fascinating country is awe-inspiring, though first-time visitors may be surprised in other ways as poverty remains a harsh reality for many of India's residents and witnessing this can be jarring. For more information about India, visit http://www.indembassy.or.kr.
Japan

Traveling to Japan from Korea is relatively inexpensive and easy if you plan your trip carefully. There are several ways of going to Japan: commercial airlines, AMC flights from Osan, and by ferry from Busan. Try to use the US military facilities in Japan (particularly the New Sannoo in Tokyo) as much as possible because Japan is the most expensive country in the world. The New Sannoo Hotel has an extremely high occupancy rate, so make your reservations at least six months in advance by calling 050.3322.9712, internationally at 011.81.33.440.7871 ext. 7121, or visit www.thenewsanno.com.

If you are using commercial transportation while in Japan, consider buying a Japan Rail Pass while you are still in Seoul as they aren’t available inside Japan. These passes allow unlimited travel on trains throughout the country and are a real bargain. You can purchase them from Global Travel near City Hall or other agencies in Seoul. There is so much to see and do in Japan that you will want maximum flexibility in getting around. It is also advisable to buy a tourist subway pass (you can get them at the New Sannoo or at the airport) for easy movement in Tokyo.

Shopping in Japan can be a very expensive experience if you shop on the Japanese economy. Many Americans have found they get better value by shopping in the arcade at the New Sannoo or at the bases located throughout Japan. The Japanese Embassy can be reached at 02.733.5626.

Okinawa

One of the four Ryukyu Islands, Okinawa is an easy destination for anyone wanting to use Space A from Osan to Kadena. Call the Osan AMC terminal for information. You will find the AMC terminal personnel much more helpful if you call at a time when they are not processing a flight. Ask when you call if this is the case and if so, when could you call back. Also, the Osan Passenger Terminal Facebook page offers an abundance of information including flight schedules and updates.

The climate of Okinawa is subtropical and an interesting change from Seoul. Shopping for local crafts and fine china is excellent. Be aware that Japanese taxis are expensive. Use base transportation whenever possible to get as close to your destination as possible.

The most logical and inexpensive place to stay is Kadena Airbase, which has 24-hour billeting. Call DSN 632.1100/Internationally 011.81.98.962.1000 to reach the reservation desk. Another option is Camp Foster Westpac Lodge can be reached at DSN 645.2455/Internationally 011.81.6117.45.2455. For some family fun time try the Torii Beach Cabins at DSN 644.4659/Internationally 011.81.611.744.4659. A secret of Okinawa is Okuma Resort located 50 miles North of Kadena Airbase. The DSN number for Okuma is 632.3102/Internationally 011.82.98.962.3102 between 8:00 am-5:00 pm. There is also occasionally Navy BOQ space available; you can check with the Navy Billeting office in Building 4198 before 4:00 pm.

Macau

This tiny country on the tip of China is often a destination for tourists while they are in Hong Kong. Macau is easily accessible from Hong Kong by ferry or hydrofoil. The Portuguese heritage of Macau gives it its own special flavor. Go to Macau, if for nothing else, to eat the uniquely flavored food and drink the good, inexpensive wines.

Gambling is also a big attraction here and huge casinos line the shore. Some of these casinos boast fabulous restaurants. Excellent, inexpensive places to eat are also easily found.

Malaysia

Malaysia is an inexpensive and marvelous place to visit. The Malaysians are a friendly people, eager to visit with foreigners. English is the dominant language here, making it generally easy to communicate with everyone from the cab drivers to the shopkeepers.

Kuala Lumpur is very child-friendly. There are beautiful, clean beaches throughout the country and special package tours for golfers interested in playing on the lush Malaysian courses. Eating and shopping are inexpensive, with the best buy possibly being the beautiful Selangor pewter, produced just outside Kuala Lumpur.

Johor Bahru, located across the Johor Strait from Singapore, is also another rapidly growing tourist location. Consider this as an option if you want to see Singapore, as hotels in Johor Bahru are less than half of the cost of hotels in Singapore. Taxis and public transport travel between Johor Bahru and Singapore daily but due to the more than 100,000 Malaysians that use the only bridge into Singapore, you can save a lot of time by using the public transport system. If you are traveling with small children, you are able to go to the front of the bus lines, but even without this advantage, the trip takes less than 45 minutes and will save an hour or more during heavy traffic times.

Nepal/Tibet

These ancient countries in North-Central Asia are visited by few of the personnel stationed in Korea. Those who have gone have come back with varying reports. Some cite the primitive living and traveling conditions while others talk about the fascinating cultures. Neither country has an embassy in Seoul, so you will have to do your own research online, at the Yongsan library, or find a good travel agent. Make sure any plans or itineraries are confirmed in writing before departure.

New Zealand

This wonderfully scenic country is very affordable now that you live in Korea. Make sure your tour incorporates both the North and South Islands. The North Island offers world-class dining in Auckland, hot water beaches along the Pacific Coast Highway, and mud pools and geysers in Rotorua, just to name a few. The South Island’s charm is endless and includes six of New Zealand’s eight “Great Walks,” Stewart Island is one of the best spots to see the rare Kiwi bird, and overnight cruises to take in the scenery or spot fur seals and bottlenose dolphins. Call your travel agent to arrange for the things you are most interested in including in your tour package.

Singapore

This small island country is a truly international city, and almost every nationality is noticeably represented. As it was once a British colony, English is predominantly used (although somewhat broken), with the other three official languages being Mandarin, Malay, and Tamil. It is also one of the cleanest and safest cities in the world.

The island is small and public transportation is affordable as cars are strictly regulated. Taxi costs are similar to Seoul, so don’t be afraid to jump in a cab because you really don’t have far to go. For a family of four, a taxi is generally cheaper than the subway. However, cab prices vary between taxi companies, so beware of deluxe taxis that will cost more.

The most popular places to stay are Clarke Quay, Marina Bay and Chinatown. Chinatown was gentrified in recent years, and has been brought back to its early 1900s colonial style. AirBnB rentals are easy to find if you book ahead. Unless you want to watch the Formula One, avoid going during the race week in September. Besides the road closures and large crowds downtown, hotel prices tend to be very high.

