Welcome to Stuttgart!

Stuttgart is a city of contrasts – from idyllic vineyards, valleys and hills to some of the world's most famous car brands, renowned museums and great shopping.

There's so much to discover: whether it's the city's lively cultural scene, charming neighbourhoods, vibrant club scene or just its general attitude to life, the Swabian metropolis, with its very distinctive character, is well worth a visit – time and time again.

To make your experience of Stuttgart as stress-free as possible, we recommend you use our buses, trams and trains. Thanks to a dense network of public transport and well-co-ordinated schedules, you can get around Stuttgart quickly and easily. You can also use public transport to take an exciting tour of the provincial capital.

With this little guide, you'll be able to find your way through the maze of various ticket options available, just like a "real Stuttgarter". Come aboard – and discover Stuttgart's most beautiful sights!

Getting around Stuttgart – the key facts at a glance

Tickets are available for purchase from VVS ticket machines at public transport stops and stations, from bus drivers and all VVS ticket offices. With the Mobile Ticket, you can buy your tickets spontaneously on the go, while with the online PrintTicket, you can print your tickets at home. More information is available at www.ssb-ag.de/tickets

The ticket price will typically depend on the number of tariff zones you wish to travel in. Tariff zone 10 includes the “core zone” of Stuttgart. Tariff zone 20 reaches somewhat beyond the borders of Stuttgart.

More information on tariff zones and tickets is available at our offices and from www.ssb-ag.de

The ticket machine – easier than it looks.

Choose a ticket

Use the selection keys 1 to select your ticket.

Select the tariff zone

Use the numerical keypad 2 to select the number of zones (001 for one zone, 002 for two zones, etc.) or alternatively, enter the code for your destination stop, which you can find on the destination 3 directory.

More options

If you need more tickets, simply press the plus key "+" after you have selected your ticket 4.

Use the correction key "C" 4 to start over.

Pay for your ticket

Pay using cash or a credit or debit card 5 and take your ticket from the machine 6.

i Validate your ticket

You no longer have to validate (time-stamp) any tickets that you buy from a ticket machine or driver. The only exception is the Multi Journey Ticket, which must be validated every time you travel – you can usually do this on board or at S-Bahn (suburban railway) stations directly on the platform.

A simple solution for anyone wanting to travel up to three stops in one journey

Short Distance Ticket – € 1.20/journey

As the name suggests, the Short Distance Ticket is ideal for short journeys, e.g. if you want to get quickly from the main railway station to Schlossplatz.

Validity

- The Short Distance Ticket is valid for travel up to three stops on trams or buses (without transferring to other lines or breaking the journey), and to the next stop on S-Bahn trains and the local railway network (DB, WEG).
- The journey must be commenced immediately from the stop indicated on the ticket and transfers are not permitted.

Additional information

- The ticket is not valid on night buses.

Also available as a Mobile Ticket

The more convenient and simpler way to buy tickets – you can buy your Short Distance Tickets, Single Tickets and Day Tickets anytime, anywhere with the SSB App "FahrInfo Stuttgart" or from mobil.ssb-ag.de.

The classic ticket for a one-way journey, including connections

Single Ticket – from € 2.07/journey

The Single Ticket is ideal if you want to travel more than three stops, or have to change connections.

Validity

- The Single Ticket allows you to break your journey any time in the direction of your final stop and to change to another connection.
- The ticket is valid in the selected tariff zone for two hours from purchase or validation.

Inexpensive solution for anyone wanting to make multiple trips

Multi Journey Ticket – from € 2.08/journey

Whether you're travelling alone, as a couple or a small group, the Multi Journey Ticket will save you money. Another advantage is that these tickets are valid for up to one year.

Validity

- The ticket is valid for four single journeys within the selected area (tariff zone/s).
- The ticket can be used for up to two hours from purchase or validation.
- When two or more people are travelling on a Multi Journey Ticket, one section must be time-stamped per person and journey.

Additional information

- The ticket must be validated before or upon boarding the vehicle (bus, tram) or on the platform (S-Bahn).
- Tickets purchased before a price change will be valid for a period of one year.

Ideal solution for anyone planning to do a lot of travelling in one day

Day Ticket – from € 6.50/day

The Day Ticket is a good choice for those who do a lot of travelling during the day and are still on the move at night.

