

SOCM (SEAL)
Timothy Boehmer
United States Navy

Master Chief Timothy B. Boehmer is from Alta Vista, Iowa. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1988 and after attending Engineman “A” School, received orders to Basic Underwater Demolition School, where he graduated with Class 165.

Master Chief Boehmer has served in a wide range of diverse assignments to include duties as a SEAL Operator aboard SEAL Team FOUR, instructor at Naval Special Warfare Center Detachment Yuma, Platoon Leading Petty Officer (LPO) and Platoon Leading Chief Petty Officer (LCPO) while stationed at SEAL Team EIGHT, and Task Unit LCPO at SEAL Team TWO, a Joint Staff Integrated Vulnerability Assessment Team LCPO while stationed at Defense Threat Reduction Agency, and Operations Master Chief and Command Master Chief at SEAL Team EIGHT.

His follow-on assignments were as Naval Special Warfare Group TWO where he was the Operations Master Chief Senior Enlisted Advisor to Naval Special Warfare Unit TEN and Special Operations Command Forward-East Africa. His most recent tour was as the Command Senior Enlisted Leader for Special Operations Command Korea.

He is a graduate of the Joint Special Operations University Summit course, Combined/Joint Force Special Operations Component Commanders Course, U.S. Navy’s Command Leadership School and U.S. Navy Senior Enlisted Academy in Newport, RI. In addition, he has an Associate Degree from Coast Line Community College in Military Related Specialty.

Master Chief Boehmer’s awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Bronze Star, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (4 Awards), Army Commendation Medal, Joint Service Achievement Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (4 Awards), and various unit awards.

Master Petty Officer Boehmer is slated take over as the Special Operations Command, Pacific (SOCPAC) Senior Enlisted Leader in August 2019. He is married to the former Michelle LaLonde from Virginia. They have two children, Ava and Joseph.