Activities for Couples/Single Adults

- Check out the nightlife in Clarke Quay, a neighborhood of clubs, bars and restaurants on the river that don’t close until sunrise.
- If you have ever wanted to experience a true superclub, Zouk is THE place to go. It is known as one of the best night clubs in the world and has been at its location for over 20 years. If you can, attend ZoukOut, the largest beach party held every year featuring world famous DJs.
- Have a drink at Ku Dé Ta on the rooftop of the Marina Bay Sands Hotel, and watch the sunset over the entire city. Free admission on weekdays. You can have a close-up view of the hotel’s rooftop pool from the bar, but only guests are allowed in the pool area.
- Have champagne service in the Singapore Flyer, the large Ferris wheel, while watching city lights and ships out at sea.

Fun for All

- Shopping is a popular pastime in Singapore. Orchard Road is the main shopping street, but Chinatown, Kampong Glam and Marina Bay have lots to offer.
- Singapore river cruises can be one of the most breathtaking ways to take in the architecture and beauty of the city. Among the sites that can be seen on the various cruises are Empress Place, which has been an architectural treasure since 1865, and the Merlion, one of the most recognized landmarks, known as the symbol of Singapore.
- Singapore Botanic Gardens, Singapore’s first UNESCO World
Heritage Site nomination, is a beautiful place. Filled with thousands of rare tropical plants and a separate orchid garden, it is the only botanic garden in the world that is open 5:00 am-midnight every day of the year and does not charge any entrance fees for the main garden. A small fee is charged for the National Orchid Garden which houses 400 species and more than 2,000 hybrids. The orchid is Singapore’s national flower.

- Gardens by the Bay is a large park behind the Marina Bay Sands. The main attraction is the grove of Supertrees, which are steel pipes shaped like trees (think Dr. Seuss meets Avatar). The park was created on reclaimed land, and is a biomass recycling center for all the greenery in the city; the Supertrees are the ventilation pipes for the biomass generator. Admission is free for the garden, but some of the attractions in the park such as Cloud Forest require an entrance fee. The park is also open in the evening when the Supertrees are lit up, making for some exciting night photography.
- Marina Bay Sands puts on a light show most evenings. The show is best viewed from across the bay from the hotel at One Fullerton.
- Visit the neighborhoods of Little India and Arab Town.
- Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines also offer very affordable cruise options, embarking from Singapore for many travel destinations throughout Asia.

Eating in Singapore

Singapore is known as a food mecca but it can be very expensive if you don’t know where to go. All restaurants are very strictly regulated for safety and hygiene, including street vendors or “hawker stalls.” Authentic international food can be found anywhere and everywhere, and there are many, many food review websites for Singapore to help narrow down the choices. Some very affordable local options include hawker stalls (outdoor food courts that sell mostly local food), food courts in shopping malls, and Little India.

Taipei, Taiwan

Taipei is Taiwan’s largest city and also its capital. Check with the US Embassy before booking a trip.

- Some of the things to see include the National Palace Museum, Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall, Taipei 101 which was ranked as the world’s tallest building until 2010; Wulai, which is a mountain village famous for the aboriginal village, waterfall, and hot springs; and Taroka Gorge.

- Popular items from Taiwan are painting reproductions, pottery and other ceramic wares, furniture, jewelry made of coral and other semi-precious stones, Hualien marble, Taiwan jade, temple carvings, hand puppets, old coins, cloisonné, and rosewood furniture.

Thailand

With its 800-year-old history, vast cultural attractions, exotic beaches, islands, and national parks, Thailand offers something for everyone. Not only are the Thai people very friendly and hospitable, but the country also offers an abundance of amenities from excellent food to inexpensive quality accommodations, making it an ideal vacation spot for military families.

- The best buys in Thailand historically have been silk, rubies, and star sapphires. For more information visit www.tourismthailand.org. Another great website is www.nancychandler.net which contains “Nancy Chandler’s map of Bangkok,” which is most helpful.

- Major tourism destinations in Thailand include:
  - Bangkok
    - New buildings reach for the sky around the corner from ancient temples, many of which are home to enormous images of Buddha inlaid with gold and mother of pearl. Points of interest include floating Markets, Mae Sa Elephant Camp, the Grand Palace and Wat Po, the National Museum, Nakhon Kasem, Chatuchak Weekend Market, and Pattaya beach resort.
  - Chiang Mai
    - Chaing Mai’s reasonable cost and abundance of activities geared to the family makes for a very relaxed and enjoyable vacation. The Chiang Mai cultural center has evening dinner shows; kchantoke and a dance show is performed most nights with audience participation expected. The massage retreats in Chiang Mai are another popular attraction.
Phuket
Being Thailand's largest island, Phuket is famous for its beaches. Patong, Karon, and Kata are popular beaches. If you prefer peace and quiet, however, stay away from these beaches as they can be crowded and noisy. There are many water sport activities. Check out the beautiful waterfalls, Ton Sai and Bang Pai. The islands off Phuket (Andaman, Similan, and Phi Phi) offer some of the best scuba diving in Southeast Asia. Phuket tends to be more expensive than other areas in Thailand because it has long been a popular tourist destination.

Korat
If it's the Khmer culture you are after, then head about 260 km north of Bangkok to Korat where you will find several stunning examples of 12th century architecture. Plan to visit nearby Phimai, a Khmer complex constructed on a manmade river islet. Its sanctuary tower is home to stunning Khmer artistry.

Koh Samui
This island has become a popular alternative to Phuket, and lies off the opposite coast of Thailand. Chaweng beach is the most popular area (and can be very crowded), but there are many other beautiful beaches around the island. Koh Samui is close to Ang Thong National Marine Park, and other popular diving sites.

Vietnam
There are many places to see from Hanoi in the north to Saigon in the south.

Hanoi
A flight from Incheon Airport to the northernmost city of Hanoi is only about four hours and there are many places to visit such as excavations at Hanoi Citadel, floating villages, military history museums, art museums, temples, pagodas, markets, and a myriad of other tourist venues which are scattered in and around this historical city. Some places of interest in the area of Hanoi are Hoa Lo Prison, the Old Quarter, Thang Long Water Puppet Theater, Ha Long Bay, and the many caves and grottoes.

Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City)
Saigon teems with energy, activity, and motion and everywhere you look seems to be the meeting of traditional and modern life. Visit the Reunification Palace, formerly the Independence Palace of the South Vietnamese president that was famously stormed by tanks in 1975 and signified the fall of South Vietnam. Visit the bustling markets and tour the temples and museums of Saigon. For tour destinations and prices, visit one of the travel service offices or visit www.vietnamtourism.com.

