

Special Operations Command Pacific

Command Master Chief Joaquin Martinez

Command Senior Enlisted Leader

Command Master Chief Joaquin Martinez is from Ontario, California. He attended Recruit Training Command, San Diego in September 1992. He completed Special Warfare Combat Crewman (SWCC) training in September 2000 with Class 33 and was subsequently assigned to various Naval Special Warfare commands.

Command Master Chief Martinez has served in a wide range of diverse assignments to include duties as Command Master Chief, Naval Special Warfare Center, Deputy Force Master Chief, Naval Special Warfare Command, and Command Master Chief, Special Boat Team TWELVE. Prior to these roles, he served as the SWCC Training Senior Enlisted Advisor, NSW Basic Training Command, and Operations Master Chief, Special Boat Team TWENTY-TWO.

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, four Meritorious Service Medals, Joint Service Commendation Medal, four Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, Joint Service Achievement Medal, six Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals, ten Good Conduct Medals, Expert Rifle and Pistol Medals, and various unit and campaign awards. His warfare devices include SWCC Master, Enlisted Surface Warfare, and Navy and Marine Corps Parachutist (MFFJM).

He is a graduate of the Joint Special Operations University Summit Course, U.S. Navy's Advanced Command Master Chief Course, Command Master Chief / Chief of the Boat Course, and Navy Senior Enlisted Academy. In addition, he holds an Associates of Applied Science in Administrative Management from Excelsior University, a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership and a Master of Science in Strategic Leadership from the University of Charleston West Virginia.