

Special Operations Command Pacific

Major General Jeffrey A. VanAntwerp Commander

Major General Jeffrey (Jeff) A. VanAntwerp assumed command of U.S. Special Operations Command Pacific July 3, 2025. Previously he served as the US Army Pacific Command G3 Operations Officer.

Major General VanAntwerp was commissioned in 1998 following graduation from the United States Military Academy at West Point. He attended the infantry officer's basic course at Ft. Benning, Georgia served as an Infantry Platoon Leader at the 25th ID in Hawaii, and as a Company Commander in a Stryker BDE at Joint Base Lewis-McChord and Iraq from 2004-2006.

In 2008, Major General VanAntwerp was assessed and selected by an Army Special Operations Unit and served in various Special Operations assignments deploying to multiple locations in support of the war on terror. In 2020, he was assigned as the Deputy Commander for Operations at the 25th Infantry Division where he had the opportunity to operate throughout the Indo-Pacific.

A graduate of Columbia University and the US Army War College, Major General VanAntwerp is married with seven children and enjoys spending time with his kids, working out, and surfing when he can.