There is an abundance of good restaurants as well as thousands of little carryout, or “sidewalk” tents, where you can have anything from a snack to a quick and inexpensive meal, all the way to a fine dining experience. Here are some tips on dining in Korea:

- Prices vary with the type of cuisine ordered and the area of town.
- Beer and liquor can be extremely expensive, so check prices prior to ordering.
- Restaurants deemed exemplary by a government rating system have a “Good Restaurant” sign out front.
- Many fine-dining restaurants have a dress code. Check beforehand to find out what is expected.
- Traditional restaurants may require you to remove your shoes. Plan accordingly.
- Water glasses and a water container are often placed on the table for you fill your own glass throughout the meal.
- Once you are ready to order, there may be a service button on the table to press to summon the server or you may need to flag your server down.
- Napkins may be located on the table in a small container or in a drawer on the side of the table.
- Flatware and/or chopsticks may be found directly on the table, in a box on the table, in a drawer on the side of the table, or brought to you when you are served your meal.
- If you need something during the meal, use the service button or flag down the waiter. Servers do not typically check back with diners once the meal is served as they do in the US.
- It is customary to pay at the register once your meal is complete. You may or may not receive a bill prior to that. Some restaurants require payment up front; these are usually establishments where you order at a counter prior to being seated.
- It is not customary to tip in Korea.

Off post you will not only find Korean cuisine, but also a melting pot of international flavors. A wonderland of world-class restaurants is just a stone’s throw away from post in the area of Itaewon, which is easily accessible from walk-out gates 5 and 21. But through any gate you choose, you are bound to find something to satisfy your appetite. Apps like MangoPlate, TripAdvisor, and Foursquare can help you easily locate restaurants while on the go. And blogs such as ZenKimchi, A Fat Girl’s Food Guide to Eating in Korea, and Only in Itaewon can help you find more great eats. The following is a short list of ex-pat favorites, but it is by no means an exhaustive list of what is available.

USAG Yongsan is located in the district known as “Yongsan-gu;” within that area there are several small neighborhoods, or “dongs,” that surround the post. The following key will help you figure out in which neighborhood a restaurant is located. The neighborhood key has been numbered according to the nearest gate number. Restaurants listed without a neighborhood designation are located outside of the Yongsan district in other areas of Seoul.

GENERAL INFORMATION

RATION CONTROL AND BLACK MARKET

The Ration Control Program exists to prevent the transfer of duty free goods to those not entitled to receive them. Active duty military use their military ID as their Ration Control Card (RCC), but RCCs are required for family members entitled to make AAFES or commissary purchases.

To receive a RCC, you must first be entered into the DBIDS system. The sponsor must accompany all family members to the Ration Control Office with their ID cards. You may show a copy of your sponsor’s orders stamped by the Ration Control desk to purchase before obtaining your RCC. RCCs must be presented by all patrons over age 10 when entering duty free facilities (e.g., Class VI stores, AAFES gas station, PX, and Commissary). The RCC and military ID must be presented at the point of sale as well. Consider keeping your receipts for large ticket items in case questions are raised about your buying habits.
You will be given information on the current rules and regulations concerning black marketing during in-processing. Under the Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA), the US is allowed to import certain products duty free for the commissary and PX services. These products are strictly for the personal use of authorized personnel. Black marketing is the illegal sale of duty free goods to the Korean economy and can result in severe disciplinary action. Report anyone who is engaged in this practice to the black marketing hotline.

Many products are considered illegal for gift giving to Korean Nationals. For questions regarding the sale of controlled items or gifts to personnel not authorized duty free import privileges, contact the Ration Control Office for information on proper legal procedures. Information is also available from USFK regulations 643-1 and 60-1.

ONLINE SHOPPING AND SHIPPING

- Be sure to check which shipping method a company intends to use to ship the goods to you. The quickest, easiest, and most convenient way for APO/FPO shipments is USPS Priority Mail. This usually takes one to two weeks, versus six to eight weeks by standard or “smart mail” methods.
- Search for online coupons and discounted shipping codes when ordering.
- Plan ahead during the busy holiday mailing season. Earlier is always better.
- For those items that cannot be shipped to an APO/FPO address, there are companies who specialize in forwarding packages to APO/FPO addresses. They provide you with a stateside shipping address and then charge shipping and handling to forward it on to your APO address. Consider visiting www.apobox.com or www.shipitapo.com.
- Most online vendors will not ship large items to APO addresses. If they do, the shipping costs can be more than the actual item purchased.
- Western goods are more expensive on the economy, so many people become avid Internet shoppers after moving to Korea. Many Internet sites will ship to APO addresses. We could not possibly list them all, but here is a list of a few popular online retailers that will ship to an APO/FPO:

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

- Try to negotiate at smaller stores and markets before agreeing on a price. Merchants can be very dramatic about negotiating, but do not let that deter you. The only places you cannot negotiate are box stores (e.g., Costco) and department stores/major retailers/chain stores.
- Do not let aggressive merchants push you to buy something you do not want.
- If you are shopping for Korean-made items, be sure to check to see that the items are actually made in Korea. Many items, especially those that seem to be very good bargains, are often imported.
- Remember that a label is easily applied and removed. Check your items before you purchase to be sure that they are in good working order and that the brand name is accurate.

- If possible, browse on your first visit to a market and then return on the second visit to buy. Some vendors or items are seasonal or temporary, and may not be there when you return.

- The small, local markets and street vendors carry items you cannot find on post. Wandering through the large shopping malls and department stores can be a full day outing for you and your family.

- Prior to shopping in the markets, browse the items and prices at chain stores like Daiso, Lotte Mart, and E-mart. This will give you a general idea of prices so when you are shopping in the markets you know whether or not you are getting a good deal.

- Check the US Postal and Customs regulations prior to buying a large number of items to send to the US. The US Customs Office is cracking down on illegal exports, including military members sending illegal gifts stateside. Stiffer regulations from the Korean government have decreased the counterfeit label distributors drastically.

- Always know the exchange rate between dollars and won before you shop. You may be able to get a better deal using one currency over the other, depending on current economic conditions.