Validity

- With the Day Ticket, you can make as many journeys as you like in one day.
- The travel card is valid until the end of operating hours (including night buses) from purchase or validation, but may not be transferred to another person.

Additional information

- Day Tickets purchased in advance before a price change and that have not been validated will be valid for a period of one year.
- Online PrintTickets are valid on the date printed on the ticket and within the selected tariff zone/s.

Ideal solution for small groups planning to do a lot of travelling in one day

Group Day Ticket – from € 2.26/person

The Group Day Ticket allows groups of up to five people to make an unlimited number of journeys on buses, trams and trains during one day. This is ideal for a group excursion or trip into the city.

Validity

- Group Day Tickets may be used for an unlimited number of journeys and are valid for groups of up to five adults or parents with any number of children aged up to and including 17.
- The ticket is valid until the end of operating hours (including night buses) from purchase or validation.

Additional information

- Online PrintTickets are valid on the date printed on the ticket and the person named on the ticket must be one of the passengers travelling.

Did you know?

Stuttgart is the city of steps! More than 400 "Stäffele" – flights of steps – around the city invite you to explore Stuttgart in a unique way.

Great solution for anyone planning to travel around Stuttgart over three days

3 Day Ticket – from € 3.67/day

The 3 Day Ticket is a special ticket designed for overnight guests at hotels, B&Bs and guest houses within the VVS network, as well as for visitors attending conferences or meetings.

Validity

- The 3 Day Ticket is valid for three consecutive days for one adult and two children (aged 6-17) for an unlimited number of journeys within the selected tariff zone/s.
- The ticket must be validated and signed before the first journey and is non-transferable.

Additional information

- These travel cards are available for sale at the reception desks at numerous hotels, B&Bs and guest houses.
- 3 Day Tickets are also available on presentation of written proof of an overnight stay in a hotel or a conference registration form at the i-Punkt Tourist Information Office (Stuttgart, Königstr. 1A) or at the Welcome Information Centre at the airport (arrivals hall in Terminal 3).

Our tour recommendations

Tour 1: Right up high, at the top of the world in Stuttgart

Stuttgart has many hills, vantage points and parks, offering great views of the beautiful Rems Valley, the Bopser – including the TV Tower – and, of course, the valley basin. The area surrounding the city's vantage points is perfect for a relaxing walk or a little quiet and contemplation. Alternatively, you may fancy a ride on the miniature railway to Killesberg.

Itinerary:

- Start: At the main station (Hauptbahnhof), take bus No. 44 (direction Killesberg) to "Im Kaisemer", vantage point: Chinese gardens.
- Travel with bus No. 44 to "Killesberg Höhenpark"; vantage point: Schlaichturm observation tower
- Take bus No. 44 back to the main station or walk through the IGA grounds and the Rosenstein Park to the stop "Mineralbäder", and then travel with the U14 to the main station.

Ticket recommendation: Day Ticket – 1 zone

Tour 2: Discover Stuttgart with children

This tour is not just great fun for children: Take the steep ride up on the rack railway to experience nature in the "Haus des Waldes" forestry education centre, grill sausages, enjoy an ice cream and the unique views from Eugensplatz and take the rack railway back down to the lower palace gardens (Unterer Schlossgarten).

Itinerary:

- Start: At the main station (Hauptbahnhof), take the U14 (direction Heschlach) to "Marienplatz".
- Travel with the rack railway to the final stop "Haus des Waldes" and continue to the barbecue and playground area
- Walk back to "Ruhbank" and take the U15 to "Eugensplatz", then continue on foot to the lower palace gardens.
- Alternatively, you can walk to the stop "Waldau" and take the U7 to the main station.

Ticket recommendation: Group Day Ticket – 1 zone

Tour 3: Stuttgart and its vineyards

From the Württemberg mausoleum (Grabkappelle) to the idyllic district of Uhlbach – this tour is all about wine and the many vineyards Stuttgart has to offer. You may want to sample a few glasses of wine for yourself – after all, when you're travelling by public transport, you can enjoy a drink or two!