- Be aware that if you pay by credit card, the currency exchange rate is in the seller’s favor.

- If you use a credit card, never pay a service charge to the merchant for using the card. If the merchant insists on the service charge and you absolutely have to have the item, make the merchant write the charge separately on your receipt and report them to the credit card company. This is an illegal practice and most merchants will back off if you stand your ground. Keep your credit card receipts and ensure the charge that shows up on your bill matches the receipt.

- Many businesses will offer a cash discount if you pay in won. Ask for the discount as most businesses are not going to offer this on their own.

- Many US banks charge service fees for use of their cards overseas. Some banks do not charge service fees and will refund some of the services fees for using international ATMs. Contact your bank for more information on this practice.

- Outside of Korean department stores, many smaller stores do not have dressing rooms. Be prepared to slip things on over your clothes or change in a makeshift dressing room that consists of a curtain that has been hung for your privacy. Many stores and vendors do not allow you to try garments on and return policies vary greatly.

- If you find an item you like but are not prepared to buy at that time, ask the merchant for a business card so you can find the store again. When you see something you want and have done the research to know the price is right, buy it! This is also true for stores on post. Seasonal items are generally put out ahead of what you expect in the US and sometimes sell out.

- If you really like the items and prices at a particular store, ask for extra business cards to refer your friends. Many times merchants will give discounts for your word-of-mouth referrals.

- It is customary in the Korean culture to give a business card to a new acquaintance. You may want to bring some cards with you from the US with your name, email, and new APO address. Have the information printed in English on one side and Hangeul on the other. It helps to type the information to give to the printer. There are several vendors on post that are reputable.

- Shopping bags are not always free at grocery and some department stores, but for a few cents you can buy bags. It is best to come prepared with some sturdy bags or a rolling cart if you plan to make many purchases. Many stores offer an area to box your own purchases at no cost.

- New stores open all the time and some old favorites may move or go out of business, so ask your neighbors, colleagues, and friends to recommend shops that cater to your interests.
• With the exception of some food and flower markets, most stores do not open before 10:00 am. Many markets are closed on a particular weekday, so check before you go. The last week of July and the first week of August is traditionally vacation time for Koreans; be prepared for the markets to close for a few days or even a week. This also occurs during Chuseok (Korean Thanksgiving holiday) and the Lunar New Year holiday.

• Korean clothing and shoes tend to run much smaller than western items. It is important to understand that even knowing the US size does not guarantee fit. It is recommended that you take actual measurements with you when shopping. Women’s clothing larger than US size 8 is hard to find in Korea. There are some specialty shops that sell imported plus-size women’s clothing; the sizing is therefore reflective of the country of origin. For pre-made Korean apparel, there are some sizing differences that you should note. Pants are often sized by the waist measurement in centimeters or occasionally inches. Shoes are sized differently as some have Korean sizing and some have European. Shoes are measured in millimeters and usually run a bit narrow. Additional information can be found at http://www.korea4expats.com.

• Doota Mall, across from the fabric market in Dongdaemun, has information about stores that carry larger sizes. Ask at the information booth on the ground floor and they will give you a slip of paper with a list of store numbers. Some places to shop for larger clothing include department stores, outlets, brand shops, Namdaemun market, Dongdaemun market, Myeongdong, Itaewon, and the stands in front of Ehwa Women’s University.

• If you are placing an order for a custom garment, never pay the entire fee in advance. Make the smallest down payment possible since the merchant will be much more interested in seeing that the final product meets your specifications and completed in a timely manner. Know what looks best on you before placing a customized order, or you could end up forfeiting your deposit. In most cases, you will have to purchase the item since large sizes will be difficult for the tailor to sell.

• Very few quarters or apartments have carpeting. The floors in most government quarters are linoleum over concrete. Off post apartments generally have heated floors. It is best to bring any desired rugs (including runners) with you in either your express shipment or with your household goods as choices are limited in Korea and can be expensive. Another option is to check with departing personnel as they may have purchased Korean carpets specifically for the USAG Yongsan quarters and be willing to sell them. Several off post vendors will lay down wall-to-wall carpeting. The cost varies with carpet choice and vendor. Online stores will not ship rugs or rug pads OCONUS.

Women’s Clothing

Plus-size women’s clothing is harder to find in Korea. There are some specialty shops that sell imported plus-size women’s clothing; the sizing is therefore reflective of the country of origin. For pre-made Korean apparel, there are some sizing differences that you should note. Pants are often sized by the waist measurement in centimeters or occasionally inches. Shoe sizes can be difficult since some shoes have Korean sizing and some have European. Shoes are measured in millimeters. Additional information can be found at http://www.korea4expats.com.

BABY AND MATERNITY

Though the PX and Furniture Store carry most baby items, choice is limited. If you want a particular item, purchase it prior to departing the US and ship it in your household shipment. Baby furniture items, such as cribs, mattresses, changing tables, and rocking chairs, are not supplied by the Furniture Management Office and can be expensive to purchase in Korea.

Infant and toddler clothing stocks in the PX may be quickly depleted. Newborn clothing can be very expensive at the department stores.

The PX has a selection of maternity clothing but items may sell out quickly. The Second Hand Rose Thrift Shop often has gently used maternity clothes and baby items in stock. Ordering through US websites is another option for purchasing maternity clothes and baby items.

Each service provided (e.g., shampooing, blow drying, etc.) may be a separate charge. If you use special hair care products, check the online websites to see if your product can be ordered and shipped to an APO. If your favorite products are not available for order, bring a supply of those products with you. Some products can be purchased off post, but they can be hard to find and expensive.

There are many salons off post that are reputable and frequented by expats. Ask your friends and acquaintances for recommendations.

BOOKS

The Main PX on USAG Yongsan carries a wide variety of books and magazines, as does the Osan Air Base BX.

CARPETS AND RUGS

The AAFES Furniture Store carries some area rugs, carpeting, and padding at a variety of prices and sizes up to 12’x15’. Be forewarned that they sell out quickly, but they do have a waiting list and will notify you when new carpets arrive. Ask at the PX about ordering rugs for delivery to the local store from the online catalog. Occasionally, carpet vendors set up displays and sell various sizes of decorative rugs and carpets in the AAFES Four Seasons Store.
CHRISTMAS TREES
Artificial trees are available at the AAFES Four Seasons Store in the Mini-Mall on Main Post. Both live and artificial trees are available on the economy, though they are far more expensive than those available on post. Many people buy trees and decorations at the Express Bus Terminal on the third floor. The Second Hand Rose Thrift Shop usually has a selection of artificial trees along with an assortment of ornaments and other Christmas decorations at reasonable prices. Christmas tree stands are in short supply, so bring a stand in your household goods shipment if you plan to purchase a live tree. Before purchasing or shipping, consider storage requirements for artificial trees and the difficulties of disposing of live trees if you live off post.

COMMISSARY
All patrons age 10 and over must present a valid military ID and ration card to enter the store (visitors are not allowed to enter). If you do not have your ration card yet, you must bring your stamped orders, which are good only for your first 14 days in-country. The Command Unique Tracking System (CUTS) assists USFK law enforcement agencies in collecting data for inventory control and to curb black marketing.

Coupons are allowed at the commissary, as well as at the PX. Regular manufacturer, online printable, and commissary coupons may be used for up to six months after the printed expiration date while stationed overseas. You can also load coupons onto the free Commissary Rewards Card on the Commissary website. Also, see the Resources section for a list of popular couponing websites.

CUSTOM-MADE UNIFORMS
The tailor shop at the Dragon Hill Lodge sews uniforms and custom dress shirts; they carry the authorized fabric for Army uniforms only. The selection of Air Force, Marine, and Navy uniforms here is limited and some items have to be ordered from Osan or the US, so plan ahead. Women’s clothing is more difficult to make than men’s and is more expensive, so ask to see samples and prices before committing to a garment.

FURNITURE STORE/DELIVERY SERVICE
The Furniture Store offers a limited variety of US furniture, appliances, lamps, baby gear, and bound carpeting. They carry two grades of carpeting in several sizes. Carpets may be in the back out of sight, so ask for help if you don’t see what you want. Be aware that special orders can take from one to eight months to be delivered.

A-Frame Delivery will pick up and deliver large household items for a fee. Check with the Furniture Store for current rates. If you live on post, you may have to meet the delivery team at the gate to sign them on to post.

There is also a dry-cleaner, portrait studio, and optical shop. You can ship packages from the Gallery FedEx desk to arrive in the US within two days. There is a packaging service to help get items ready to mail.

GASOLINE
AAFES gas station prices are considerably cheaper than prices found on the Korean economy. Identification cards and Ration Control Cards are required for access to pump gas. The AAFES gas station has a kiosk that offers drinks, quick snacks, oil, and wiper fluid. Selection and quantities are very limited. Vacuums and air for tires are available to the side of the gas station.

Shopping, Off Post
This is a brief overview of shopping available in Seoul and nearby areas. For more information, look for local books and magazines or visit the tourist information booths located around the city. Other resources include the AFSC Shopping Club and other groups on post who offer guided local shopping excursions and day trips.
POPULAR PURCHASES
Antiques
Before you buy, spend some time comparing items and prices. Reputable dealers will tell you if a piece has been repaired, the material used, its origin, and age. Look for bamboo nails, tongue-in-groove joints, cutout or etched fittings, and locks. Ask the shop owner for a certificate of authenticity that describes the piece, lists the materials used to make it, details its usage, and includes measurements. Keep your receipt, the certificate, and a picture of your antique in case of damage or loss.
Note: National treasures may not be removed from the country. In most cases, they would be entirely too expensive to purchase. For more information, call the Office of Cultural Affairs, Seoul City Hall at 02.731.6188.
Art
Art and handicrafts are available in abundance throughout Seoul. From rice paper to hand-carved seals to painted screens, you can find items suitable as gifts as well as home décor.

Arts and Crafts
A broad range of art, craft, stationery, and architectural supplies are available.

Celadon
This unique Korean art form has evolved into some of the most beautiful ceramics available anywhere in Asia. Prices range from a few dollars for a small, inexpensive copy to thousands of dollars for an original work by one of the current “living treasures,” a designation given by the government to masters of ancient Korean arts.

Clothing
There are many clothing shops that offer great prices; however, if you are larger than a size 8, you may have trouble finding clothing in Korea. Koreans are increasingly fashion-conscious, and many new cutting-edge and trendy designers are emerging.

Flowers and Plants
Reasonably priced flowers and plants abound in Seoul. Flower markets close around lunch time so be sure to go early.

Framing
Framing is relatively inexpensive in Korea. Plastic frames are common, so if you are offered an unbelievably low price on the framing, check for plastic.

Ginseng
Ginseng is Korea’s traditional medicinal herb. This herb, known as the “miraculous medicine” or “Koryo Ginseng,” is believed to calm the mind and strengthen the body. There are many ginseng products including the root, tea, canned drinks, and even candy. It is an acquired taste, so it is advisable to taste test before you purchase. Ginseng products can be costly.

Hanbok
The hanbok is the traditional Korean attire. Hanboks can be very elaborate depending upon the fabric and handwork involved. It is still worn on official occasions and holidays such as Chuseok, weddings, and other special family gatherings.

Jewelry
There are several important factors to remember when shopping for jewelry:

- Deal with a reputable merchant if you plan on purchasing precious stones and metals.
- Know which countries specialize in what type of precious stones in order to get the best price. Korea’s special stones are amethyst and topaz. True Korean amethyst has become very expensive, so you will find many shops sell the cheaper Brazilian amethyst. The Korean jade supply was mined out several years ago; consequently, most of the jade you see comes from other Southeast Asian countries. Merchants can, and do, make high-quality synthetic stones.
- Always comparison shop before you purchase.
- When purchasing expensive jewelry, ask for certificates of authenticity, even for purchases from the PX as they are needed for insurance purposes. Carefully inspect all merchandise before purchasing.

Kimchi Pots
Brownware kimchi pots are ubiquitous, and one of the must-have souvenirs of your time in Korea. You can find more expensive kimchi pots that are food grade as well as cheaper “seconds” that are more suited to decorative purposes.

Leather
There are many good bargains to be found, but a few words of caution apply: Quality lambskin is the most expensive and you certainly do not want to pay for lamb and end up with treated cow; this also applies for fleece linings.
Quilts and Fabric
Most Korean quilts are sewn by machine and made of washable fabrics. Some are sewn by hand from ornate silks and satin fabrics, but these are usually not washable and more for decoration than everyday use. A quilt can be made to order; prices vary widely so shop around for the best prices, quality of fabric, and workmanship.