Itinerary:

- Start: Take the U4 from "Rotebühlplatz" (direction Untertürkheim) to the final stop. Change here to bus No. 61 and travel to the final stop "Rotenberg". From here, it's just a short walk to the picturesque mausoleum.
- For the way back, we recommend a short walk downhill through the vineyards to Uhlbach, including a visit to the Museum of Viniculture (Weinbaumuseum).
- Wine tasting opportunities:
Weinmanufaktur Untertürkheim (Stop "Kelterplatz")
Collegium Württemberg (Stop "Sonnenbühl")
- From Uhlbach, take bus No. 62 to Obertürkheim, and from there take the S1 into Stuttgart city centre.

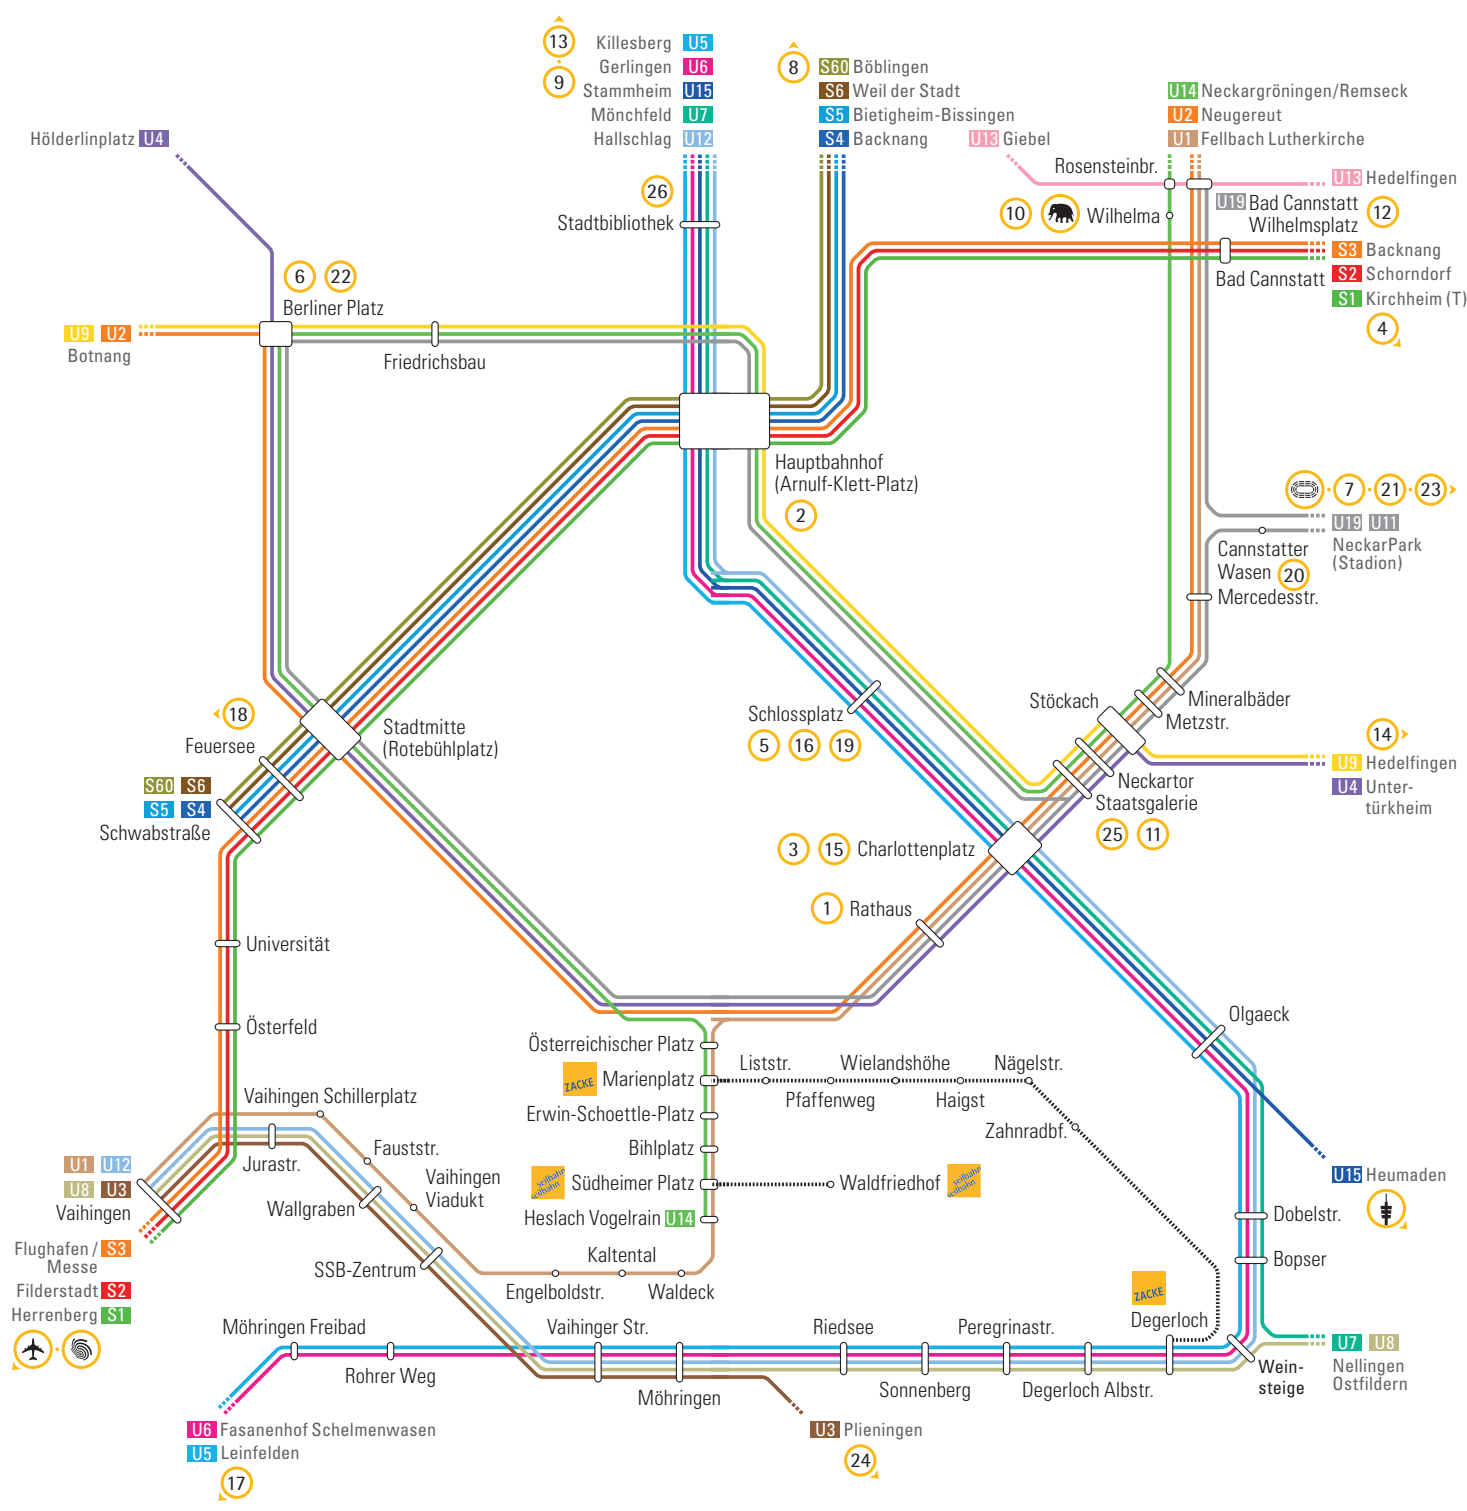

Ticket recommendation: Day Ticket – 2 zones

Tour 4: Stuttgart with all the bells and whistles

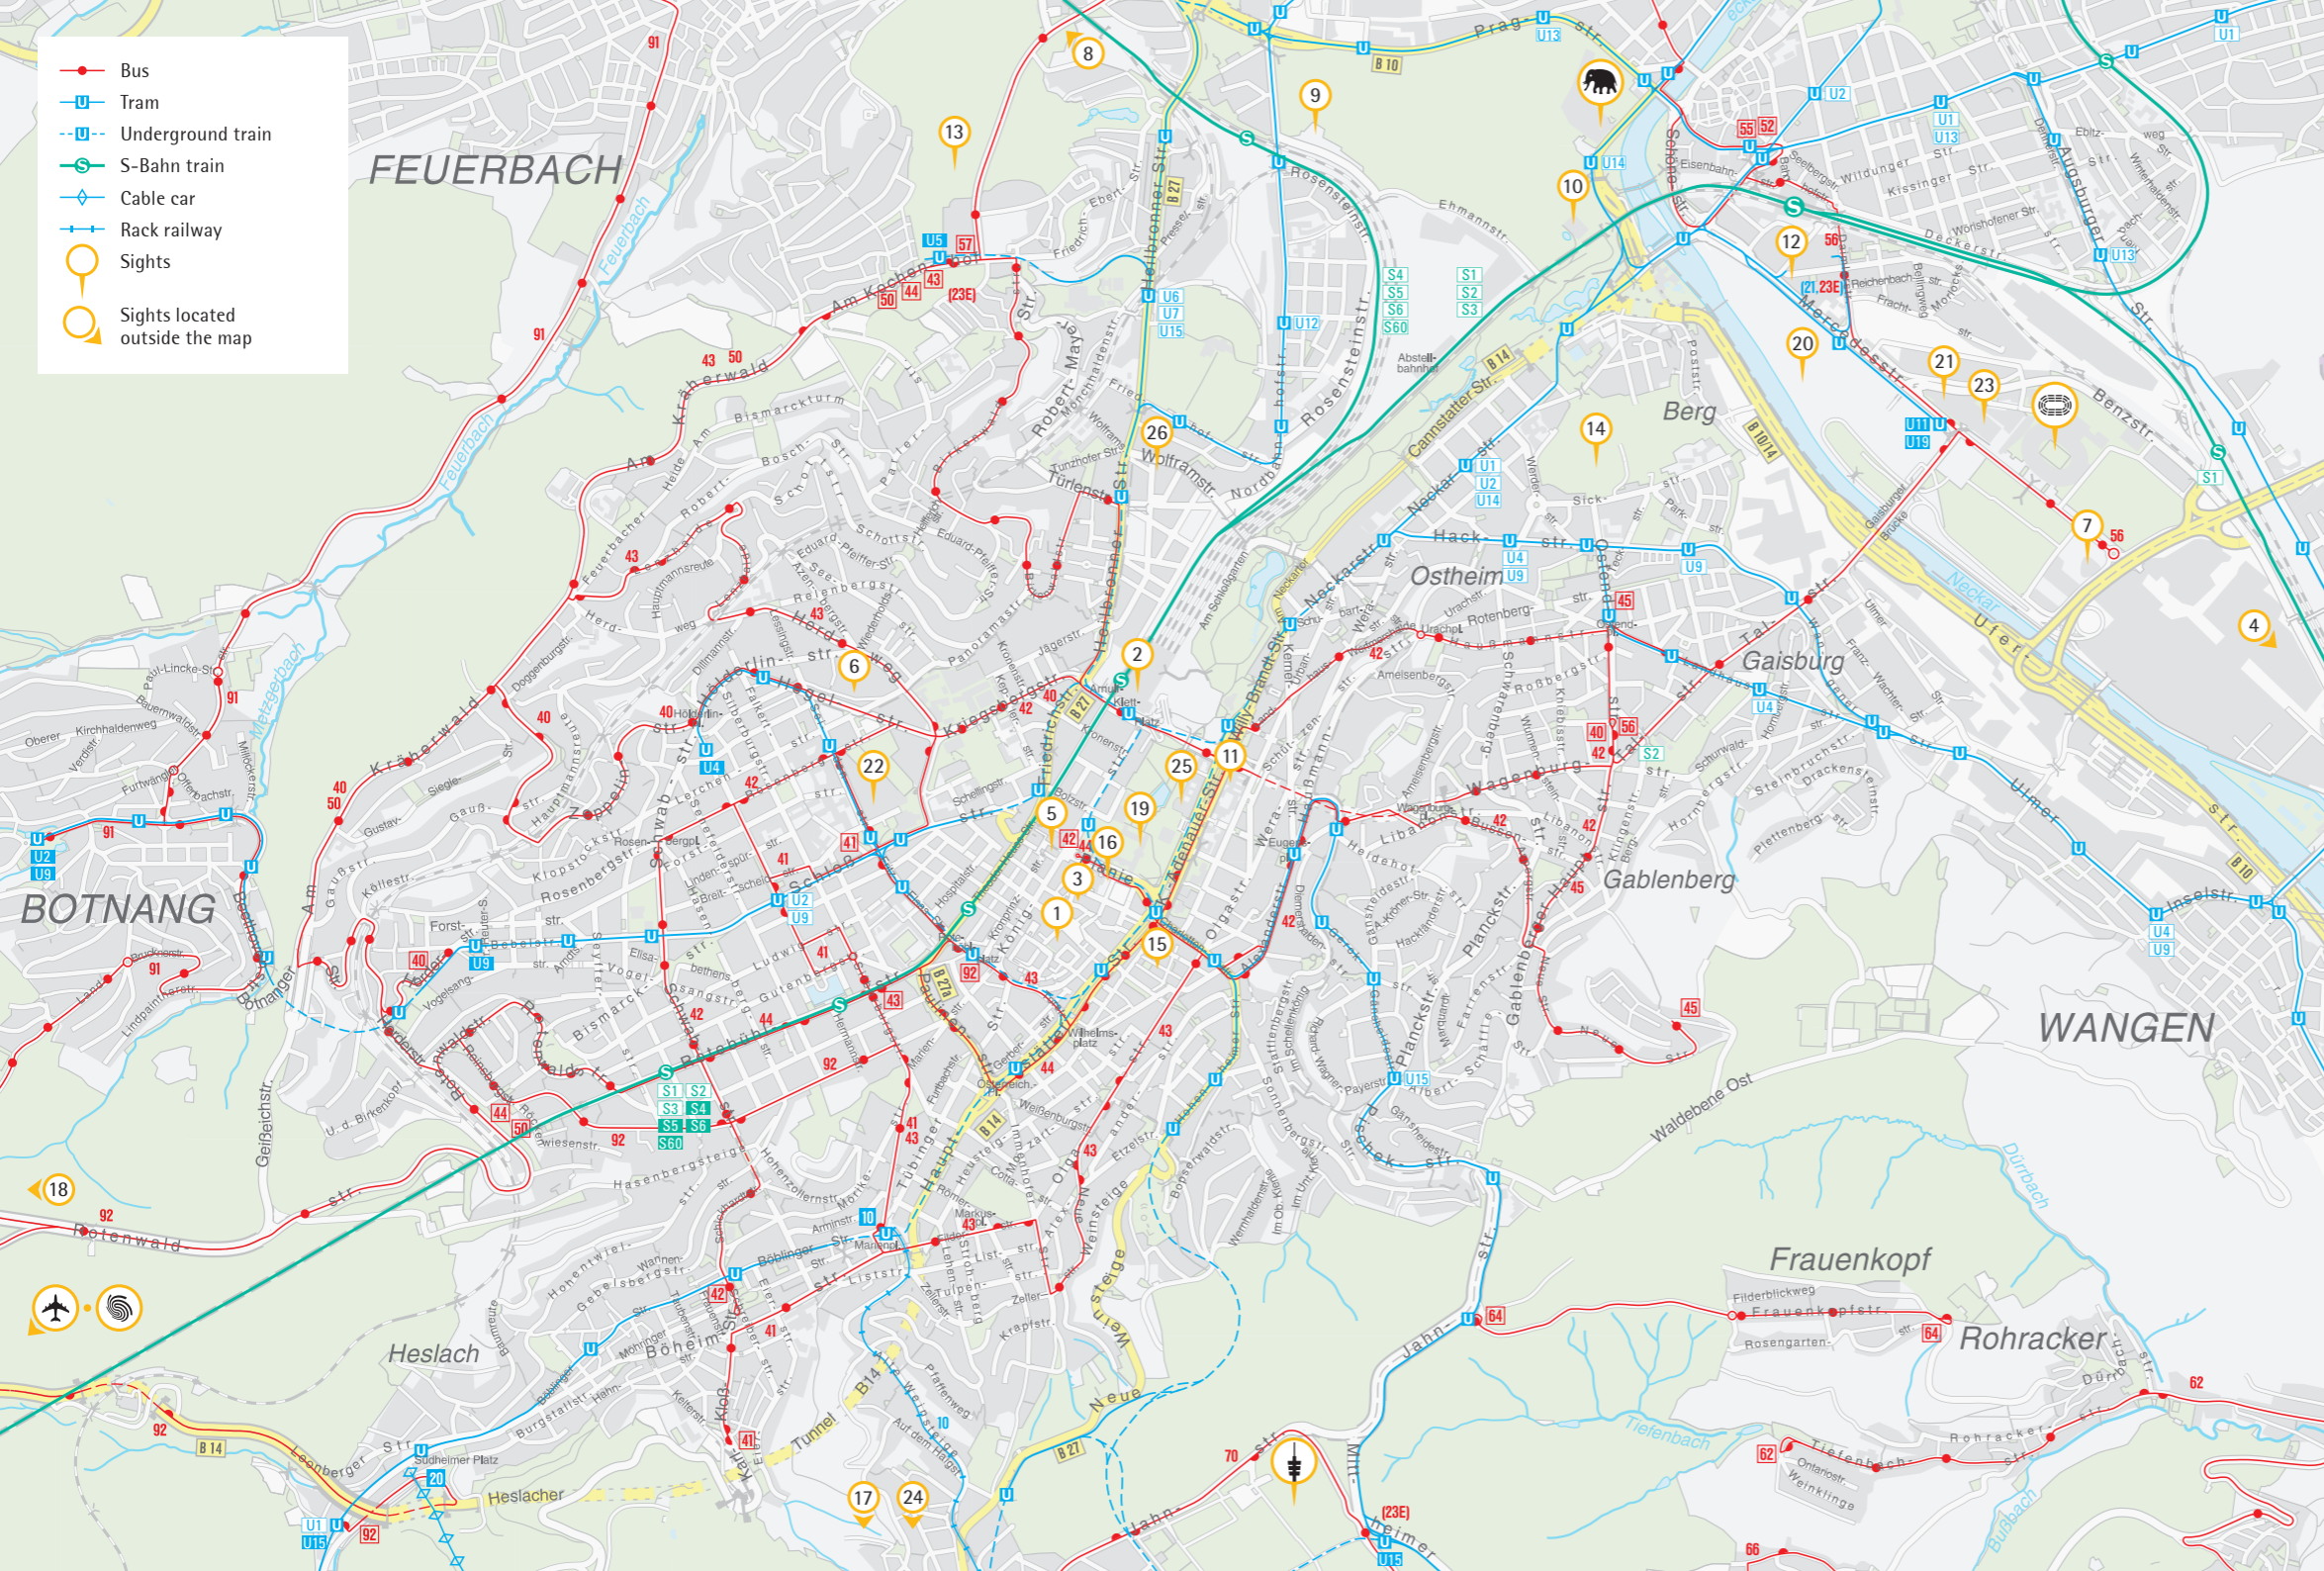