PLACES TO SHOP
There are many shopping opportunities in Seoul. The listing below is by no means complete, but it is a good place to begin your Korean shopping adventures. A trip to a department store or a shopping district can be great fun, but the markets are where you will usually find the best deals.

This section is organized into three main subsections: Markets, Shopping Districts, and Department Stores/Shopping Malls. A final “Miscellaneous” section details other destinations of potential interest.

Markets
Korea is world famous for its shopping markets. Exploring these markets can be quite an adventure. The following are just a few of the popular market areas.

Bangsan Market
A great place to shop for baking supplies.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Public Transportation: Jongno 5(o)-ga (Subway Line 1, Exit 7)

Dongdaemun (East Gate Market)
The largest of the shopping markets in Seoul and possibly the most popular with both Korean and foreign shoppers, Dongdaemun is famous for a variety of wares including fabric, clothing, shoes, sports equipment, Korean bedding, handbags, jewelry, toys, and much more. It is located in the eastern sector of the city and is easily reached by taking the subway. The market is well marked on almost all Seoul roadmaps.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Public Transportation: Dongdaemun (Subway Line 4, Station 421, Exit 8 or 9). It is also possible to drive and park in the FED Engineering Base (free to all ID card holders and roughly three blocks away)

Dongmyo
This area near Dongdaemun is a good place to shop for toys, stationery, clothing, socks, etc.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Public Transportation: Dongmyo Station (Subway Line 6, Station 636, Exit 6)

Express Bus Terminal
The huge Express Bus Terminal just south of the Han River is the hub of all long-distance bus traffic in the Republic of Korea. It is busy on a normal day and jammed on Korean holidays. It contains several floors of restaurants and interesting, inexpensive shops. There are fresh flower markets in the basement and third floor along with a huge artificial flower market with home goods on the third floor. Christmas and other holiday items are available seasonally.

CONTACT INFORMATION. Public Transportation: Subway: Express Bus Terminal Station (Subway Line 3 or 7, Exit 1), Bus: Exit Gate 6 (Commissary Gate) and take a right; walk to the stop light and cross the street to the bus stop. Take bus 143 or 401 and get off at the second stop after you cross the river. For the return journey, make sure you are on the opposite side of the street and again take bus 143 or 401. Shopping Districts Certain areas of Seoul have developed reputations as special shopping and commercial districts. A list of a few shopping districts is below.

Itaewon
This area is conveniently located outside Gate 5 (the Gas Station Gate) and across the street. It is a good place to venture off post for your first shopping adventure. Many of the vendors speak English and it is not quite as overwhelming as some of the larger markets in Seoul. You can find clothing, shoes, travel bags, luggage, leather and eel skin goods, brass, antiques, and reproductions.

The Underground: The Underground shopping area is a block away from McDonald’s and across the alley from “The Bag Man” purse shop. There are many entrances to The Underground.

There are hundreds of vendors selling an array of brand name clothing, shoes, jackets, underwear, and souvenirs. There is a limited amount of children’s clothing, but not at bargain prices compared to the sales available in the United States. Some stores will not let you try on clothes, but some will encourage you to, whether they have a changing area or not. Take the stairs, leading up or down, to see more floors packed with hundreds of vendors and their wares.

Boutique Area: Follow the small street that leads to “The Underground.” Keep walking until you pass a small tag store on the right hand side. (The tag store will sew your name in Korean on luggage and clothing tags while you wait and also sells hats and ready-made luggage tags.) Once you pass the tag shop, you will see Monica’s Custom Tailor shop. Turn right in front of this store. Walk down a narrow, steep alleyway, leading down hill. At the bottom of the hill, there are boutiques lining both sides of the street. Many stores are closed on Tuesdays.

Hamilton Shopping Center: There is a wide variety of stores in this four-level shopping center attached to the hotel and often is simply referred to as the “Hamilton” or the “Hamilton Hotel.” The lower levels sell watches, jewelry, purses and souvenirs; the top two floors are mostly clothing, purses, and luggage. Have a specific item in mind when shopping the lower levels, as the vendors tend to be a bit aggressive as they pressure you to buy. Take the escalator to the top level where there are also bathrooms. There is also a reputable rug dealer with a nice selection of Persian rugs. He also offers rug cleaning and repair. Some shops take US dollars, but exchange rates can vary from store to store.

Remix: On the right side of the main street toward the middle section of the shopping area, Remix offers a selection of clothing. It is easy to walk by and miss the store.

Shoe and Boot Shop (no name on store front): This store is located immediately before the Remix clothes shop. Go downstairs to get to the store. It carries a good selection of ladies shoes and boots at reasonable prices.
A-One: On the right side of the main street toward the middle of the shopping area, A-One offers a selection of shoes and boots.

The Republic of Korea is a vibrant, vital country of more than 50 million people. Koreans have become world travelers, world-class economic competitors, and highly regarded participants in world affairs. The Korean people’s spiritual wealth, traditional respect for elders, strong belief in community, love of nature, and strong national pride are the underpinnings for Korea’s vast economic and commercial accomplishments over the last several decades.

Keeping an open mind and being willing to appreciate and embrace cultural differences will make your time here one of the most memorable periods of your life. Embark on your Korean experience with a sense of adventure and your journey may surprise you in new and wonderful ways.

On a busy day in Seoul, you’ll notice the following:

- The industriousness of the people: The official work and school week is Monday through noon Saturday.
- Traffic: Everyone tries to “get there first.” The traffic in many parts of Korea is legendary and rivals the worst that New York, Paris, London, or Washington, DC has to offer.
- A myriad of aromas. Much like other heavily populated areas of the world, Seoul will tickle your nose with a variety of scents.
- The clothing: Koreans are much more formal in their dress than most Westerners and take great pains with their appearance.
- The Korean alphabet, Hangeul: This phonetic alphabet is actually straightforward, but often intimidating to foreigners. The 1988 Olympics in Seoul encouraged the Koreans to print most major road and street signs in both Hangeul and English.
- The jostling crowds: Space is precious in Seoul. Koreans are accustomed to tight crowds, and they assume everyone else is too. Therefore, pushing and shoving without an apology are normal and not to be taken personally.
• The markets: Nowhere in the world are there markets and shopping areas to rival those of Seoul. From westernized Itaewon and Myeongdong, to more traditional Dongdaemun and Namdaemun where you will find products grouped according to type, as well as the innumerable local neighborhood vendors selling fish, fruit, vegetables, and many other wares, you’ve got to shop in Seoul to believe it! (See Markets under the Shopping section for more information.)

While you are here, take every opportunity to explore this beautiful, mountainous country. Strike up conversations with the Korean people, taste the delicious and sometimes unusual food, and enjoy the cultural arts. It will definitely be an experience you will never forget.

South Korea shares a land boundary with North Korea of about 150 miles or 238 kilometers.

Mount Halla (Hallasan) (6,396 feet/1,950 meters) on Jeju Island (Jeju-do) is the tallest mountain. • Area: South Korea is 8,452 square miles/99,237 square km (about the size of Indiana).

• Climate: You will experience long, cold winters and short, hot, humid summers with late monsoon rains and flooding. Temperatures in January average 21°F to 35°F. In July the averages are 71°F to 82°F. The annual rainfall varies from year to year but usually averages more than 39 inches or 100 centimeters. Of that total, two-thirds of the precipitation falls between June and September.

National & Religious Holidays

January 1, New Year’s Day (Sinjeong): A popular event is the New Year’s Eve bell-ringing ceremony at Bosingak in Jongno, literally “bell street,” Seoul, which draws throngs of people from all over Seoul. The first day of the new year is celebrated with friends, coworkers, and families. It is common for Koreans to travel to famous sunrise spots in order to make New Year’s wishes as they greet the first sunrise.

Lunar New Year (Seollal) is one of the most celebrated national holidays in Korea. It is celebrated much like January 1, but on a grander scale, as it lasts three days. On the day of Seollal, everyone rises early, puts on their best clothes, and bows to their elders. Tteokguk, rice cake soup, is the main food of Seollal and eating it is believed to add a year to one’s age. Along with eating tteokguk, and other traditional foods such as manduguk, kimchi, and bulgogi, there is much singing and game-playing.

March 1, Independence Movement Day (Samil Chul): This day commemorates the anniversary of the March 1, 1919, Independence Movement against the Japanese occupation. This day was officially designated as a public holiday to commemorate the men and women who died during the Independence Movement, and is marked by a reading of the declaration at Topgol Park in Seoul, where it was first read to the public.

May 1, Labor Day: This is not a government holiday; however, many banks and businesses may be closed.

May 5, Children’s Day (Eorini Nal): This day is celebrated with various programs for children who dress up and spend the day enjoying themselves with their parents.

Buddha’s Birthday (Seokgatansinil or Bucheonnim Osin Nal): Buddha’s Birthday is celebrated on the eighth day of the fourth month of the lunar calendar. Solemn rituals are performed at Buddhist temples and lotus lanterns are lit and carried in parades on the Sunday evening before.

June 6, ROK Memorial Day (Hyeonchung-il): On this day, the nation pays tribute to the soldiers and civilians who have given their lives for their country. At 10:00 am, a siren sounds, calling for a one-minute silent tribute. Memorial services are held at the National Cemetery in Seoul.

August 15, Liberation Day (Gwangbokjeol): On this day in 1945, Korea was liberated from Japan after 36 years of colonial rule. It also marks the 1948 establishment of the government of the Republic of Korea.

Harvest Full Moon/Korean Thanksgiving Day (Chuseok): Chuseok is celebrated on the fifteenth day of the eighth lunar month. (September/October). Chuseok is Korea’s most important traditional holiday and lasts several days.

On the morning of Chuseok Day, a Charye (ancestral memorial service) is held. Songpyeon, a type of Korean rice cake, and food prepared with the year’s fresh harvest, are set out to give thanks to ancestors. People also visit ancestral homes and family tombs to present food offerings to their ancestors. Most Koreans travel to their hometowns during this holiday, so traffic is unusually heavy.

October 3, National Foundation Day (Dangun Nal or Gaecheonjeol): This day commemorates the traditional founding of the Korean nation in 2333 BC by the legendary god-king Dangun. A simple ceremony is held at an altar on top of Manisan in Gyeonggi Province. The altar is said to have been erected by Dangun to offer thanks to his father and grandfather in heaven.

October 9, Korean Language Day (Hangeul Nal): The day commemorates the creation of Hangeul, the native alphabet of the Korean language. King Sejong the Great, inventor of Hangeul, is one of the most honored rulers in Korean history. This is a national holiday celebrated with a variety of activities and events centered around Korean students.

December 25, Christmas Day (Gidoktansinil): Christmas is celebrated as a national holiday in Korea as in many other countries. Families with little children observe Christmas the same as many American families, with Santa and Christmas decorations. Christmas trees in Korean homes are small and most of them are artificial. The traditional Christmas cakes are very colorful and a very popular treat during the season.
The Korean Language

The Korean language has evolved throughout the centuries. No one knows how long it has been spoken and, despite the geographical closeness of China and Japan, Korean is linguistically distinct from Chinese and Japanese.

Chinese characters were used to write Korean until the 15th century. However, since they were hard to learn and were very different from the Korean spoken language, most people remained illiterate. In 1446, after many years of study and testing by the ruler, King Sejong and his scholars introduced a unique Korean alphabet. It was devised on a purely phonetic basis and consisted of 28 characters. These were arranged in syllable units or blocks and not into linear words. This meant the syllables could be written horizontally or vertically on a page. Over time, from this original alphabet, Hangeul, the modern alphabet, has evolved. It has 24 characters and follows the Western convention of writing from left to right. Chinese characters are rarely used today in conjunction with the Korean alphabet, as it is possible to communicate fluently without them.

USEFUL KOREAN PHRASES

Many Koreans, especially in Seoul, do speak some English as it has been taught in Korean schools in more recent times. The mainly testing-oriented educational system means that many Koreans have memorized a lot of English grammar and vocabulary, but feel quite shy about their conversational skills. Learning some of the following Korean phrases may assist you during your time in Korea.