Our tour will let you experience Stuttgart from every angle and soak up the region's special charm and way of life – from a visit to the "Weißenhofsiedlung" – a housing estate built for exhibition in 1927 – to the historic Hoppenlau Cemetery and the city's various trendy neighbourhoods. A ride on the legendary rack railway – affectionately known as the "Zacke" (tooth) by the locals – and the Karlshöhe lookout are the highlights of this tour. And you can visit all these places on just one bus!

- Start: Take line 43 from "Rotebühlplatz" and hop off and on as you please:
- Killesberg Hill Park, Weißenhofsiedlung (Stop: "Killesberg")
- Hoppenlau Cemetery, Linden-Museum (Stop: "Linden-Museum")
- Liederhalle Culture and Congress Centre, Bosch-Areal (Stop: "Berliner Platz (Liederhalle)")
- Königstraße (main shopping street) (Stop: "Wilhelmsbau")
- Leonhard Church (Leonhardskirche), Marktplatz (Stop: "Rathaus")
- Historic Bohnenviertel district (Stop: "Charlottenplatz", "Dorotheenstraße")
- Ride on the "Zacke" (Stop: "Marienplatz")
- Karlshöhe, Lapidarium (Stop: "Marien-/Silberburgstraße")
- Feuersee lake (Stop: "Feuersee")

Ticket recommendation: Day Ticket – 1 zone