NUMBERS

Chinese numbers are often used when counting sequentially. This includes money, telephone numbers, dates, mileage, etc. When shopping, listen for the Chinese numbers, particularly for the endings, which mean hundred, thousand, and ten thousand. Notice that Korean numbers go as far as 99. Beyond 100, Chinese numbers are used. When counting how many people, use Korean numbers. Sometimes in the smaller restaurants the prices will be written in the Chinese figures, usually from top to bottom. The following chart offers a brief glimpse of some of the differences in the two systems:

Culture and Customs

South Korea's population shares a common ethnic and cultural heritage. More than Western people, South Korean individuals tend to view themselves as a tightly knit national community with a common destiny. Intense feelings of nationalism, so evident in athletic events like the 1988 Olympic Games held in Seoul and the World Cup soccer games of 2002, reveal a sense of pride concerning South Korea's place in the world. This section highlights important traditions, cultural attitudes, and etiquette. Your awareness of these factors will greatly reward you as you meet and interact with new Korean friends.

The Seoul Survivor Committee is grateful to Mr. Young K. Chang, instructor at the Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center, Presidio of Monterey, California, from whose publication, Cultural Orientation (Korean), much of this chapter is extracted.

KOREAN NON-VERBAL BEHAVIOR AND ETIQUETTE

Customs and attitudes are different in Asia than those of Western countries. Korea has its own set of courtesies. If you take the time to learn and observe them, the rewards are significant.

Meeting and Greeting

The traditional bow has given way to the handshake, but friendly backslaps or arm squeezing is considered rude here. Koreans meeting for the first time introduce themselves only at the invitation of a third party. The formal ritual of introduction is similar to this:

The person who knows everyone in the group invites his friends to introduce themselves. One says, "I am seeing you for the first time." The other repeats the same sentence, and the elder one suggests that they introduce themselves. The introductions and formal bows are followed by an exchange of calling/business cards. These cards are very important in Korea. They give an opportunity for each person to discover the other’s position without rudely inquiring about them. Cards also do away with the need of asking someone’s name twice. As a sign of respect, when someone presents you with a business card, take a moment to read it before putting it away.

The proper use of names in Korea is also important. A person’s name is considered his or her personal property. Koreans regard their name with reverence. The persistent wave of Westernization has accustomed Koreans to being addressed by their family name, but only intimate friends and family greet each other on a first-name basis. Koreans prefer titles rather than names. For example, you would call the company president “Sa-jang-nim” or someone with a PhD “Bak-sa,” Teacher or “Sun-saeng-nim” is an acceptable title for anyone.

Try to remember that no matter how “Western” many Koreans may appear on the surface, their thinking is still governed by traditions, which are based on a culture several thousands of years old. The following list covers some important traditions relating to etiquette:

- Looking into an acquaintance’s eyes was generally considered impolite. Though this is not necessarily true today, older Koreans may find direct eye contact offensive.
- Use your right hand when performing tasks such as presenting gifts, paying a bill, or pouring a drink. Your left hand should loosely cup your forearm. The closer your left hand is to your wrist the less respect is being given, while your left hand cupping your forearm near your elbow would show greater respect. Using the left hand for these tasks is considered very impolite; most Koreans do understand that the Western custom is different.
- Do not point the index finger toward a person or gesture with your foot, it is considered insulting. You may gesture with your full hand, palm upward.
- Do not write someone’s name in red ink (e.g., endorse checks, sign letters, etc.). A name written in red means death.
• If invited to dine at someone’s home, bring a gift. When presenting the gift, use proper etiquette.
• Take your shoes off when entering a Korean house or restaurant with low tables.
• Do not start eating before your guest of honor or senior.
• Do not say, “I don’t drink” when offered unwanted alcoholic beverages. It is more polite to say, “I’m not feeling very well today,” “I am a designated driver,” or “I’m on medication.”
• Do not eat or drink without offering food or beverage to your colleagues.
• Ask your Korean guest more than once to help himself to more food and drink.
• Do not pour your own drink; pour for someone and let him reciprocate.
• Try to wear conservative clothes. Bare shoulders are considered inappropriate.
• See your guest off at the gate/door, and stay there until your guest is gone.
• “Yes” is often used simply to acknowledge what is said by one’s counterpart; it does not necessarily mean one is in agreement or understanding.
• Do not suggest splitting the bill; each person or family should alternate paying the bill. Remember when it is your turn to pay.
• You may often see two male friends or two female friends walking affectionately arm-in-arm. This is in no way an indication of their sexual preference.
• Koreans love children and in this culture, children are treated as “everyone’s treasures” to cherish and protect. Koreans will often want to touch and hold your children; blondes and redheads are rare in Korea, and often attract the most attention. If your children are uncomfortable with this, remove yourselves from the situation as politely as possible. A simple “no, thank you” usually will suffice.

TRADITIONAL KOREAN MEALS/FOOD

Plain or cooked with other grains, rice (bap) is the main dish at most Korean meals, accompanied by a variety of side dishes including bean paste soup, roasted beef and fish, as well as steamed and seasoned vegetables. Soy sauce, soybean paste, red pepper paste, ginger root, sesame oil, and sesame seeds are other seasonings essential to Korean cuisine. Food is usually eaten with a pair of chopsticks and a large spoon.

The traditional Korean homemaker believes that much of her family’s happiness depends on her culinary expertise. She often begins her day by preparing a substantial breakfast of hearty soup, meat or fish, steamed rice and kimchi. A light lunch follows which is similar to the breakfast fare. A generous evening meal is favored, and can include up to 15 or 20 dishes for special occasions. Holiday celebrations are an important part of family life in Korea. All celebrations, no matter how large, center on the home. Women can spend hours preparing the traditional dishes; sometimes a family’s reputation depends on the amount and quality of the food.

At an elegant Korean dinner, the first course might be Ku-jol-p’an (nine compartments dish). It is somewhat similar to a French hors d’oeuvre tray. The cooked meat and vegetables are arranged on a large platter with a mound of pancakes in the center.

Today’s homemakers in Korea, like many others in advanced nations, usually have little time to prepare these traditional foods and are well acquainted with frozen fare, microwave lunches, and other high tech cooking conveniences. Fast food restaurants, takeout/delivery (speedily brought on the back of a motor scooter with a heated box strapped to the back), and food stalls for the passerby are very popular for the busy Korean.

Native food is offered in small restaurants, in the large hotels, and in gourmet sections of the large department stores, such as Lotte or Shinsegae. Korean supermarkets usually have sample stations scattered throughout, where they will encourage everyone to try their wares.
